

Thursday, March 27, 1952

PICTURED ABOVE is the home of the late Frank F. Almy located at 436 East Street. It was built by Colonel Samuel F. Cooper who was a Civil War veteran. This is just one of the many landmarks of Grinnell's colorful historical background.