This is the last issue of "Voices and Echoes" until our September issue.

Would be glad to receive any items of interest to our readers. Just send them in. We wish to make the September issue a banner one. Many items of interest will appear in the same.

Ask for March and April issues of "Voices and Echoes", you will enjoy them all.

For Class Sessions and Terms see Page 16.

JUST A LITTLE BIT OF THIS.

At the present day there seems to be a decided lack of gallantry and chivalry on the part of the young men.

It is hard to explain just why this condition exists, or why it should exist any more now than at any other time, unless it be due to a let-up of educational effort along this line.

Can it be possible that in our mad struggle for supremacy in all lines of endeavor, the mothers who have borne us; our sisters, and "the other fellow's sisters" are lost sight of and treated only with secondary consideration?

Ladies are just entitled to every courtesy and consideration in life. They are differently situated than men. They cannot go where they will, and do what they will, as men can, without adverse criticism.

Many girls wish they were born men that they might enjoy the freedom men have. Girls are girls, and you will agree this world would be mighty dreary and lonesome without them. They want attention from the opposite sex, just as much so as men do.

This could be made into an endless story, but we wish not to take up too much of the reader's time, but will endeavor to get right to the point. We hope we are not saying anything our readers may not enjoy. These little pointers on etiquette and manners are given in the best of spirit, and we hope they will be received in the same spirit by the readers.

Ladies, singly, or in groups, can, with propriety, go to a dancing school without male escorts just as they would go out shopping, or go to any other school; but they, and also their parents, are rather anxious for them returning home safely. Ladies never feel thoroly safe in cases of this kind unless they have male escorts.

Gentlemen can, and may, with propriety, ask ladies with whom they get acquainted at a dancing school, or party, for the pleasure of "seeing her home." A real gentleman will really feel a responsibility equal to above if he has knowledge that the ladies would feel safer if he escorted them home.

Ladies, on the other hand, should treat an invitation of this kind with the utmost courtesy and consideration. A "snub" or a refusal of such a request, or invitation, without a reasonable or plausible explanation or excuse, would be a gross breach of common courtesy, or lack of consideration, or feeling, for the young man.

Many a young girl has made a mistake of this kind, which she regretted the balance of her life.

Many times just a little encouragement on the part of the lady and gentleman has led to the most wonderfully good time. They found each other so congenial after a little "warming up," that it led in thousands of cases, right at our schools, to the happiest marriages.

Love at first sight is not always the most attractive or the most lasting love. The editor does not know much about second, third, fourth or fifth sight love, there not qualified to write much about it, but dares to say that any kind of love is just grand. Nothing can compare with that love for your fellow-being.

It is love that prompts you to do the kind things for others. Let us, therefore, broaden out in our efforts to please others, and make ourselves attractive to those whom we meet. Life can be made so beautiful, but you must help to make it so.

Our girls are the most beautiful and wonderful beings created, but they are not created to be looked at only. They deserve other attentions, too, boys!

Every mother is so anxious for the safety of her daughter, and she hopes some nice clean young man will interest himself enough in her "girlie" to see that she gets home safely.

Will the boys please relieve the anxiety of these mothers by taking upon themselves the responsibility of escorting, whenever agreeable to both parties, one or more of the young ladies to their homes?

The satisfaction of having done something worth while is well worth the effort. You know how grateful you would feel towards a young man for seeing that your own sister get home safely.

In conclusion of this article this journal will ask the young men to co-operate with us in the above. The faculty of this school will be more than pleased to introduce those who may decide to meet certain persons.

REDUCING YOUR AGE WITHOUT PAIN

To live to a ripe old age is beautiful, but to anticipate getting old is not near so beautiful. There are times in our lives when we wish to be older, and there are times when we wish to be younger. Will the reader agree with us?

How anxious we are to be advanced from the infants' class to the juvenile class; from the juvenile to the senior class; then to the adults' class; but oh, how we dread being put into the "has-been's" or the old folks' class!

Time does not respect our wishes or feelings in this matter, but goes right on with its adding machine, and we dare say that operator has some speed!

The human race, at the present day, has but a short span of life, while some animals and reptiles are known to live fifteen hundred and two thousand years.

Animals, in their wild and natural state, will play in their own way, as long as they live, which will, to a wonderful extent account for their longevity. They have no young or old animal's games, but the old and young indulge in the same play all their lives.

We believe, if the human race could be brought to realize they must keep on indulging in the youthful pastimes, and playing the games of youth, their lives could be greatly lengthened.

Plenty of physical play of such kind as will give you mental rest will do more towards lengthening the lives of the human race than all other elements put together.

