

1920

The farmers put their milk in cans and hauled it by horse and wagon to ANSELMA and unloaded it on to the platform. When the train came down from Byers the cans of milk would be picked up at ANSELMA and taken to Philadelphia.