

Obverse

Sheet of paper folded in three parts vertically, being the center wider than the sides. The center is then folded in three equal's parts horizontally. In handwriting in the middle of the page, horizontally:

To the left in smaller and different handwriting than the one at the right. Written perpendicularly to the text at the right:

[illegible] [W?] J. 5 (superscripted word, maybe:oct), Nov. [illegible sign]
[write?] [appli, (application is what it could mean)] for office at [water?] down –[illegible] [illegible] [Mr.?] [Dalton?] [Illegible] mailing his [prepaid?] [&] (and it is what could mean) [illegible] [morning?] money letter for [illegible] –[9]- (number underlined) [illegible] [illegible]

Below and to the left of the letters J. S only 50% visible (the rest is faded) a postmark stamped in black ink formed by two concentric circles. In the center of the inner circle: OCT 1834. (Partially visible (faded) to the left in the middle of the two circles): [U.C.]

(Stamped in black ink, bold capital letters, the word):

FREE

(In larger handwriting letters):

J.S.Howard ESq.

[PM?]

Toronto,

U. C

(Reverse)

Blank page, part of a sheet of paper folded in three parts vertically, being the center wider than the sides. The center is then folded in three equal's parts horizontally. Only visible marks are those from the folding.