Youth is the most wonderful and most attractive asset, and very few persons would not give all their earthly possessions if they could set back their "AGE CLOCK" ten years. While you may have lived many years by the calendar all these years might, and should have been, one life of perpetual youth. This in our opinion, should not be accomplished by denial, but rather, by indulgence.

Add to your percentage of play, and reduce your percentage of work and worry, by making everything you do, play, you will begin reducing your age to such a noticeable extent that your life will present to you an entirely different view.

Nothing will deepen the age wrinkles in your face like a lack of enjoyment, or indulgence of the good things of this world.

We have in mind the most famous ballet mistress in this country, who is past eighty years old, but still in her studio every day, giving lessons to her classes in toe dancing, etc. This lady still dances on her toes like a sixteen-year-old girl. I should not say this, but hoping this wonderful woman will not see this article, or that she will not suspect she is the subject of the article, we will venture to tell you that she tips the scales at two hundred and twenty pounds (220 pounds). How is that for an argument in favor of dancing? This lady has always been of normal build, but in the last five years she has taken considerable flesh, due, no doubt, as she writes us, to a slight letting up in her work. She writes that the war had cut into her business considerably and that she was not as busy as usual, which, no doubt, accounted for her having gained so much weight. She is in excellent health, and has promised us she will teach dancing, and indulge in the pastimes of youth until she is one hundred years old, when she will retire, settle down, and live on her money. She has our best wishes, and we sincerely hope she will live two hundred years, and that she will be able to do so much more for humankind. Her work and efforts are appreciated.

: : : : SAUGATUCK, MICHIGAN. : : : :

This is the last call for this popular resort. That's the place to spend your summer vacation. Hundreds of our friends and patrons have signified their intention of coming to Saugatuck this year. We will enjoy having you all there, and you will enjoy being there. Read our February, March and April issues of "Voices and Echoes" for information regarding hotels, fishing, bathing, etc. Gee, I nearly forgot about the dancing. We dance every evening at the Big Pavilion. This is not a cheap country town pavilion, but is the finest in the State of Michigan.

Saugatuck is located a few miles from Macatawa Park, Ottawa Beach, Castle Park and Holland.

It is quite rural in the day time, and a big gay city at night. Plenty of illuminations, pretty stores, attractive hotels, etc.

The Peanut Gallery.

All you old-timers know of the famous Peanut Gallery, who used to come regularly to the Clark Street School. The crowd was missing for some time, but we were all glad to see them back again a few weeks ago. The following are the crew: Esther Peterson, Lucille Peterson, Genevieve Hendry, Florence Turoby, Dorothy Piper, Lea Gus-tavson, Dell Clifford, Walter Beck, Chick Promen, Bob Smith, Murry Barley, Leslie Michaelson and Tom Walsh. Now, Peanut Gallery, we have reserved a special row of benches for you, so keep coming right along.

Elsie Horn, 1224 Belmont; Harry Hensel, 2431 Janssen avenue; Dorothy Binder, 1342 Belmont; Julia Jackson, 3542 N. Halsted, and Frank O'Neil, 4631 Racine avenue, come regularly to our Clark Street School, and we pronounce them just the dandiest crowd of young folks that anyone could meet, and all fine dancers, too.

Howard Fish and Robert Coddington are two of our regulars at the High School class on Friday afternoon. These two young men have been in the class since the opening in September of last year and are very popular and good dancers.

Margaret Dunn and Isabel Banner never miss a Friday afternoon and their dances are very much in demand.

Henry Kessler is always on the job, especially when the robbers' foxtrots are being played, and he certainly gets his share of partners.

Virginia Ryan and Marie Reinboth come regularly every Friday afternoon. We have had the pleasure of dancing with both of them and boys, if you neglect these girls' programs, you are missing some very good dances.

Edlucille and Marion Kable--Our Classical Dancing Scholars

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS.

Bernice Brewer, who attended our High School class two years ago, is with us again. Miss Brewer says she will attend regularly from now on.

Virginia Johnson and Evelyn Hendricks, two of our popular girls, never miss a Friday afternoon and never miss a dance.

Bernice Howe comes all the way from Hyde Park to attend our classes. She is a splendid dancer, and always has her programme full and the extras, not on the programme, spoken for.

Helen Henderson, one of our charming High School girls, would be missed very much if she missed coming, but Helen promises not to miss.

ARE YOU COMING TO SAUGATUCK?

Any one wishing information regarding Saugatuck would do well to write Mr. Huntingtonhouse. Mr. H. is in Saugatuck during the months of July and August each summer.

The big Pavilion opens June 5. There is a special celebration in Saugatuck for the Fourth of July, which some of the young people might find interesting and would like to attend.

The roads leading into Michigan have all been improved, and are all in fine condition now for automobiling. Saugatuck itself can now boast of the best cement roads in the country.

