

LOCAL WOMEN ORGANIZE IN NEW PROJECT

National Alliance of Daughters of Civil War Veterans Under Way.

The National Alliance of the Daughters of Civil War Veterans of 1861-65, has organized a Tent in Grinnell. A local woman organized Tent number 22, on December 1. The Department President, Anna Estella Murray, of Davenport, was instituting and installing officer. The name of the local Tent will be decided upon soon.

The first business meeting was at the home of Mrs. Maude Mullins, 1022 Park street, Grinnell, Iowa, December 1, 1922 at 7:30 o'clock. Ten daughters of Veterans were present to sign the Charter. Following are the ten charter members' names:

Mrs. Sadie L. Mowitt.

Miss Adelyn Stowe.

Mrs. Maude Mullins.

~~Miss Rosa Hays.~~

Miss Nelle Holloway.

Mrs. Bessie Myers.

Miss Grace Hays.

Mrs. Kathryn Neely.

Mrs. Kathryn Taylor.

Mrs. Jessie H. Hays.

They were mustered in by Anna Estella Murry and the following officers was nominated and elected:

President, Adelyn Stowe.

S. Vice President, Maude Mullins.

J. V. President, Rosa Hays.

Chaplain, Kathryn Neely.

Treasurer, Sadie L. Mowitt.

Patriotic Instructor, Kathryn Taylor.

Council No. 1, Nelle Holloway.

Council No. 2, Grace Hays.

Council No. 3, Bessie Myers.

After the installation they had a social hour which was enjoyed by all members present.

Refreshments were served by Misses Evelyn and Esther Mullins and Dorothy Locke.

The corporation is not formed for profit, but to perpetuate the memories of their fathers, their loyalty to the Union and their unselfish sacrifices for its preservation; to aid the veterans and their widows and orphans when helpless and in distress; to inculcate a love of country and patriotism and universal liberty, and to assist the Grand Army in commemorating the deeds of their fallen comrades until such time as that duty shall devolve upon their descendants.
