

OBV:

Toronto April 10th 1836

My dear Sir,

A letter from the Corresponding
Editor of the Law Journal sent to me to be laid
Before the Judges at our recent meeting [came too?]
Late for the purpose but desires to further the Interests of a forward deserving in my [...] of
Our Countenance and the support of all who value
Local [...] I [...] the substance of the
The letter referred to and the portion of the other matter
Which relates to your County –

Any communication you chose to make had better to Address to the Editor of the Law Journal Barrie “

Your Very truly

This Home Lodge [Quall?] [...] [
London

OBV1:

J.B. Harrison

REV1:

from letter

Extracts referred to

We request the lists of [Governors?] and officers published [...] Be corrected by the Judges and any defences to be supplied “as The Editor of the Law Journal are [...] to have the [H?] Directory As perfect as possible” refers to an enclosed Analysis of sub- [...] as far as officers of the court and public function Are concerned and adds “already deeply indebted to the County Judge.” For promptly the interests of the Journal the Editors will feel [ratified?] If after having been before them for more than a year they continue to Have the same desire for the success of the Journal and we will feel Obeyed if their influences be still accorded Hitherto the undertaking has not been a [paying?] one but we are a Hopeful of improvement if ever be made to pay even moderately We shall be [...] for more than one of those engaged are [...] not by motive of a [primary?] nature but by the desire to Make the Journal a useful organ [underlined] for the Local Courts and County practitioner” Concludes with an assurance “that any suggestion we may Receive from the County Judge individually or as a body [...]

Will receive our best attention. Their communications will ever
Be welcomed in the first of attention and confidence most Justly claimable at over [bounds?]"

Extract from analysis
Judge [T?] Clarks [no?] Banff ICC Clark

[written on the side of the letter] J.B Harrison