Bathing in Lake Michigan, at the finest of the many attractions of Saugatuck. The stretch of bathing beach on the lake, is one water at this beach is as clear as crystal. It has a sandy bottom and slopes so gradually that you can walk out a block and see bottom. Now will you come?

We are indeed sorry to announce to our patrons that Miss Marie Mabuth, one of our assistants, is no longer with us. Miss Mabuth left the city and is now touring the south, with a Lyceum Company. While here Miss Mabuth made many friends, and they will all miss her.

DURING THE SUMMER

We will give Private Lessons to all children wishing to take them. Parents should give their children these lessons to prevent their forgetting what they have learned. This will also be a preparation for next season.

Call Mrs. EVANS, Monticello 710 or 711.

OUR SCHOOLS WILL BE OPEN ALL SUMMER FOR PRIVATE LESSONS IN ALL STYLES OF DANCING.

R. G. Huntinghouse's Stay at the Battle Creek Sanitarium.

I got here on March 19th.
Saw the receiving doctor.
Bought a room.
Terms $70.00 each week.
Remember room and meals only.
Worth it, tho'.

Saturday, March 20th.
Breakfast at 7 o'clock.
Met house physician 9 a. m.
I got an electric bath.
See more doctors.
A so-called hot pack.
Nearly scalded to death.
Ice rubbed over abdomen.
Attendant says, "Lay on your face."
Brrr!!! Ice rubbed over spine.
Glad that's over.

Sunday, morning now.
More doctors to see.
Blood test taken.
Tonsils examined.
Eyes, ears, nose and throat ditto.
Also teeth.
Ordered X-ray of teeth.
More same kind of baths.
Ordered take Swedish Movements.
So different from German.
Ordered to sleep a little in daytime; I did.
Met some nice people.
Some have nurses.
Wonder how sick I must be before I get a nurse.

Monday a. m. has arrived.
More appointments with doctors.
Examined heart, lungs, kidneys and liver.
Don't know about gizzard, bumps
Of ego, big toe, etc.
Dr. says, "You are not very sick."
Thank you, doctor!
Took baths again.
Put on diet.
Diet better than regular food.
Good looking dietitian.
Does not come to see me often.
Beginning to call me doctor.
Everybody is either doctor,
Professor, colonel, senator or governor.
Curses! Curses! and Curses!
No coffee served here.
Neither any meat.
Ditto no booze.
Not allowed to smoke.
Not allowed to swear, either
They tell me.
Some place, eh?
Got bill for charges.
Must have taken X-ray
Of bank account.
Day passed with same routine
And a few extras.
Beginning to feel fine.
Ordered to take paraffin oil
Morning and evening.
Not so bad to take.

Tuesday morning.
Weather fine, thank you.

Can hear the birds singing.
Spring appears on hand.
Grass getting green.
Trees beginning to sprout.
Birds begin to bird.
Lovers beginning to love, etc.
Got report from laboratory.
As to my condition.

Report:
"Good specimen for your age."
Principally a run-down condition.
Will be yourself in a few weeks.
That from my doctor!
My baths as usual.
But more thoro.
"Hot packs" pretty hot now.
Appetite good.
Feeling pretty good, too.
Desire for work—none!
Going to see local dancing teacher
This evening.

Attended Tsukala's dancing school.
Tsulaka is a fine fellow.
Fine crowd of young people.
Met some very nice girls.
Beginning to like it here.
Had fine time.

Wednesday, March 24th.
Now it is Wednesday.
Birds are singing again.
Half of patients being pushed
In a wheel chair.
Beginning to think to myself
I am luckier than they.
Saw my doctor in morning.
Order "hot pack" changed.
Serve it to him "hotter!"
It was hotter!
One of the slogans of attendants!
"Treat him rough."
They do!
Wonderful institution, tho!
Everything done for health.
Glad I came here.
Also glad it is not time
For last week's bill.
Took walk downtown.
Noticed that B. C. policemen are Larger than any I have ever seen
In any other city.
Must behave here, I believe!
Saw doctor again.
Told me to eat lots of bran.
Fine stuff that bran is!
Several nice people table with me.
Mrs. Stockton from Oklahoma.
Just crazy for bran.
Always begs for mine.
Mrs. Stevenson also fond of bran.
If I eat it.
Vegetarian meals only served here.
They are very palatable.
And wholesome and nourishing.
Still a great place.
Gee! I'd like to smoke.
Got up feeling good.
Took breakfast and treatments.

Regular routine during day.

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, Supt. of San.

Delivers lecture in evening.

Subject: Auto Intoxication or Intestinal Toxemia.

Person with Auto Intoxication has
2,640,000,000 bacteria in each drop of blood.
Bacteria may also be called

Micrococci or Cocci.

Some are called Streptococci, while Others are called Staphylococci.

