Now that summer has returned, we can expect several groups on their annual visit to C.M.:- The Antique Auto show always begin arriving Fri. (7th) so they can be ready for their auto show from 9 til 2 on Sat. since the city got fancy & filled the Mall with those cement flower garden bins, we can't help wonder where the cars will park for their show. It's all very pretty but we've heard nothing but their cost & impracticality since we arrived in town - so we'll see! At 2 P.M. said cars will do their Annual Parade around town- The 2nd group is Phila.'s famous Savoy Opera Co. (Gilbert & Sullivan) on their annual outing at the Chalfont. On Sat. at 7:30 there will be a special 7 course Victorian Dinner at $25 per person. This includes a $10.- contribution to the Restoration Fund of this historic landmark. This is usually sold out as Grace Cole and just about every one looks forward to this weekend for months. After the Victorian Dinner members of the Savoy Co. will present excerpts from Gilbert & Sullivan. This weekend the Chalfont also unveils their new King Edward Room for cocktails. -- Sat eve. at 8 P.M. the Art League is holding a public reception & tea for "the opening" of artist Marcia Welkert from Chalfont, Pa. This one man show will be in the "Carriage House Gallery" on the Phisic Estate !! should be a good show as the artist has degrees & a list of shows a mile long!!! Also on the 8th the Corinthian Y.C. will hold a "Sat Nite Fever" party at their clubhouse. In charge are Neva & Len Sacker & Joan & Bob Rubin!!!

On Sun (9th) at Convention Hall the 7 P.M. Vespers services will be conducted by Rev. Ralph Tamaccio, former pastor of C.M.'s 1st Presby Church - By the way the Church is holding a 2 day Bazaar from 9 to 3 on Fri (7th), & 9 til noon Sat (8th) in the Church parking lot. It'll of course feature the usual food, white elephants, plants, books & will be held rain or shine!! Also at Conv. Hall at 9 P.M. on Sun will be a musical program by "Alisa & Friends" (3 men and 1 woman) - Don't exactly know what they do!! On Mon (10th) the Vict. Bandstand concert (usually held on Tues) will be by the Max's Standing Vets Band at 8 P.M.!! Of course the weekly Mon. Ant. Show at Convention Hall is always from 10 A.M. til 10 P.M. - Tues (11th) M.A.C. will hold the 1st of its weekly Tues. "Film Festival '78" movies "Little Women" in the Vict. Towers auditorium at 8:15 P.M. $2. adm.!!! Wed (12th) the Cottagers Assoc will hold its "Annual Ladies Tea" - one of C.M.'s traditional elegant events!! Now for next weekend Fri, 9 Sat, 9 Sun the 14th Annual Promenade Art show will take place. - And of course on Sat the 15th is the Beach Clubs "strings on the strand" - Chairman Mort Zirin tells us it is a buffet supper dance with music by the Fantastics (7 pes) sing a long, etc. Mort promises "everything will be different" - For instance the party is being catered by Roni & Greg Biancola of the Texas Mkt. who are now going in heavily catering everything you can possibly think of and providing all needed items. We know about the orchestra, but will let you be surprised on that one. To get back on the track we hear the menu will cover potato salad, macaroni salad, beef in gravy, party trays (cold cuts) possibly a turkey etc., etc, etc. - - - - -

Involved in all this affair is Alton Lippman and a committee so long we could fill the whole Pennsylvania if we listed all names, no slight intended if we do not mention the unsung heroes. Naturally Cleanse Meeker is concocting one of her clever invites, Marty Brown has the job of getting 'em out & Bev Cochrane has the thankless chore of the reservations - Bev Cochrane 1045 N.Y Ave. ph 884-3013 - Members & guests $8 single, Couples $15. - Marguerite Burke is already deep in plans for her unusual decorations - Congrats to Robert Rubin and former Mayor Bruce Minnis who applied for and got a federal grant to make a serious movie study of the people who made C.M., its architecture what it is today - In short "How this place came to be with anecdotes & interviews." Related Happy Birthday Greetings "born on the 4th of July" to Dan Solari who did not feel too chipper on the morning of the 5th and to Dianne Ramagossa who celebrated with her parents and grandmother Sullivan at a party at the new 2 mile Inn. Have you been at the Colonial when Ed Michol plays the tunes Alleycat & "After the Loving" on a LEAF? What kind of leaf? - Any kind of leaf will do. ON Monday it was a philodendron leaf - and how was your rainy Mon?
