Cape May's in great shape this year - better than we've found it in years! The water's OK, but you now have to wear your $1.50 beach tag (good for 9 days starting on Fri.) purchasable from the City Info. Booth or the 4 tag sellers on the beach (seasonal ones are $5 + $10 depending on whether they're seasonal or not) ... Last year's new owners of some of the large hotels have become better acquainted with our town, + there's an influx of youthful business people full of enthusiasm in their 1st business venture. There's a new atmosphere of confidence + success everywhere + most everyone's sold out for the weekend! ... We have a new mayor Mickey Blomqvist + a new city councilman Fred Coldren. ... During the winter the far right hand end of the Washington St Mall burned to the ground, + it's already rebuilt with sparkling new stores. ... The Shore Bar was bought by Vince Archetto + Brian Diancola, renamed Blackbeards + remodelled with new oval bar + the band on the side instead of in the former center gazebo. ... Another bar to change hands is the former "Tajoon" now renamed "The Pilot House" by young newly-wed owners Terry + Frank Hinesline. There's a whole new life - they bought the property Jan 13 (They're from Haddonfield + Cherry Hill), were married Feb 26th + after a 3 day honeymoon, moved to C.M. + took over their new "Pilot House". They've added a deck with yellow umbrellas on the Carpenter Lane side + it's ready for outdoor feasters patio style!!! ... Another young couple Eileen + Jim Smith (of Audubon + Cherry Hill) bought the Beachview (next to the Beach Theatre) + are now in the process of renaming it. "Happy Birthday to Yankee Doodle Dandy" Danny Solari born on the 4th of July

 ... The old Macomber Hotel (opp. the Pier) has been bought by Bob Peterson + his son Jon (They've had the Edward House Apts for years)
 ... The dining room at the end of the porch is being run as a separate venture by Cape May's young Joe + Gary Zahora. They call it the Run

The old Country Store at Columbia + Page was purchased by Jane + Bob Hurst of C.M.P. + they've set up their daughters Kathie + Leslie in the business!!... Out by the docks there's a mad sign "Fong + Scam + Dave + Daddy" + it isn't a chinese restaurant!... Actually it's another father (Denish (of Naples) setting up his talented kids in a kind of a "gallery" business. They're all well known here as their parents met here + have been coming here ever since. Fong does water colors, Scam's the photographer + Dave does C.M. scene postcards - Quite a family!!!... The newly built shops at the end of the Mall are occupied by Antie + Sally "Love's Fudge" (a much grander shop than before); Dover (dress) shop - a quality discount shop; the "Shirt Factory" (low prices for men + women) is managed by Sherry Rhoads - they have shops in Lancaster, Media, + New Caeth; + a Deli which wasn't open Memorial Day!!... If you go into "my sister's place" that's not Pandora's Dorothy Stekalos but her twin sister, Agnes Shapiro who looks like a twin sister should. Agnes' shop is for sportswear + gifts

In case you just arrived in town, here's a list of the where's where for this holiday weekend. Of course Fri. C. Yacht Club members will dash out to Corinthians Fri. "Happy Hour" dinner to see who's in town, etc, etc. — but the main get-together is Sat (the 2nd) when the Cottagers Assoc. holds its seasonal "kick-off" bash from 6:30 to 8:30!... It'll be mobbed, of course, because it's traditionally "a must" for not only the old timers, but the young guard as well plus house guests from every guest room in town. It's at the Beach Club, as usual, which is indefinitely expandable (unless it rains) to the poolside, etc, etc!!... As for the official city activities Convention Hall will have dancing for both children & adults both Fri. & Sat... Sun, the Vespers at 7 P.M. followed by a Sal Barbo Concert & Mon is an Antiques Show 10 AM to 10 PM... The N. R. B. B. Amer. Legion Band will have a Band Concert at the Victorian Bandstand at 7:30... AND at 9 P.M. there'll be a "Fireworks Extravaganza" but we don't know where, but you'll hear it!! And by the way "Happy July 4 to you all!"

Always a Wonderland

Most attractive new shop in C.M. is the Freckled Walrus on Carpenter Lane (the beach side back street to the Mall)... Its full of every kind of gourmet unique cooking gadget. The 2 couples who are partners in the shop are Gay + Jim Cadline, yachtsmen of the "Christie Jim" moored at the Inarisa over the bridge (hence the nautical cooking items), and Dr Dave + Gerry Baxter - Both couples are well known in Cape May!!... The 2 new "in" things in C.M. this year are the magnificent large hardback "Cape May, Queen of the Seaside Resorts - Its History and Architecture" by George E Thomas + Carl Doebler ($25) - It has photos of most everybody's cottage in Cape May, etc, etc. "Belle's" has it + you should go in + look at it... The other is the large clear uncut tumbler 20 C.M. diamond pendants at "Scott's"!! Next weekend is "Old House Tour", the "Antique Auto Show" + the "Beach Club Cocktail Dance"!! Reserve by 15x

