Gas Hotline (609) 465-2111 Well, at last Cape May looks more like summer time, now that summer visitors have found that Cape May has not had the major gas problems cities & other resorts have had! ...Of course the main feature of this weekend is the 15th Annual Promenade Art Show running from Fri 13th thru Sun 15th, so lets all pray for clear good weather. - Of course, if it rains, the whole bash moves into Convention Hall which gets sort of jammed but adequate!!! - Also we remind you of the 31st Annual Old House Tour sponsored by the C.M. County Art League - 24 "Houses" are listed & include 1 at Cold Spring, 2 on the Bayshore (Lower Township), & 3 at C.M.P.T. - The ones in C.M. include 4 churches, the "Physic estate" & the "Admiral". The architect for the hotels domed lobby was the same one who did Atlantic City's now destroyed "Fraymore" & Marlboro-Blenheim! - Interesting to note the one at 609 Hughes it is said to be the one in which Robert E. Lee summered!! The Tour cost is $5.00 & is from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. mostly!!! ... Also on Sat 14 is the 15th Annual "Beach Club Cocktail Dance" with Leroy Bostick ("On the Way to C.M.") from 6:30 to 9:30 - Res: 884-7451!!! ... And also on Sat 14th is the "Chalfontes" Victorian Dinner, a fund raising affair to help provide matching funds for the Fed-State Grant as it is on the Nat'l Reg. & has Nat'l Landmark Status. It will be a 7 course dinner with wine & entertainment selections from Gilbert & Sullivan by the Savory Co!! Dinner price for guests not staying in Hotel is $27.50 (incl contrib).

Congrats to the Stivanis for their very successful 1st Annual Scholarships Pancake Breakfast - They sold 650 breakfasts + made several 1000 pancakes, in fact they were making them so fast the griddle machine couldn't keep hot enough!!!... The latest venture in Cape May is the new club for guys + gals 13 and over, + its called "Trouble", Cape May's hottest dance floor. Actually its located in "Pierre's" at the corner of Beach + Terry St + is only open Fri. + Sat. at 9 P.M. - Casual Dress. It is run by disc jockey John Dwight Barab of WRQX-FM. - Yes he's there in person with machines, strobe lights + all the paraphernalia!! - You may remember he's the one who had a booth at the Victorian Fair, Memorial Day. As for the former "Sidi" it looks more or less the same since Marie Carney's of Carney's bar at 3608 & her grown children have had it- However if you like rag piano, "red garter" style, don't miss the smaller side bar- room by their liquor store!!!... Harry Thayer & Mac MacKinney of the "Filling Station" always come up with new ideas- This year they've made last year's "Cust cheese" room into a sort of "steak + salad bar," a sort of place + it's caught on as their ideas always do!!- It's called "With Reservations"!... Out at "Back Harbor Wharf," Cyril & Kathy Laster have enlarged in eatery & now call it "Cafe Ole" featuring Mexican food (not hot) but with own homemade sauce & all fresh & made to order- They have music on weekends!!!... Warning: Even tho' the "beachport" is closed this year- Don't park there- You'll be towed away + we mean it!
