

(Obverse)

A yellowish color page has been folded in three parts vertically. The center top of the page shows a semi-circular scratch.

In handwriting:

A postmarks stamped in faded black ink formed by two concentric circles. In the top, in the circumference formed by the outer and inner circle: [City is what it means-not visible] of Toronto. At the bottom of the circumference: UC. At the center of the inner circle: SEP 11 1838.

At the center of the postmark, in handwriting the name: W. [C?] Kors?] Esquire

In large font, handwritten: 1/2

[ra?] [ra?] [ra?]

Branford

Circular-shaped red wax seal

(Reverse)

In handwriting

Office Commercial Bank, [M.?] D.
Toronto, September 11, 1838

Dear Sir,

Your favor of [illegible amount] has been duly received together with the amount to retire [M?] {S.} [ Biggard's?] note which you will [whence?] herewith receive.

W. [C?] [Kors?], Esqus.

Remain

[ra?] [ra?] [ra?]
(a curve vertical handwritten line separates the texts on left and right side)
Branford

Dear Sir,
Yours truly
[Illegible signature]