The appendix of a bacteria

Is called Flagella.

Most Arctic animals have no bacteria.

Better go to North Pole, eh?

Look out for another Intestinal Microbe.

The Bacillus, amiphilus, intestinalis.

Look out for him, I warn you!

Intestinal poisoning will also cause

Arteriosclerosis.

But better look out for

Para-hydroxyphenylethylamine—the amine

Of tyrosine, iso-amylamin—the amine

Of levcine, and beta—imidazolethylamine—

The amine of histidine.

Nothing to worry about, eh?

If you should happen to have

Bacillus subtilis, the Bacillus meserenticus

And Bacillus meserenticus valgatus

It may go bad with you.

You may get Diphtheria!

Learned all about Bacilli anyway!

Went to bed.

Thursday, March 25th.

Arise, breakfast and regular routine.

Got a cabinet electric bath.

Fat man just ahead of me.

He wanted to reduce weight.

No questions asked.

Reduced one and a half pounds.

Not much of me left.

Feeling better and am happy.

Had all my treatments during day.

Doug. Fairbanks' picture in Gymnasium in the evening.

Went to bed at 10 o'clock.

Friday, March 26th.

Regular routine again.

Same as Thursday.

Lecture again by Dr. Kellogg.

This time on nerve cells, etc.

Found that all nerve cells

Center in the brain.

Believe all the nerve cells of the Managers of this institution functioning O. K.

If ever I get as good a nerve

As they have

I will be extremely happy.

Hope they will lecture on Gall soon.

Want to improve mine, too.

Showed us where the "Gray Matter" is.

Some have none, he says.

I know it!

Every drop of blood has

5,000,000 nerve cells.

I needn't worry, because I have

More than trillion nerve cells.

Took all that to bed with me.
Still a wonderful institution!

Saturday, March 27th.

This is the 7th day and we

Get a vacation.

Spent the day loafing, etc.

Sunday, March 28th.

Day started with the regular grind.

Electric cabinet bath added.

Oh, boy! pretty hot!

Asked "What's it for?"

Dr. told me I have Auto Intoxication.

Funny; now that you can't get

A regular drunk any more

They get up a new kind of jag.

Wondered how I got it.

Did not drink any gasoline,

Water or lubricating oil.

Had I drunk the wood alcohol

I put in the radiator to keep

It from freezing

I couldn't write this story.

Got on scales today.

Losing weight.

Don't weigh much without clothes.

Nurse says I'll get fatter.

Busy all day taking treatments.

Feeling fine, but thin.

Going to bed. Good night!

Monday, March 29th.

Got up as usual.

Took my 6 o'clock bath.

Breakfast and then the "rounds."

Got another "hot pack."

Strong accent on the "hot."

Reduced two pounds again.

Dr. Says "Must illiminate poison."

Guess that's it all right.

Belt on trousers don't fit any more.

Must drink gallon of water

To keep trousers from sliding

Down over hips.

Succeed fairly well.

Lived thru the day O. K.

Tuesday, March 30th.

Got up as usual.

Paid last week's bill.

It is well worth it.

Beginning to feel like myself.

This is a wonderful institution.

Weather balmy.

All foliage coming fine.

Constitutional walk in the afternoon.

Dietitian added so much to

My menu that I can't eat it all.

She says to me:

"We want to get you fat."

Food is fine.

Treatments wonderful and

Most beneficial.

The simple life for

Yours truly after this.

Can't write any more on account

Of the issue going to press.

Very sincerely,

R. G. HUNTINGHOUSE.

February 22, 1920.

Mr. R. G. Huntinghouse,
City.

Dear R. G.:

Our regular bunch on Thursdays noted the return of the wonderful little dancer, Miss Lillian Moeller, with her big brother, Clarence. I happened to be introduced to him during his sister's absence.

Their interpretation of the One-step, Fox-trot and Waltz keeps them in a class by themselves, and they are what you would term finished dancers. We agree with you that they receive 100 per cent pleasure out of their dancing.

Perhaps there are some of us who also have talented sisters, but we do not give them a chance. Trusting you will insert this in your next issue of Voices and Echoes, as no doubt it will awaken the big brothers to the fact that there is talent at home and their sisters would be glad to accept an invitation to go to the dances.

As ever, your pupil,

ROBERT F. RIEMAN,
1200 N. State street.

The above letter was received some time ago, and we gladly print it in this issue and SAY, you fellows with little or big, fat or thin sisters, just read this and bring them along next time. We'll wager you won't be sorry, and when all the other fellows swarm around for dances you can stand by and be the proud brother to say "That's MY sister."

Arthur Johnson and Walter Johnson of 5325 Glenwood avenue come from a dancing family all right, and they enjoy dancing because they know how to dance. Fine fellows, too.

