Her husband when in life often told by Mr. Brown and others to pay no attention to Mr. [Rupell?] as he [had?] for all the land he own could get and that then lots of land [would] be offered him to purchase at the [final?] sale of lands.

The widow humbly implores that these two lots of lands may be offered to her for sale [illegible] at the sale of lands in [September?] at a least that [illegible] [may?] not be [formed?] [and?] with her [helpless?] [orphans] [illegible] she can be otherwise provided.

[Indeed?] it is in your power to furnish Mr. [Rupell?] with land in some other was there to [care?] and [illegible] the widow and the [fatherless?].

I am respectfully
L. C
