

“There is but one way held open to us at present to land Steinfeldt, and that is to give Jimmy Sheekard in exchange. That is a proposition I will not listen to and there the deal stands.”

LADY EILEEN RESUMES TRIP.

Skipper Wright and Crew Leave Muskegon for Mackinac.

Special Dispatch to The Inter Ocean.

MUSKEGON, Mich., Aug. 5.—The Lady Eileen, “manned” by Miss Evelyn Wright and Miss Sara Cary in the Chicago Yacht club’s cruise to Mackinac island, which was reported to have given up the struggle and put in at South Haven, has again set out on the north tack. They left for Mackinac from Muskegon at noon today.

The Lady Eileen, with the Siren, La Rita, and others in the fleet, dropped out of the contest at South Haven, being unable to make any headway against the nor’easter that was blowing. But the two daring women were not to be denied and put out again at the first opportunity.
