Miss Margaret Minor.

This accomplished and intelligent young lady departed this life on Monday evening last, about 11 o'clock. April 1856

Miss Minor was injured in the spine of her back about two years since, and she has suffered extremely for the past year. She was the daughter of Philip Minor, aged about 17 years, and her general health was excellent until the time of her injury.

In all the useful exercises of her life in which she moved, she commanded the universal respect of every body, and had she been spared the severe and heart-rendering affliction, no doubt would have proved as useful and beneficial as any other young lady in our borough.

During the last year of her life her parents, brothers, and sisters, have used every exertion to give her that attention that would prove beneficial to her in her distress. Her sorrowful parents, almost distracted, attended to her wants day and night, and never ceased trying, until death closed her eyes. She died as a christian should die, imploring her blessed Savior to carry her safely to a happy home, where she could forever rest from the weary troubles of this earthly existence.

There are in it six churches.