Cupid's latest victim is Stanley Cook, better known to his many friends as "Casey." "Casey" will be married Friday, April 30th. Being a prominent and popular member of our schools, Stanley will be greatly missed, but we hope he continues to come and bring the Mrs. along. This little item was handed to us and with it the best wishes and all the luck in the world to you Stanley.

THE FRIENDSHIP CLUB.

The Friendship Club will hold their first annual reception and dance at the Huntinghouse Academy at 4616 N. Clark Street on Wednesday evening, April 28th.

Prominent among the members of this club and the committee are: William P. Wenzel, Herbert L. Schultz, Arthur Huck, Bob Wordell and William Poetsch. The above are all regulars at the Huntinghouse dances at the Kedzie Avenue School.

Mr. Frank Haase is an old timer. It pays to have old timers like Mr. Haase. Good dancer, good fellow and all other qualities of a popular young man.

Mr. Arthur Baker comes regularly on Monday evenings at the Clark Street School. He is not only a good dancer, but a good artist. Watch our Journal for some of his work.

We are right here to tell you that Mr. Chester Dallas is one of the most popular fellows who comes to our schools. And both the older and younger girls admire his wonderful dancing, as well as his pleasing personality.

"Who is the young man who is such a good dancer and who always dances in the corner?" Why, that's Mr. Raymond King, but please don't ask us why he always dances in the corner, because we don't know.

Thursday night would not seem like Thursday night if the following jolly crowd was not there: Misses Laura Harper, Dorothy Simpson, Genevieve and Marion McCormick, Messrs. Charles McCormick, John and Mathew Oefftering. They are all very good dancers and good congenial fellows.

We were very sorry that Arthur Jacob missed so many of our parties during the skating season, but note he is with us again. Don't neglect us again like that, "Art."

The Misses Lillian and Caroline Hettinger of 5700 Windsor Avenue, and Grace Michaelis of 5112 Keating Avenue, are old timers at our schools and believe us, it pays to have such good dancers and charming girls at our parties.

.... Private Lessons Given All Summer

OUR REGULAR CLASSES WILL CONTINUE UNTIL JULY FIRST.

Classes will be held at each Academy once a week during July and August.

THE FALL SEASON WILL OPEN THE FIRST WEEK IN SEPTEMBER.

DANCING EVERY EVENING

If you want to spend an enjoyable vacation next summer, plan on going to SAUGATUCK, MICHIGAN. It is an ideal spot where you will get plenty of rest and lots of enjoyment and amusement. Mr. Huntinghouse goes there every summer, and he will be there again this summer. The big pavilion, which is the most attractive in the state of Michigan, should appeal to all dance loving people who wish to spend a week or two (or the whole summer) at an attractive resort. The hotels and boarding houses are all high class and the rates reasonable. Saugatuck is located a few miles from Macatawa Park, Ottawa Beach, Castle Park and Holland. It is quite rural in the day time and big gay city at night. Plenty of illuminations, pretty stores, attractive hotels, etc.

March 20, 1920.

Dear R. G. H. (G. A. R.):

Another Romance instigated at the academy of R. G. H. came to a doubtful ending on Friday, March 19th, when we were married after pretty nearly three years of "Watchful Waiting." Will be on exhibition some time in the near future.

MR. AND MRS. G. C. DRUCKLIEB.

(By the way, Miss Gertrude Schmidt of 668 Roscoe street was the unlucky girl.)

Our answer: We all wish you both lots of joy and will be glad to see you in the near future. You're the lucky devil though, Drucklieb, and we well remember you both.

R. G. H.

Miss Helen Salladay, 4010 N. Paulina, has been away for a long time and maybe the boys were not glad to see her step in a few nights ago. No wonder, for Helen is such a good dancer.

Mr. William N. Forbes made his debut into our midst a short time ago and said he had a dandy time and will come often. He also remarked of our crowd of good dancers and congenial, hospitable folks.

Miss Margaret Carr, 3826 Hermitage avenue, never misses a Monday evening, and also never misses a dance. A popular young lady is Margaret.

Attention!

ANNUAL NORMAL SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS.

Private Lessons given to teachers of dancing at any time during the year. A thoro Normal School Course can be taken at any time.

Our Normal School is recognized as one of the leading institutions of its kind in the country.

A most thoro course in fundamentals and advanced dancing given any time to suit the convenience of the scholars. Many of the leading teachers of America have received their training here. Our school is just different than all other, and worth investigating.

The movements of the arms, 'Port de Bras' means so much in learning any style of dancing; especially in classical and interpretive dancing, that it is of the utmost importance a teacher should understand them most thoroughly.

