To continue about "Clamshell Pitching": - Former champion and Proxy of the Club is Rich Reinhart of Richboro, Bucks County, Pa. tells us its an "easy game to play." - 2 holes are dug in the sand exactly 2 1/2 ft. apart, & the object is to place the clamshell as close to the hole as possible - scoring is 2 points for a "bucket," with additional points awarded for closest to the hole. Accuracy & consistency is the key. Tho the competition is always intense, the focus is on friendship, for after all 35 yrs. is a long time to pitch clamshells!!!! - See ya there! ... Another event on Sat, 23rd is the "Cape May Beach Club Buffet + Dance" at their Clubhouse where Al Raymond will present "Music of the 50's + 60's! Cocktails will be from 6:30 PM. with music from 7:30 til 11:30!! Its $9 per person - Reservations please: Florence Neal 884-8344!!!! And on Sun morn' at 11AM, the Beach Club will hold their "Annual Meeting and Election of Officers"!!!! As for the C.M. Geog. Soc, their Fri mite lecture on the 22nd will be by Clay Sutton "Bird Studies at New Cape May" - A look at changes in bird life in Cape May County since Dr Witmer Stone's book was published in 1937!!!! The location is Victorian Towers at 8:30 P.M. as always. Their 9:30 AM Nature Walk will be "Fall Migrants" on Sat will be led by Peter Dunne. The fall migration is in full swing - Swallows, Bobolinks, Broadwinged Hawks and 30 species of shorebirds are heading south! - This is the last "Nature Walk" listed for this season!

Mordred Edmonds, Pastor Allen A.M.E. Church, Cape May plus the combined choir of the A.M.E. Churches! ... Later, same place at 9 P.M. the Polish Intercollegiate Dancers will perform !!! And on Wed the 27th at the Chalfonte, "Tony" Rock and Roll Adams will do his popular piano bit in the King Edward Room from 9:30 to 12:30 (P.M., naturally) - no admission charge - sounds like a fun fore labor Day beginning !!! On Thurs 28th Cape May's favorite "Macedonia Church Choir" will hold its Annual Concert at Convention Hall - and its always "standing room only" !!! That about fills the week if you include Martha Meneis Antique Show at Convention Hall from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. !!! ... Now to report on the past weeks busy doings: - Last sun, the Cottagers Assoc. held the shortest meeting & election on record - After presenting Greg and Anne (in absentia) a silver tray for their loyal work as secretary & treasurer for over 20 years (They are retiring from those offices), & paying a tribute to Marian Friedrich, the business of the club amounted to the announcement that there are 207 members; the list of new members was read; The "new directors" are Ed Drabble, Richard Sperry, Tom Clark (Tom Hart's grandson), Bob Towell & Lt. Col. Eugene Cathrall! - The officers are: Pres. Blaise de Selour, 1st V.P. Wark Wetherill, 2nd V.P. Tom Thistle, Sec. Treas. Durant Stroud, Exec. Sec. Helen Bernard! ... The dues were raised from $15 to $20 per yr. & donations were announced to Rescue Squad, Volunteer Fire Dept. & Burdette Thonlin! - As fast as you took to read this the meeting was over! One person went to wash his hands & missed the whole meeting!!!

SNEAK PREVIEW OCEAN + COLUMBIA
ROBIN + ELLY HARRISON

To continue about the Cottagers meeting: - Many were delighted to have the boring part eliminated, so they could get on with the serious part the booze + sandwiches!! - Others complained heavily about not having the usual reports from the City + the various Clubs + their progress + plans for the future - Well you can't please everyone!!!! - Our only complaint was that we couldn't write that fast, so called 6 prominent members to check, because several of the names couldn't be found in the C.A. Directory - Oh, well! - On another subject: Connie Boston called us to tell of the surprise phenomenal response to Cape May's new "Welcome Center" located in the old store room back of the stage of the Lafayette St Community Center. It opened June 18th with Connie (formerly of the "Mayflower Ship") running it. - There are well over 1000 names in the register, each one representing 2 to 8 to 10 people, 99% of whom have never been in C.M. before - Their main interest + questions concern "Victoriana", where to stay eat, + sight see for the real thing. Connie even wears her Victorian costume when it's not too hot. (Did you see all the "Victorian dressed ladies" in the "Trolley Car" in the Baby Parade?) - Connie believes the new surging tourist interest is due to our recent excellent splash publicity in "Town + Country", "The Charlotte" southern cooking, the Poverty Beach Real Estate, etc 1/2 pg spreads in Phila + other city Sunday papers!!! Hoorsay + keep up the good work!!!! - Last Sat's "1st Tennis Ball" was a howling success with over 250 attending!!! - Congrats to Club Pres. Clarence Farmer + his Ball Chairmen, the Charles Joris! - Ray Mc Coy shook the chance box + Bud Rambeau won the micro-wave oven, Barbara Hess - the "Black + Decker Workshop", Molly Kelly - the "Lafayette dinners", Mary Donaldson - the "basket of cheer", etc!! - Betty Conwell gave a pre-Ball buffet dinner for 30 old guard players + was assisted by sons David (of Trinity) Bruce (Minn. U. law degree) + Bill (Med. sch. applicant) - The Farmers were of course busy with their house guests, the Bernds + the Morriszes!!!! - The Corinthian Y.C. "Western Party" was the best ever! - Mae Mc Laughlin MC'd it, + Sandy Thompson was accompanist - Choreographer was Winnie O'Brien + costumer - Mary James!!! - Her won 9 "Troc Trippers" in Dancing Chorus + a mixed octette sang a parody of "Home on the Range" by Sara Scheufele about the Y.C.'s store + led by Charlie + Bob Koons! Carmelita Mc Share stole the show as Dolly Parton! - Mary Lou Sandson sang "Dixie Backin' Mama", + Jay Schatz + Elaine King did "Pronto + the Love Stranger" great!!
