

(Obverse)

(In handwriting)

Toronto, June 24, 1839

In handwriting and in inverse order to the handwriting in the left side: A black wax seal rounded-shaped in the top right corner of the page. Handwritten and below the wax seal.

My dear Sir,

1839 (underlined)
J.P. [Lazaris?]
Toronto [illegible]

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of the tow letters [offer?] 17 [&- and is what could mean] 19 this [offer?] for enclosing two drafts of the Commercial [Batch?] [this?] [one?] for £19 [&-and is what it could mean]
[other?] for £29 . [Illegible] [the?] [former?] on account [offer?] [Barry?]
[illegible?] [illegible?] on [account?] [offer?] [James?] [Ferguson?] .

In handwriting the word: Paid

Postmarked, in faded black ink, the word: PAID

Postmarked, in faded black ink: TOO LATE

A large handwritten number 9 to the left of the page

I am

your faithfully

[James?] [Harows?]

A postmark stamped in black ink, formed by two concentric circles. The content of the first circle enclosure is barely visible: [City of Toronto?] is maybe what is marked. In the center of the inner circle: [JU1839?] is what can be read.

John [S?] [Cartwright?] Esq.

John [S?] [Cartwright?] Esq.
Kingston

[James?] [Harows?]

Paper scratched-missing the right lower corner