The Misses Ethel Lorenzen, Mildred Nielson, Evelyn Winetz, Hazel Hacker, Alice Carseth, Eleanor Semmelmeier and Harriet Decker are a crowd of jolly young girls from the Carl Schurz High School. These young ladies come to the Wednesday evening dances and, believe us, it is a treat to have them there.

The Miller sisters, Catherine and Margaret, two charming girls, are regular in their attendance. Keep up the good work, girls, for we enjoy having you with us.

Mr. A. Wolf of No. 4624 Clarendon avenue knows how to dance, and gets all the pleasure there is in it. Gets plenty of partners, too, and the girls all say, "Sure, you can have this one," and not "I guess I can let you have one."

Miss Corina Krone is a new member of our schools. We hope she enjoys coming as much as we enjoy having her come.

Mr. Herbert H. Scholl of 1464 Leland avenue strolled into our midst a few weeks ago. Herbert has been absent for some time, and when questioned, told us he had just returned from California. Pretty fine trip, Herbert, but next time take a shorter one and don't stay so long.

Miss Effie Murray, Lois Strader and Eva Cunningham are regular members of our Clark Street School. Three very charming girls and good dancers. This accounts for their popularity.

Miss Ann Hedenberg, 3312 Dickens avenue, another of our popular girls, would be greatly missed if she were to stay away.

Miss Minnie Gans never misses a dance, and we know she is a good dancer. There's always a reason, and you can tell a good dancer every time.

Say, girls, have you ever waltzed with Joe Murphy? If not, better get busy on one of the lady's choices. By the way, Joe, tell Charlotte lots of her friends are asking for her.

Davis L. Toffenette came to our school one Monday evening and had such a good time that he says he will never miss. We hope you mean this, Mr. Toffenetti, for we enjoy having you come.

Kirk Thoringer, the little fellow with the little moustache, continues to come and continues to bring new recruits each time. Fine work Kirk.

Mr. Arthur A. Raffin is an old-timer and is one of the essential members of our schools.

A TOAST TO HUNTINGHOUSE.

By B. D. Soll.

Here's to Mr. Huntinghouse,
A dancing master rare.
Follow his instructions
And you're bound to get there.

Here's to Mr. Ashton,
A good dancer and strong.
If you follow his lead you can't go wrong.

Here's to Miss Knecht,
A little fairy she.
If I could dance like she can,
How happy I would be.

Here's to Mrs. Evans,
So graceful and sweet.
To dance with her is indeed a treat.

Here's to Mrs. Neal,
Who is always full of pep,
When you dance with her
You'll never miss your step.

And here's to all the rest,
Whose names I do not know,
But if you want to dance right,
Huntinghouse is the place to go.

I BET CHA!

Did you ever wake up in the morning and wonder which sock you would pick up first—the right or the left? Try it sometime. Bet a little with yourself. Needs not to be much, a quarter or fifty cents make the betting interesting enough. Shuffle the socks around a little, throw them up in the air and as they fall bet whether it's the right or the left that you pick up. If you lose a little at first don't get discouraged, for you are bound to win sometime. It requires a great deal of practice and mental effort to become an artist at this game.

ANY GIRL WANT A PIANO?

PERHAPS A VICTOR VICTROLA, EH?

At the Huntinghouse Academies nothing but the Victor Victrolas are used in giving private lessons.

The Cable Piano Company, represented by Mr. Maurice Kadens, who attends our classes and assemblies, is a reliable company to deal with.

Mr. Kadens is a fine man to deal with and if any of our friends are interested they would do well to get in touch with him. He will be glad to talk to you anyway, tho you do not intend to buy.

POTATOES FOR SALE CHEAP.

Anyone wishing to buy potatoes next fall will do well to get in touch with Huntinghouse, the farmer; special prices will be made in carload lots.

Other vegetables in abundance for sale, also.

We want to employ about twenty young ladies to pick potato bugs.

Apply by phone or write us. R. G. Huntinghouse, Saugatuck, Mich., will reach us. Well, anyway, we would be glad to have all our friends visit our farm.

SPRING.

(By Rudolph L. Bressman, Jr.)

Good-bye, old job,
I'm going toward the lake.
You shall devour no more of my youth.
Old job.
I am in a new work shop.
It fascinates me,
As do all the possibilities therein,
Fascinate me.

The white, pale blue,
The gold, all new,
The warm winds, too,
Delight me.
The flying skirt,
The maddened flirt,
The fountain's spurt,
Invite me.
Good-bye, old job,
I'm going toward the lake.

ECHOES.

We are proud teachers of many beautiful and talented children in classical and all styles of aesthetic dancing and we are always proud when these little ones go anywhere to dance for entertainments. We pronounce them just the most wonderful dancers for their ages in the country. We have many, many calls for our dancers to entertain at clubs and lodges and various social functions.

On Friday evening our fairyland was staged for the Tonti Council K. of C.

