At this midway point in the summer we always welcome the "other 1/2" (those folks who rent for the month of August) to Cape May! The town is full as usual + the outstanding change since last year is the opening of the Peter Shields house (at 1301 Beach Ave) as an elegant new restaurant well worth your patronage! The reason we underline Beach Ave is because we ran the wrong address in every July Pennywise so far this year. We hope people found it by the picture in the ad - sorry, but even we admit mistakes!!!... We call attention to the City of Cape May listing of dates + times of interesting events for the remainder of the summer on pg. 8!!!... This weekend there is little if no sun because of the turnover. - however we do note that the ever popular Rev Robert Davis of the Macedonia Baptist Church will conduct the Vesper Services at 7 at Convention Hall, this Sun, Aug 2nd!!... Also this is the week of the Crowning of Queen Marysa XLIX, Wed, Aug 5th

YOU WON'T BE SURREY
IF YOU COME TO 1301 BEACH AVE.

Was interested in the "Phoenix" on Ney Playa with Wilbur Humphrey Brinkhoff III's "Incredible Time Machine"!!!... Eventually you'll see the B.C. Playhouse's opening night of "Oliver" on T.V. as N.B.C. were there "reeling it" for their series on "summer theatre"!!!... Also on "Ney Alley", antique Faith Duvren (yes, she's related to the famed English firm) has opened her shop + is in love with New Hope!... George Hobensack is back after a week in London - Was he in the wedding mobs??... That 15 or more ft. high urn in George's yard is one of 4 from the Flagler Estate in Dela - Grace Kelly was pictured in front of it years ago in "Phila. Story"!! + have you noticed Santa left his red sleigh on George's roof... Here the Baronettes are rehearsing a new show for "The Baron"!!!... Sch. Fran's Cub's bottle display!!
