OBVERSE

[one of two Obverse pages]

[Side of paper that was used as outer envelope. Creases can be seen where the paper was folded. Some of the writing from the other side is also vaguely visible]

[The round hatch marked impression in the paper to secure closure is visible at the top centre of the page, with a corresponding hole at the bottom centre.]

[There are two examples of handwriting on this page]

H.W.S
[underlined]

Alexander Hamilton Esq
Post Master
Queenston

[unknown name]
[underlined]
[Unknown name or initials]

[upside down to above script in different handwriting]
156
Chs [unknown name] Esq
Amt due by [Peterboro?]
[unknown initials]
27 Sept 37
[£ 1/417 ?]

REVERSE
[one of two Reverse pages]

Toronto 22nd Sept 1837

Dear Sir

  I am in receipt of your letter of 19th sept [sic] in which you [enclose] a [Cheque word cut off from image] on the Bank of Upper Canada for £9 [unknown symbol] to be placed to the Credit of W. Stayner [unknown word] Mr. [Lead's?] note for £200 due 9th december [sic] to be deposited in the Bank for collection.

[Unknown word] enclose [unknown word] the Certificate of deposit for the £9 and [unknown word] as directed left Mr [unknown initial] Leads note at the Bank in your name and when collected it can be transferred to the Credit of Mr. Stayner

REVERSE 2
[second of two Reverse pages]

[Unknown word] you your Check for the £1.16.9 deposited by [unknown name] which is not required as they transferred the amount from your acct to Mr. Stayner on my signing on the back of the Certificate fo you.

[unknown word]
[unknown word]
Yours truly.
Cha [unknown name]
[unknown symbol]

OBVERSE 1
[second of two Obverse pages]

I will thank you to send me a statement of your account against the Post Master of Peterboro with as little delay as possible as he proves to be in [unknown word] and I am going there shortly to settle [matters?] with him.

The [Road?] [unknown word] from Fort Erie are to be sent to me by first mail after received you need not put these under [word faded and unknown] to me, but in the [unknown word] [packet?].

[unknown scribble]
G.H.
[underlined]