THE Winchester Inn
DINING ROOM AND COCKTAIL LOUNGE

Also up River Rd a bit farther is Center Bridge Inn sparkling under the new ownership of Robert Cobun + Joe dePula!!! Of course the ultimate in all-out "Glamour" is always Hacienda Tam Minford's Fountain head "hidden away in the woods where Rts 202 and 179 come together. With mirrored, crystal chandeliers, gold carpeted rooms seating from 75 to 250, she's been booked almost solid with weddings, receptions, & the like during June! Of course, outdoors is even more sensational around the curved Olympic size swimming pool with all the colorful flowers in bloom. - but were lucky for on Fri. & Sat. she opens the place to the public for dancing + drinking under the stars to the sound of the big bands. - By the way, Tam wants to sell her 5 speed Honda dirt bike - Its brand new in mint condition. Interested? Call Ellie Welter at 862-2078!!! ... Also out that way off 202 is the Old Cart Wheel Inn newly owned by Tony Fanelli + Bob Starcher (former owners of January's) + Phillip Nafatalino + Dwight Anderson. They've done it all over + its very much disco + advertised as "an experience in multi-media sound so you get the idea. As a matter of fact this weekend is the opening of their new "Gatsby Cocktail Lounge"!!! ... Also on RT 202 but nearer New Hope is Les Dille's "La Camp Restaurant" at the Brookmore Hotel. He now has a tented bar with Bar-B-Q out in front! Sun July 3rd from one on they're having an old fashioned Bar-B-Q with prizes for the most patriotic costumes - Reservations a must!!! ... We were there the nite Gilbert Engel + Uncle Doug Wicks gave a pool grad party for daughter Renee Engel who got her G.P.N. degree. It was a cold nite but Kam Engel, Eddie Skillman + Tick Torrey braved the pool! ... Another recent grad was the Crowley's daughter Nita from the Georgetown Univ. Law school so now John + Sarah have a lawyer in the family!! We're sorry there is not enough space to tell you about the many new merchants in the clumps of stores around town. - Dorian's Court, etc. - so that'll have to wait for our Aug 1st edition!! Anyway Happy Holidays to ya'all.

Concerning New Hope's several new + very good restaurants, the most central one is "The Landing" - a little tricky to find as it's on the River just past the Bank's parking lot, however, if you're driving you have to go up to the first little street + follow the signs to a small parking lot, then follow the walk past the swimming pool + there it is + they do have a bar. When you open the door you waft a delicious aroma of steak soup which is cooking by the entrance on a small stove. Chris + Margie Dollenbacher, a very nice young couple bought the place last year + he worked on it all summer to rebuild it to his desires. It is a small very friendly place with atmosphere!!!... Up the River Rd a bit at Phillips Mill Rd you'll find a tiny sign "Hotel du Village" - turn left + into the grand estate + drive back to the main mansion, the famous "White Oaks" built as a private home by Caroline Woods. In 1917 it became the Holmquist School for Girls. Later it became the "Lower Campus" of the Solisbury Boys Prep School, + last year Omar + Barbara Arbani bought it + converted it to their present "Hotel du Village" Restaurant - It's like dining in the old ancestral with large old fireplaces and all. They do not have a bar - at least not when we were there!! Dining is elegant french + only needs is that bottle of wine!!!... Further up River Rd is Phillips Mill which you can't miss because of that twist in the road. Joyce + Brooks Stauffer have owned the building for some years leasing out the restaurant concession. However this year they decided to run it themselves. They have added several more rooms from the house + are delighted with their satisfied customers - no bar here either!!!... All 3 of these new places are mobbed so reservations are really essential!!

It's a whole new look - New Hope is bustling with new restaurants and clusters of shops, while other merchants have changed locations - so it's a whole new ball game!... Yes the traditional old stand-bys are still there - New Hope Craft, George Hobensack (antiques, Embroid, etc., but for instance - in that Towpath Shops complex on Mechanic St. "Wood in Wood" started on the towpath level but now they're big time wholesalers they own the whole building. Jewel craftsman Cindy Farnham (Earth 'n Silver) has come upstairs to Mechanic St. + she's grown so she now wholesales to more than 20 stores - Carmel, Cal, Wyoming, etc. Cindy is now into picture jasper! Note her special cat window with a ramp down the side of the building for her felines to come + go as they please!... In Cindy's old shop downstairs, Manfred (don't know his last name) does beautiful inlays + wood burning! Next door to Cindy is Solebury councilman Herb Sandoz's boutique shop. Arvin Jain's mall next door has never gotten off the ground due to architectural approval delays, etc, but we'll save that for next year!! Across Mech. St. in "Key Plaza" Barbie + Jim Mc Cormack have opened their "Cracked Pot", a truly interesting gifts, wicker + pots shop with a garden - Last year they were hidden in somebody's backyard off Main St. Jacmel Crafts on Mechanic St is the same trio that has that new gallery on N. Main St where the present stone sculptures are well worth a visit. The trio consists of Don Sullivan, Katherine Book + Roy Peterson. Further down Mechanic St last year's restaurant is still there but they changed the name from Apple to "The Pitz"! The upper part of the building now houses "Nana's" clothing shop - very attractive. Last year she was "Nana's Radish on N. Main St!! Up at the top of Mech. St John A Parker III + his interesting french wife Monique have opened a country western shop, hats + all and they call it "Le Beau Rouge" which translates to "Red skin" of course!!
