

Photo provided

John Koning, second owner of the hardware store, is seated next to the door of his establishment. After working for and with John

Nies, the original owner, for 19 years as an apprentice and partner, Koning bought the business in 1894.