

Justice of the Peace Docket – Richhill Township, Greene County, Pennsylvania

Scanned by Candice Buchanan, June 2016

Source citation:

J. C. Booher and G. W. Smith, "Justice of the Peace Docket," docket entries 1870s-1900s, Richhill Township, Greene County, Pennsylvania; held by Greene County Clerk of Court's Office, Courthouse, Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, 2016.

Provenance:

Donated to the Greene County Clerk of Courts Office, Courthouse, Waynesburg, Pennsylvania. No record of donor maintained. It appears that the docket book was passed down from one JP to the next, thus covering a large span of years and including entries from more than one person. J. C. Booher frequently identifies himself in the context of the marriages he performed, as well as in regard to in some of his criminal file entries. Likewise, G. W. Smith is identified as the JP to perform a list of the later marriage entries.

Record specifications:

Justice of the Peace dockets are not typically maintained by the Clerk of Courts Office. This book is in the custody of the office due to donation by the JP or his heirs. As a result, the Clerk of Courts may not issue certified copies of any of these records. In an effort to make the rare material in these dockets available, they are being scanned and transcribed on volunteer time for sharing via the Greene Connections: Greene County, Pennsylvania Archives Project.

Record Images and Transcript:

In order to maximize volunteer time, the first 44 pages of this docket were not scanned at this time due to the largely financial nature of the entries. As time and resources permit, the docket will be revisited to add those entries to the digital archive.

Since the pages in this docket were scanned individually, the images are numbered according to their handwritten page numbers, if they have one. However, there are some errors in the hand-written page numbering system.

- Page 53 skips next to page 56. Pages 54 and 55 are not missing, they are simply not included in the handwritten numbers.
- Pages 86, 87, and 89 are numbered twice. These have been kept in original order by making image "A" and "AA" pages that are incorporated into the number sequence following the correct facing pages.

A transcript of the marriages included in this docket was made in 1988 by Helen S. Durbin. Durbin's transcript may be viewed on her web site at www.OurFamilyHistories.com.

Due to the fact that Pennsylvania did not officially record marriages until 1885 at the Courthouse, the records in this docket are an invaluable record for family history.

In addition to marriages, this JP docket includes criminal matters. Please review these with the understanding that genealogical research requires an open mind. Ancestors were human too. Each should be remembered and treated respectfully, but also with an unbiased examination of the facts. These records have the potential to provide useful clues and details regarding family alignments, everyday life, biographical profiles, and more.

Aug the 2nd 1875 be it remembered that on this date we had the greatest freshet on Whellins Creek. The water above this Mill being some twelve inches higher than any former water known to the subscriber. the water being ten inches deep on the floor of the dwelling house in front of the Mill, then occupied by Jesse L. Barnett; While the water of July 1869 was at the same house above named below the level of the floor three inches
the result of which Farmers generally along the Creek suffered considerable by the loss of wheat oats corn and hay

Be it remembered that Christ mas Day Dec 25 A.D 1883 was dark and cloudy, all day the Sun failing to let its brightness be seen even for for one moment in this part of the country. which has been predicted that we would have no frost the coming season
let us remember and see. &c {had some
