

(OBVERSE)

[Extrad? Shortened form of 'Extracted?'] [dash] from Mr. Keeles [sic] Letter of the 29th
[unknown word] 1836. "The remaining 600 acres were "located as under, by Mr Thomas
Ingersoll himself [unknown word] the [patents] issued in [1806 or 1804] or 1805 as [appears?]
by the Descriptions [dash]

"Lot 5 [dash] 1 [Concession?] [of?] Oxford West 200

[unknown letter]. [unknown letter] lot 20. 1 [dash] [unknown word] [unknown
word][unknown word] 200

Lot[dash] 25[dash] 1, [dash][unknown word][dash][unknown word] [dash]200

[underline as if to total]

600

[double underline]

"[The?][patent?] or [patents?] were of course issued in the "name of [Thomas?] Ingersoll [unknown word] the Register office.
"[of?] these [lots?] [dash]"[dash]

[Writing perpendicular to above in different handwriting]

[faded red post mark]

Lewis Burwell Esq

Brantford [flourish]

[upside down in the same handwriting of the top text]

21 [January?] 1836

[underline]

W.C. Keele Esq

[unknown word] [unknown word] [unknown word] [unknown word]

(REVERSE)

Actually [settled?]. I [was] with Mr [unknown] yesterday [symbol for 'and'] he promised me that he would take [their?] [info?] without fail on that day [dash] but it does not [appear?] that he has [done?] so. Mr [initial H?] has been at his office today but without seeing him. I [unknown word] do what I can tomorrow [unknown word] to bring [about] [the?] Settlement . you cannot conceive the difficulty there is at present of getting [thro'?] any sort of [unknown word] [unknown word]. [As?] for the land [department] it is almost next [word scratched out as in correction with 'to' written above it] impossible to get a description [dash] everything seems to be going wrong. [The?] [new?] Governor will [unknown word] [unknown word][things?] [streit?][sic]

[Unknown name] has searched in vain for [Roses'?] papers. I think you had better write to [Unknown name] [symbol for 'and'?] [endeavour?] to [unknown word] them out [symbol for 'and' if they are lost [underlined] or [misaid?][underlined][dash] probably you can [attain?] some [proof?] [unknown word] [unknown name] [dash] [Rose?] claims if I mistake not under the [unknown word] [unknown word] [unknown word] [unknown word] [up arrow indicating words inserted] if so Mr [Shade?] will no doubt consent to the patent if suing[sic] upon a representation of the matter. Mr [H?] says that [frequently?] individuals after leaving their papers with him [have?] taken them away again to get their descriptions [symbol for 'and'] he thinks this might have been done in this case.

Yours very[with flourish] truly[with flourish] W. C. Keele
[underline flourish]