

OBVERSE

London 3rd July 18[unknown number] [unknown number]

D. [unknown name] Esq

City

Dear Sirs [underlined]

I cannot be so discourteous to a gentleman with whom I have had dealings for years, and for whom I have always felt the highest respect as not to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 27th [unknown word] but in consequence of the implied threat contained in it all I can say in answer is that I regret you should for a moment [fancy?] I would [unknown word] myself in my [judicial?] capacity to do you or any other [unknown word] an injustice.

Yours respectfully

[unknown signature]

REVERSE

[There is no writing on this page. The words from the obverse can be faintly seen through the paper.]