

Observe

A red wax mark (rounded -like shaped)

(In handwriting and dark black ink)

Lewis Burwell, Esq.
Brantford

A postmarks stamped in faded black ink formed by two concentric circles. [City? is what may mean] of Toronto, the rest of the circle is faded, not visible. At the center of the inner circle: MY 14 1838.

(In reverse order, in handwriting in a lighter black ink)

[James ?] A red wax mark [illegible last name]

Informing [illegible]

[Law?] [illegible] to the

Boundary [illegible]

Commissioner (partially underline)

Reverse

(In handwriting and dark black ink)

Toronto 14th April 1938

My dear Burwell

I have attended to your letter expecting the appointment of Commissioner for Boundaries: your appointment will be made, and more than likely those named by you will take place, I have maintained these names and will recommend them if asked.

Your truly,
J [illegible]

Lewis Burwell, Esq.
Brantford