

(REVERSE)

[Page 1 of 2]

[There is also writing along the left hand side of the paper, perpendicular to above text. It cannot be read. Additionally, there is a small hole in the paper in between the information in the left margin and the main body of the letter]

York [2?]0th [unknown word] 18[2?]1

Dear Sir

[Unknown word] letter of 22 [unknown word] was duly [unknown word] and I wrote on the back of it what I thought necessary [sic] calling upon the Respective [sic] Post Master from [unknown word] to this place [unknown word] by some means for the [unknown word] of their Pamphlets [underlined] which as I stated must have taken place at some of there [sic] [unknown word] at Offices, either on [intentionally?] or from Carelefsnef [sic] [underlined] – But I have not [unknown word] my letters which was [unknown word] [unknown word] – after [unknown word]

[Page 2 of 2]

Rumor from [unknown word] him much fear that at some of the offices it may be thought too lightly that of detaining another Paper or Pamphlet [sic] for to read [long dash] I cannot [unknown word] say [unknown word] do but have some reason to suspect it I hope [unknown word] nothing more that [unknown word] [unknown word] be [unknown word]

I am Dear Sir

Yours [unknown word]

[unknown name/signature]

Mr [unknown name] [this is crossed out]

Alex Hamilton Esq

(OBVERSE)

[The indentation from the wax seal is visible in top centre of page]

Alexander Hamilton Esq [flourish with the end of q]

P. Master

Queenstown

[upside down from above writing in different script]

[there is a hole in the page from the wax seal]

[unknown word] 10 Nov 21

Mr Allan Esq

[unknown word] of Pamphlets

[double underline]

[Stamp at angle to above]

[Y]ORK

[unknown number]