

History Mystery

HISTORY : Rental bikes were popular in Saugatuck in the 1940s and 50s. Especially rentable were the unusual models.

MYSTERY : This photo ca 1942 features a bike built for three. The young lady--pedaling her aunt and her mother-- today lives on Lucy St. near where this was taken. Can you name her?

STUMPED: Find the answer on page

Jack Sheridan of the Saugatuck-Douglas Historical Society produces this feature each week for THE COMMERCIAL RECORD. All current and past History Mystery features can be browsed on the Society web site - www.sdhhistory.com.

The SDHS welcomes your comments on the History Mystery. We would like to scan your old photos for our historical image database. We keep a digital copy and return your photos along with a CD of digital copies. All SDHS historical photos are available for purchase – call 269 857-7901, e-mail the SDHS at sdhistory@accn.org or write to Box 617 Douglas, MI 49406. The SDHS Tech Center office is located in historical Dutcher Hall, Center Street, downtown Douglas.