

Research for this exhibit stands on the shoulders of James Schmiechen, PhD., founder of the Gay History Project

With the assistance of Bill Galligan, Herb Bills, Steve Mottram, Gary Kott, Mark Neidlinger and Jonathan Schreur

Century of Progress Exhibit Team (2019-2021)

Vic Bella, Nat Carow, Randy DiRosa, Paula Grubben, Caleb Henning,
Bill Kelleher, John Kerr, Michael Mok, Sally Winthers

Eric Gollannek, Saugatuck-Douglas History Center Executive Director

everydayPeople courtesy of Jeff Croley, Steve Croley and Bridget McCormack

Thank You for Interviews, Information and Advice:

Julie Abel
Kristin Armstrong
Bud Baty
Robert Berger
Peggy Boyce
Jacqueline Carey
Ken Carls
Marsha Caspar
Kaye Clements
Jen Cimmarusti
Steve Debbink
Glenna DeJong

Richard Donovan
Eliza Edwards
Arthur Fredricks
Larry Gammons
David Geen
Fred Hamlin
Wendy Hamlin
Ralph Hamilton
Greg Harvath
Timothy Johnson
Mike Jones
Sharon Kelly

Loren Kontio
Marsha Kontio
Ken Kutzell
Erik Livingston
Susan Martell
Forrest Morris
Michael O'Conner
Shelley Padnos
Greg Plowe
Tim Retzloff
Ted Reyda
Salvatore Sapienza

Carol Sarosik
James Schmiechen
Jack Sheridan
Chris Spencer
Michael Usher
Mary Voss
Al Weener
Beth Wilcox
Barb Wishon
Paulette Yetter

The Work Continues:

Much is still unknown about the history of LGBTQ+ presence in Saugatuck-Douglas.

This exhibit is a first step, not the last word, and research is ongoing.

The SDHC would be grateful for any information to add to the historical record.

Please fill out a response card if you would like a
Century of Progress team member to contact you.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

The Century of Progress is supported by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, the National Endowment for the Arts, Michigan Humanities, the National Endowment for the Humanities and West Shore AWARE.