This past week has been devoted to C.M.'s younger set. - Wed nite Convention Hall was jammed to capacity for the Annual Coronation of Queen Maysea XLVI, Sheri Lynn Hemingway, daughter of the James Hemingways of 117 Emerald Ave, W. Cape May! Mistress of Ceremonies for the show & ceremonies was Miss Mary Matthews, the reigning '78 C.M. County Jr Miss. The entertainment was provided by the "Mini-Company '78" of the Joanne Reagan Dance Studio. As a child Mrs Reagan danced with Jerry Love Barber, whom we older folk remember directed the Queen Maysea festival for many years. For the past 7 yrs. Mrs. Reagan has been carrying on the tradition. In fact every Tues this summer Mrs Reagan has been putting on a "Mini-Dance Revue" for a 1/2 hr. before the weekly 8:30 "Cartoon Show" at Convention Hall!!! Queen Maysea's Court included Terri Douglas, Jennifer Pagano, Michelle Marey, Sharon French, Lori Anne Lundholm, Tracey Shaw, Sharon Lynn Jordan, Kristin Coombs, Beth Ann Collier, Robin Manady, Donna Jean Wise, & Patti Gray!!! Flower girls were Jennifer Matthews & Leannie Marie Dittings, with Bobby Lopez as Page Boy!!! Mrs Mitze Blomqvist was chairman of this year's event!!! Of course the wind-up of the whole celebration is C.M.'s Annual Baby Parade on Fri (4th) after noon!!! Cape May seems to be bursting with talent, mostly musical - f' instance last Sat the Chalfonte held a "Close Encounters Party" complete with show. The party was a costume affair, & "THE" Mrs Satterfield, always a good sport (she's our #1 cover girl this week) came all done up in a plastic suit complete with "jockey hat"!! Someone commented she was the "sex symbol of the age"!!! The show started with a skate board demonstration by 9 yr. old Christopher Ames Eastburn & it was truly a great "close encounter". This was followed by disco dancers Connie & Wm H Eastburn III steppin' out in hi style. Then there was a Virginia couple who did the "bossa nova", & this was followed by Helen, the famous Chalfonte cook singing "The Saints, etc" leading everyone in a chain around the ballroom!!! The orchestra for this Intimate Evening of Jazz was a great group from C.M.P.I. who call themselves "The 2nd Night Blue" and consisted of Peter Cornell, Michael Plunkett, John Hoffman & Jeff Helton (who is actually from C.M.) - They feature "light jazz - a different sound!"

To go on about "the 2nd Night Blue", we hear they were such a hit that they'll probably be back at the Chalfonte from 9 to 12 on Thurs, Fri, & possibly Sun!!!... Helton is the black 6ft. 9 starting center for the U. of Md. basketball team & has a horseshoe tribal mark!!!... The ever popular "Cape May Diamonds" have finally returned to C.M. for the summer - this time they're at "Harvey's" every nite except on their day or 2 off when guest bands will appear!!!... Dick (Richard W Jr) Rutherford (who owns the band, is "chairman of the board" etc) plays piano, banjo & guitar & hopes to do the Law School bit at Penn State this fall!; Walter Planer also plays the guitar & does vocals; Tony Sailer who does bass, violin & vocals played with the Phila Youth Arch. & at the late Latin Casino; Rick Ferrante who plays everything plus vocals played a couple of years ago at Wildwoods "Manor Lounge" with Laurie Beechman who is now 5th lead in the hit show "Lennie" on Broadway. (She's Dino & Dolly Bush Beechman's daughter) Laurie writes she's due for some "time off", & expects to be in C.M. shortly!!!; Linda Ferrante, Rick's sister & newest member of the group also plays the piano & does vocals! - Quite a group! - Welcome home!!!... This week's Pennywise photo #214 is Dan Levitan who played the harp for Herb Kravich's Bastille Day Party (on scholarship at P.C.P.A. won the Harp Competition sponsored by the Trenton Symphony) was a different party note!!!

Another excellent local dance orchestra is "The Fantastics" who wowed 'em at the "Beach Club Supper Dance"! Everyone raved about this 7 piece "Senior Citizen" band mostly from the Villas! Musicians were: leader John Shilow; Johnny Kilday - guitar; Frank Fore - banjo; Anne Rafter - piano; Edie Zeigler - mistress of ceremonies; Bruno Suthus - bass; Bill Lundy - horn. He's from Court House!!! Bruno tells us in '35 on a dare, he was the 1st mummy to carry & play his bass viol (no wheels) the full length of the N. Years Day Parade route from Oregon to Broad & Girard to 2nd & down to Pitner - He still slaps a mean bass!!! Another st. group that are fun & active are the "Cape May County Clown Club," clowns of America - members all have great clown outfits & appear about the County for "Charity Benefits." Members at C.M.'s "Victorian Fair" included "Uncle Hobybe & Pinky" Dorn, Rusty White, & Al Fox & Harriet Sherman!!! Louise Monte who celebrated her birthday not long ago at the Corinthian Y.C. tells us she was secretary (before she was married) for the famed "Theodore Drieser" - says he couldn't spell worth a "d" - & she had to translate or rewrite a lot of his stuff! - How bout that!!
