

hand by the arrival of a vessel from Kingston there is not a single package of the opened yet as it was late in the evening before they were got in & this being Sunday, I shall not see any of them till tomorrow except the cask of hard soap the head of which was gone out when it came and from the appearance of it I could not say if the content was not disturbed it shall be the first thing I look at if nothing happens

I am very sorry to say that Mr. Crossman remarks in the Bill of lading that some of our tea chests were wet on one side this is really provoking - it was all day when it rained us, we have however picked out one or two that looked most stained on the canvas (one of which is hyson) and will examine them tomorrow

I have no money to send you on the contrary I am in debt and burning dull almost beyond comparison - we however shipped the other day to you 138 Barrels of flour and two barrels of pot ash a vessel also went up to the Andes and was pointed to stop and get 16 Barrels of that kind ash which were then ready - as to the flour I think it likely may be sooner the is now coming in and as the doubtfull on getting any to ship to you I give you the following sketch of all we have sent - it appears that John Haight at Peking sent you from Mr. Lays mill last June or July 40 Barrels of S.P. Flour when we not intended in our books and whether I can mention that you or not I do not recollect
