

[990.1.3. OBVERSE]

[sideways, red stamped letters are seen:]

TOO LATE

[to the right a large bold pen mark shaped like an angle or large numeral seven, ink seems different from rest of document]

[circular red postmark is seen, sideways orientation:]

CITY of TORONTO

JY28

1837

U.C

Lewis Burwell Esquire

Brantford

[below the fold and upside down, text is seen:]

28th July 1837

[Flourish]

[I]. Radenhurst for

Cecero Ives [flourish at end of wording, there is a dot here above the o in Cecero, might it be a dot for a letter I instead? Was the writing fast and the name is Cicero instead?]

[Underline flourish below the word Ives]

Toronto 28th July 1837

My Dear Sir

Mr Keeler when he handed me your letter said he would return in a day or two from Buffalo and take the answer but I have not seen him since and therefore Conclude I had better give you what Information I can by Post.

I cannot find that General Picton can own any lands in Burford or indeed in any other Township in this Province if you mean the General Picton who fell at Waterloo I don't see how he could as he never was in the Country or any of his Family, or is it some person whose Christian name is General, [the word General is underlined] but I cannot find any person of that name in Burford

Lots Nos. 5 & 6 in 6 . C[on] are d[is cu not sure what this word is] to Benajah Malloray

[990.1.3. REVERSE]

Lot 5 in 7 Con John Jacobs Junior and Lot 6 in 7 Con John Eaton, the [can't tell what these next two words are] about the Year 1799.

Yours very truly

[J] Radenhurst

Lewis Burwell Esquire

Brantford