On February 29th they entertained at a bazaar given by the Scandinavian Fraternity of America.

At the opening of the new Armory at the Arena on February 21st, these children did their bit by dancing several appropriate dances during the evening.

On March 9th our troupe journeyed to Lane Technical High School and danced for a literary club under the auspices of Mrs. Ohland.

Viking Temple was made a dazzling fairyland on March 17th when our ballet entertained for the Eastern Star Order.

On March 18th the feature of the evening was our baby ballet at the Hesperia Lodge of Masons.

The following are the little girls who have taken part in the above entertainments:

Miss Edna Huettman and Doris Mabusth, two of our assistants at our evening classes, and two very charming young ladies, are always on the job and ever ready to help the beginners. Boys, you want to make it a point to get a dance with these girls.

We know you are all glad to see Miss Brooks again. Miss Brooks has been an assistant at our evening classes for several years and believe us, she has many friends and helps everyone else to make many friends.

Remember "Hopple" Spencer? Sure, everyone remembers "Hopple" and everyone misses him since he has departed for Texas. We have heard from him and he tells us there are no dances or dancers like Huntinghouse. Hurry back, "Hopple," your friends all miss you.

Who's the young man with the auburn hair? Oh, that's Jack Hall, and, say, can he dance? Well, I should say he can.

Mr. W. S. McGregor is a good dancer, too, and one-step is his middle name. Mr. McGregor says the faster, the better.

Miss Alma Ragstead, 1725 Arthur avenue, was with us on March 22. Certainly you know her. She is our Red Cross Patriot.

Messrs. Bob Dilger, 6058 N. Clark street; G. F. Bock, 4844 Lincoln avenue, and Jack Cavanaugh, 1254 Addison street, are three old timers and old timers are good dancers too.

Miss Ruth Abrahamson is a charming girl and helps make our parties a success. Tell us, Ruth, the names of your four jolly girl friends who come with you.

We understand L. Richardson and J. Thomas are trying to compete with us in making up dances. How about it, boys? We admit you are both good dancers and the girls tell us so, too.

When you see a little blonde head just visible above a sea of various different shades, you can always bet safely that it is Miss Minnie Binge surrounded by anxious young men who are trying hard to get a dance with her.

And speaking of blondes, Charles H. Soderquist and Otto Soderstrom are there when it comes to having a good time. "Gold Dust Twins," these, and even their names are almost the same. We are indeed sorry to learn that they will soon leave for Canada to spend the summer. Don't stay away too long, boys.

Mr. Albert Ohm comes regularly. Always full of pep and always the same good dancer and good fellow.

Miss Sadie Jones, now a class student at our schools. But we are afraid we will soon lose her from the class as she is becoming one of those wonderful dancers.

Miss Martha Saas comes all the way from Austin to attend our dances. We are for you every time, Martha, and we know the boys would miss that good dance with you if you did not come.

Mr. Henry M. Buehler is one of those REAL GOOD dancers. He comes on Saturday evenings and never misses a dance.

Miss Ruth Carrigan was with us on St. Patrick's night. Come often, Ruth. You will know her by that ever pleasant smile.

The Messrs. Harold E. Smith, Elmer Flory, Rudolph Larson, three of our regular Saturday night dancers, paid an extra visit on St. Patrick's night. All good dancers and the girls say they wish there were more St. Patrick's parties.

The Misses Kate Reher, Louise Grant, Dorothy Reher and Evelyn Weiler, the four Graces, are new members of our schools, and we are telling you boys right here, that you had better hurry and meet these young ladies if you would add some more good dancers and charming girls to your programs.

Mr. George Capes has been absent for some time, having been spending his vacation in Florida. So glad to have you back, George. Your friends have all missed you.

Mr. F. Burke came to the Kedzie Avenue School on St. Patrick's night. Said he came expressly to see all our lovely girls again. They all hope to see you often, Mr. Burke.

The Misses Nellie O'Malley and Kathleen Binchy, two regular members of the Clark Street School, and two real dancers, were present at our St. Patrick's party at the Kedzie Avenue School. Come often, girls, we like to have as many just like you as we can.

Our Mr. Huntinghouse is spending a few weeks in Battle Creek, but will soon be back on the job and he wishes to be remembered to everyone and says to especially give his regards to the girls. Mr. Huntinghouse will spend his summer at Saugatuck, Michigan, where he has recently purchased a farm. All wishing to buy their potatoes from this famous farm had better get their orders in early. He is also planting pea soup trees and potato salad vines. If you are a good potato bug picker, send in your name and address.

Mr. Stanley Brautner need never worry about having a good time at a dance. A good dancer is always popular.

Miss Marie Martin of 5537 Glenview Avenue, says there is nothing can compete with dancing. No wonder you think so, Marie. Anyone who can dance like you can would surely like it.

