

Obverse

Sheet of paper folded in three parts vertically, being the center wider than the sides. The center is then folded in three equal's parts horizontally. In the first three quarter on top of the paper the high relieve marks of a wax seal (probably stamped in the verso of the paper).

In handwriting in the middle of the page (second third of the page), horizontally:

March 1833
[Madenhawk?]

A postmark stamped in fade red ink formed by t one circle. In the top inside of the circle: YORK. At the center of the circle: MAR 14. In the lower and insider of the circle: U.P.- CAN

J. S. [Cartwright?] Esq.
Kingston

(In the third part of the folded page, vertically oriented, in handwriting):

8/9 down

10-1/2 down

11/3 ¼ down

Balance in(number four above)

(Scratched paper, forming a almost circular hole) and [half ninth?]

[Intervals?] (Underlined in handwriting)

(Horizontally and inverted, in handwriting:)

14 March 1833

[Radentown ?]

(Reverse)

Paper has been vertically folded about 1/2 inches in the left margin. To the left of the folding and center of the paper, vertically to the main /content, in handwriting, can be read: 14 March, 1833. Writing has been interrupted by an scratched hole to the right)

In the main body of the paper, to the right of the line formed by the folding:

York, 14 March 1822

Dear Sir,

Will you favor me with the price and terms of payments of your Lands in [illegible] which you [illegible] from Deacon.

(paper scratched in the left, with a visible hole)

Truly yours
[Madenhawk?]

John S. [Cartwright?] Esq.
Kingston