CASTLE OF ST. LEWIS.
QUEBEC, 9th Dec., 1883

SIR,

Instructions having been received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, to transmit a Book of Returns at the end of each year, in which the Office, Emoluments, &c. of every person employed by the Government is required to be stated: I am commanded by His Excellency LORD AYLMER to desire that you will fill up the Blank Form herewith transmitted, for the year 1833 with the information called for, as regards your Office, and return it to me by the 5th of January next, I am to add, that if any part of the Emoluments of your Office should consist of Fees you will be so good as to state in the Remarks the authority under which they were originally established, and by which the present rates were fixed; and His Excellency has commanded me to convey to you his expectation that this Return may be transmitted by the day named, in order that the Book may be prepared and forwarded to the Secretary of State in the course of the month of January.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient
Humble Servant,
[H.?] Gray
Secretary
