

(Reverse)

(Handwritten)

Waddington 26 (June?) 1843

Sir

I received by mail (sisteen?) numbers of No1. Prebisterian Magazine and [would?] have [remitted?] [soon?] to amount of [there?] have until I receive from you as many numbers of No.1 as I have inscribers

The number of inscribers which I have here [illegible] for your magazine is thirty seven. I request you therefore to forward me at your earliest convenience twenty one numbers [illegible] of No. 1 and thirty seven of No. 2. I perhaps may require a few more [sets?]

(a small part of paper missing...broken? or decayed due to effect of time) I think that my [subscription?] [illegible] is sent to [illegible]. I prefer that you send the numbers to mine address as the inscribers are scattered over [nine?] [districts?] of country and [none of them?] receive their numbers without my agency [in forwards] them.

As the labour and responsibility is correctly the [subscriptions] is [mine] [considerable?] I hope that you soon allow me a fair compensation for my labour.

Expecting hear from you very soon, and wishing every [illegible] to your [illegible] [illegible]
I am Sir your [illegible]

David Talyor Jr.

(in handwriting and encroached by a long vertical bracket to the right)

[illegible] John Norval

Bookseller and Publisher,

London C. W.

(Obverse)

(Paper scratched at the center of the upper edge of the sheet)

(in handwriting and slightly transversal from down right to the upper edge of the page)

M. D. Taylor

26 [March?] 1843

(in handwriting and horizontally, starting almost at the center of the page )

[John] Norval

Bookseller and Publisher

London

Canada West (underline with a gross handwritten line in black)

Below the upper paragraph and to the right a postmark circle in black, with an inner circle. Between the two circles can be read in stamped upper cases)

WILLIANS (opposite and inversed) U.O. WF [—rest faded not legible]