The fellow who says he doesn't like to dance and can't see what anyone sees in it is the fellow who does not know how to dance.

Henry H. Siers is the ladies' man all right. Did you ever see him standing alone when the girls were here? I should say not. Fine fellow, too.

Here's a jolly crowd who always have a good time and plenty of partners: Misses Mildred Nielson, Evelyn Winetz and Hazel Hacker.

Arthur Cima, C. Heller, E. W. Riesterer, T. S. Anderson and J. E. Hageman sure keep the girls' programs filled, and aren't the girls glad tho, when they have any of these young men's initials on their cards?

When learning to dance choose a school of established reputation conducted by competent dancing masters who are successful and prominent in their profession.

The Huntinghouse Dancing Assemblies, acknowledged by the dance going public as the most select center of refinement in the City of Chicago. Our classes are unsurpassed in the art for instruction in the one-step, fox-trot and the modern waltzes which are now so popular.

Five Dollars Free!

For the best name for Mr. Huntinghouse's Farm at Saugatuck, Michigan

Five Dollars in Cash will be given to the party sending in the best name for the farm. Get busy folks, and send in a suitable name for this farm which Mr. Huntinghouse recently bought at Saugatuck, Michigan.

Judges will decide on the Best Name and award will be made to the winner on Wednesday evening, May 5, 1920 at the Kedzie Avenue School.

Dear Mr. Huntinghouse—

Had a copy of "Voices and Echoes" forwarded to me recently. It certainly recalled vividly to my mind the many pleasant evenings spent in the Clark St. Academy while I was learning to perform the "light fantastic" and afterwards.

Forgetting the "modest violet" will say there are a bunch of girls here who will say that they wished they knew more fellows who learned at Huntinghouse.

Would like to see the old bunch once more, especially E. C. and that handsome young ladies' man, Lester Neumann.

Will you change my address on your records so I will get a copy of the "news sheet" every month?

Best regards,
EDMOND W. SATTERWHITE.

Address:

Edmond W. Satterwhite,
25 Medbury Ave., Apt. 3,
Detroit, Mich.

Well, Edmond, we were wondering what had happened to you. Sorry you are not with us any more and hope you will soon return to the old crowd. You bet we will send you the "little book" each month. Best regards and wishes from all your friends.

Miss Elsie Herscher, another of those charming girls and good dancers would be missed greatly if she were to stay away.

WE'RE OUIJA.

My Ouija Board! I love so!
The truth it does not tell,
But, as compared with folks I know,
It's doing very well.

The sun has not gone out of business. The work of the world is done by the blunders, the inexpert, those that are not feeling well, those that don't know how; and those generally who are not "fitten".

There are those that could do it better if they wanted to; but, oh, how few of them want to!

THINGS TO FORGET.

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed—

It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet and guarded and kept from the day
In the dark; and whose showing whose sudden display
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay—

It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man, or a woman, girl or a boy,
That will out a smile, or at least will annoy
A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy—
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

Good Roads to Saugatuck!

Autoists who contemplate touring Michigan, or those who are undecided where to spend their vacation should rejoice to know that the roads to Saugatuck are all in good shape now.

There are stretches of over hundred miles in several directions, North and East, of the most wonderful roads for driving.

Autoists will find Saugatuck an ideal place to make a stop on your touring trip.

Hotels, our beautiful Dancing Pavilion, and many other attractions, would make your stay most enjoyable.

For our Movies at the Pavilion we have secured the same run of pictures as shown at the Riviera, Pantheon, Pershing and the other leading theatres of Chicago. We will feature an enlarged orchestra.

In short -- It will be a big Summer!

COTTAGES FOR RENT.

Any one wishing to rent a cottage at Saugatuck for the summer should write at once in order to secure a good choice.

We have several very attractive cottages and bungalows left which can be had for the summer at a reasonable rental.

Address:

THE CARROLL COTTAGES, Saugatuck, Mich.

A Potato Bug Picking Contest.

Our Mr. Huntinghouse is working up a contest for picking potato bugs. The person picking the largest number of bugs during the summer at his farm may keep the bugs as a prize. Fair enough, isn't it? Come on you pickers!

Mr. H. also wishes a little enlightenment on whether he is an agriculturist, horticulturist or just plain farmer.

Any one "up" on this question will please enlighten us.

These are the two Academies owned by Mr. R. G. Huntinghouse.

These buildings have been erected solely for this purpose, and are the most beautiful Academies in the country. Each of the buildings has a hall of over ten thousand square feet of floor space. The ante rooms, dressing and cloak rooms are perfect in appointments.

These academies can be rented by responsible parties, for weddings, dances, meetings, etc. Terms upon application.
