

(OBVERSE)

[The following writing in black ink is found at the centre of the page, which reads:

“Mrs. [unknown surname]

Grimsby

(Luke?) (Robinson?)”]

[A red circular postmark is seen on the left of the black ink writing “Grimsby”, which reads:

“YORK UP-CAN (wraps around)

FEB 20”]

[A “PAID” red stamp is seen above the writings in black ink]

[A giant “1/2” written in faint red ink is seen right beside the “PAID” stamp mark]

(In?) I should have answered your letter in this had I not deemed it better to wait a few weeks so as to be able to inform you what (Frabellk?) stood in need of and at the same time to request the things may be forwarded as soon as (possible?) after [“after” seems to be scratched here] you would (lurn?) sure be pleased to see the rapid improvement she has made and I must that when you do you will be as (much?) satisfied as I have been in (weighing?) if the desires her most respectful love and with comfort

(Remain?) Sir

Your Obet [most likely an abbreviation for “obedient”] Servant

[unknown name]

A Dictionary

(Garys?) Geography

Goldsmiths History of England

A Summer Bonnet

3 (pairs?) of [unknown word ending with “-id”] Gloves

A (sufficient?) [unknown word] of [unknown word] [unknown word] for (making?) four

[unknown word] of different (lorts?) say about 10 (pounds?) in each piece

3 pairs of whole cotton stockings

12 (pounds?) of [unknown word] (Morhin/Morphin?)

12 (pounds?) of very (narrow?) (edging?)

2 [unknown word] (neck?) handkerchiefs

(REVERSE)

York 20th July 1884

Madam

[unknown word] you will [unknown word] (window?) £5 – (y?) from (where?) you will (please?) to deduct the £ (1.87?) (did?), and (plus?) the (but?) £3.11.5 to my credit . I am very glad to (know?) [unknown word] amount of [unknown word], the [unknown word] will of count be regarded by the (proper?) the (makes?), but I should suppose the sooner the Grays

History Geography the better . Should the (request?) any [unknown word] of nothing at any time please to let me know & they (should?) be (good?) I beg you will (accept?) any but (thanks?) for the [unknown word, possibly close to the meaning of “purchase”] (from?) (Luke?) n [unknown name] in (paramount?), (good?) very (kindest?) again to [unknown word] Yours (very?)

Kindly
(Luke?) (Robinson?)