

See page 13
nd B explained
Finance - Proposals
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
P.O. BOX 617, DOUGLAS, MI. 49406

Volume Two, No. 12
November, 1989

NOVEMBER MEETING

Wednesday, November 8, 1989
7:30 P.M.
All-Saints Episcopal Church

Kit Lane will our speaker for November. She will discuss her new book "John Allen, Pioneer." John Allen was the founder of Ann Arbor and proprietor of Richmond. Richmond was the fore-runner of New Richmond. Books will available for sale and Kit will autograph them for you.

Kay Krause and Doris and Bob Mersbach will be our hosts for the evening. Won't you bring a guest?

OCTOBER MEETING

Mike Sweeney presented a great program on the Saugatuck City Hall, with all kinds of new materials to look at. I think the remodeling of City Hall has been done very well and the Council Chambers are a treat.

NEWSLETTER

Your editor can still use articles for the Newsletter. Send them to the Society post-office box.

CHRONICLE

The Chronicle, Quarterly Magazine of the Historical Society of Michigan has arrived. Articles this month include The Peck Murders in Grand Rapids, Detroit During the War of Independence and A Glimpse Back to baseball in the 19th Century. I will bring it to the next meeting if anyone wishes to borrow it.

Happenings

Dinner to honor Native Americans

The Lakeshore Human Rights Task Force-Michigan Lakeshore Honor Chapter is sponsoring a dinner on Thanksgiving Day in honor of Native Americans. Everyone is welcome to share the meal to be served at Douglas Congregational United Church of Christ, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Call 561-2646 or 857-2996 by Nov. 13 for reservations.

Historical Society meeting

The next meeting of the Saugatuck-Douglas Historical Society will be Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church in Saugatuck. Kit Lane will review her new book "John Allen, Pioneer." Books will be available for purchase and will be autographed. Refreshments will be served.

'Autumn Leavings' flea market set

All Saints' Episcopal Church Women are sponsoring an "Autumn Leavings" Flea Market Saturday, Nov. 4, in the parish hall of the church, corner of Grand and Hoffman from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. There will be antiques and collectibles to household items and holiday decorations available. Free coffee will be provided.

School dinner

No. 12
1989

NOVEMBER MEETING

Wednesday, November 8, 1989

7:30 P.M.

All-Saints Episcopal Church

Kit Lane will our speaker for November. She will discuss her new book "John Allen, Pioneer." John Allen was the founder of Ann Arbor and proprietor of Richmond. Richmond was the forerunner of New Richmond. Books will available for sale and Kit will autograph them for you.

Kay Krause and Doris and Bob Mersbach will be our hosts for the evening. Won't you bring a guest?

OCTOBER MEETING

Mike Sweeney presented a great program on the Saugatuck City Hall, with all kinds of new materials to look at. I think the remodeling of CityHall has been done very well and the Council Chambers are a treat.

NEWSLETTER

Your editor can still use articles for the Newsletter. Send them to the Society post-office box.

CHRONICLE

The Chronicle, Quarterly Magazine of the Historical Society of Michigan has arrived. Articles this month include The Peck Murders in Grand Rapids, Detroit During the War of Independence and A Glimpse Back to baseball in the 19th Century. I will bring it to the next meeting if anyone wishes to borrow it.