

October 29, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Press Contact: Kristin Gebben 616.886.2970

DOWNTOWN FUNNVILLE!

gebben | gray | gallery · Rabbet Design · Journeyman

The hippest suburb to New York City is now Brooklyn and currently Palm Springs has more Hollywood-A-Listers than the entire city of Los Angeles.

So could it be that the cool city of Saugatuck/Douglas is spawning a little suburban brother of its own? Yep, you bet; downtown Fennville, an area rich in culture and history is beginning to blossom into an artist's mecca of its own, complete with new galleries, restaurants and fun folks excited about creating their own new bohemia!

On Friday, November 12, 2004 get ready to party as three Fennville businesses unveil their new digs to all of West Michigan, complete with a street side mariachi band, great art, great food and fashionable drinks.

So take a trip to the corner of Park & Main in downtown Fennville for a surprise night of laughs, local flavor and the celebration of the creative spirit!

- gebben | gray | gallery 120 East Main Street * Raw and Inventive Contemporary Art by American Artists from the 19th & 20th Century.
- RABBET DESIGNS 120 East Main Street * Creative Custom Framing and Design Solutions.
- JOURNEYMEN 114 East Main Street * A Full Menu of Gourmet Foods sourced locally. Outstanding Pizzas, Artesian Breads, Delicacies all within a chic distinctive atmosphere.

A very special thank you to our evening's sponsor;
CHEMICAL BANK of Fennville Michigan for their support.