Toronto Upper Canada
30th April 1836

Dear Sir

Give me leave to return you my

Most hearty acknowledgement for your prompt and kind attention in communicating to me directly the important judgement delivered by Lord Lockburn on the 1th March a result that I must say, I was not prepared for, after the imposing decisions that had lieu formerly given against us, and the powerful influences with which we have had to contend. Called upon, as I have been during the whole proceedings, to admire the constancy and perseverance of Mr. Duncan under circumstances adverse of Mr. Duncan under circumstances adverse in no ordinary degree feelings from which at the same time I cannot separate yourself – it is a great consolation to me, if only on your [...] and
