

Skeleton of a school--

8/19/71

This picture of the skeleton of Parker School is the last picture of the building standing that will be published in the Herald-Register as the building was pulled down this morning.

Demolition of the building was planned in April when the building and land were sold at public auction for 24,500. Larry Criswell is handling the demolition work.