November, 1990

NOVEMBER MEETING

Wednesday, November 14, 1990
7:30 P.M.
Saugatuck City Hall

Father Cory Stoppel of All Saints Episcopal Church in Saugatuck will speak on The History of Bagpipes and the Influence of Bagpipe Music. He will also discuss Scottish clans and kilts. We have been treated to Father Stoppels playing in many of the Saugatuck parades and a treat it is!

Father Stoppel came to Saugatuck in March of 1989 from West Virginia. He and his wife have also lived in Canada and Europe.

Our hostess for the evening will be Peg Sanford. Come and join us and bring a friend for this interesting evening.

Special Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Building Inventory Committee immediately following the regular meeting on November 14th. Del Langhorst asks that if you are a member or are interested in participating, please plan to stay. The purpose of this very short meeting will be to plan our next survey walk. Now that the leaves have fallen it is time to start again on this Society project.

BOARD MEETING

The next Board Meeting will be held on December 2, 1990 at the home of Del & Dottie Langhorst, 3120 Indian Point Road, Saugatuck at 2:00 P.M. All members are welcome to attend these Board meetings.

CONGRATULATIONS

---to Dr. Chris and Anne Wiley on the birth of their son Peter on November 2nd.

DECEMBER MEETING

Reserve December 12th for our Annual Christmas Party. Jane Van Dis and Kay Krause will be our Hostesses for the evening.

MIDWEST LIVING

Did you all see Midwest Living magazine? Despite a few errors, the article on Christmas in Western Michigan was wonderful. I have received quite a few phone calls from friends who are making sure that I have read the article and seen this December issue of the magazine. We also were featured in the Chicago Tribune Travel Section recently in a lengthy article on the pleasures to be found in Saugatuck.
