Can you believe it? - We're 1/2 way thru July & 1/4 thru the summer!!!... This weekend we welcome the 14th Annual Promenade Art Show & the T.V. weatherman promises good weather, so here's hoping it will be as nice as last week!! ... Officially it takes place from 10 to 5 from Fri the 14th thru Sun the 16th, however artists may exhibit after hours... Mrs Mary Joyce, gen'l chairman tells us that this years show will be limited exclusively to "Fine Art and Sculpture" - seems in past years handcrafts surfaced as exhibitors & created some problems. There are 9 categories this year which include the various kinds of painting plus sculpture, graphics, & photography... No sketching or body painting for tips or fee is permitted... Oh, yes, there's a separate judging category for youth up to & including 14 yrs of age!!! - Remember years ago when the City used to put on this art show on the 2nd floor of the old City Pier - You'd be amazed at how many of those artists of by gone days are nationally known today!!!!... There are still 2 separate divisions of the show? Professionals - with accredited Art School background or one who has been in a Juried Art Show; Amateur - without formal training or juried show!!! - Pray for good weather! ... next Sat & Sun (22+23) will be the "Decoy & Woodcarving Show in Convention Hall!!!... This Sat the 15th is the Beach Club's "Strings on the Strand" Buffet Supper Dance at 6:30 at their Club-house. - Res. Mrs Blair Cochrane (884-3013) - $8 single, $15 couple!!!... This is not the Annual Cottagers Summer Dance which will be Sat Aug 12 - also at the Cottagers Beach Club, so hold the date)... To continue with this weekend activities: On Sun (16th) at Convention Hall the "Vesper services" at 7 P.M. will be "Rev Robert Davis & the Choir from the Macedonia Baptist Church", traditionally one of the most popular of summer C.M. events with usually a packed house!!... This will be followed at 9 P.M. by the Polish Intercollegiate Dancers which should prove interesting & unusual!!!... On Tues (18) Elizabeth von Schlichten tells us M.A.C. will present their weekly movie at 8:15, Victorian Towers - Admission $2.00 - The movie is the ever popular "Grand Hotel" with its all star Hollywood casts

As for "Corinthian Y.C." activities: This Sat + Sun attention is focused on the 5 races of the G.P. 14 No. Amer. Championships!!... And then on Wed (19) "A lovely Summer Luncheon Bridge" will be held at their Clubhouse at 12:30... Edith Rimerman is Chairman + with a Committee of 16, it should be quite an affair... The price is $5 per person (bring your own cards) ... As Sinnie Ever in her press release says "exciting prizes" - As tables are limited we suggest you make your reservations now! Dotie Pocher 884-4505, Virginia Ever - 3577 (They're all the 884 exchange), Vi Miller 3394 or Winnie (Brien - 8889 !!!... And next Sat (22) is their "Port and Starboard Ball (coat + tie + admission)!... Meanwhile the other "boating organization" the "Cape Yacht Club" had their Xmas in July party on Sat July 1st out at their Marina... Forty yachts competed in the decoration contest + put on one of the most elaborate displays in the Clubs history... Prize winners were: 1st Bobby + Gail Bigwoods "Peanuts" with the theme "All nestled in their beds"; 2nd Roland Carroll's "Vi-Marie" with a super Xmas display + lights; 3rd Anna Mae Campetti's "Bin-Curl" - "I Caught Mommie kissin' Santa Claus" with Don Carroll in the role of you know who !!! Honorable mention went to Bill + Ethel Smith's "Silver Spray Too" with Xmas rooms in miniature - All in all quite a festive occasion!!... And this Sat (15th) the Cape Y.C. will hold their "Annual Clam Bake" under the tent as usual, etc at 6 ish! ... By the way have you seen those marvelous canvas shoulder bags that Bill + Ethel Smith designed, manufactured, + are selling on a nation wide scale so popular they can hardly keep up with the orders - They are perfect for foreign travel with compartments for your pass-ports, your valuables (money, jewelry + pills), etc !!! We usually carried an extra camera case for such stuff, but this is even better!... Visiting Canadian glamor boy Raymond Deslandes took one home with him plus a Cape May diamond of course... Near "The Canvas Back" shop in Liberty Village Mall will soon have the bags!

Remember the W. B. Laufman of 1125 N. Y. Ave?—Well their grand-daughter Molly still lives there & her brother Bill who has summered in C.M. most of his life has opened "It's a Breeze", a cotton dress (with the "Annie Hall look") & porcelain jewelry shop at the back end of Alexandra's "Bubbling Wells" shop 411 Washington St.—His sportswear is all imported & he knows the business as he's been associated with a wholesaler in Providence, R.I. for some years. Bill is originally from Pittsburg!!!... The 1st Art Gallery to show original works of C.M. artists has recently opened on Lawyer Court & Carpenter Lane (behind the mall). It is called "L' Atelier" & is run by C.M. resident, Beau Sinkler who encourages local artists to bring their work to her for possible exhibition!!!... Another new business is "The Lemon Tree" on the mall next door to the new "Liberty Village Mall".—Marie Sepe who has not been in the business before says the name of the game is "FRESH" & everything she sells really is. Befitting the name she has fresh lemonade, lemon sticks, & fresh squeezed orange juice, & fresh french fried Idaho potatoes (not frozen),—also Kosher frankfurters & other if you're hungry—and it's all delicious!! She's originally from N.Y.!!!... The "C-View" at Washington & Texas Ave is just as popular as ever, even tho' it's under new ownership. Happy McKeefry & his 2 sons Tommy & Jack!! Happy's from 34 yrs in the business in Phila, & Atlantic City & sponsors "Soft Ball

Have you heard Joanne Cortis of S Africa play the spoons - she's a customer & not in the band! ... Our apologies to Maura the musical group so popular at "Gloria" & "Quincy", the great music at Harvey's (last weekend only) - The wrong bands were mentioned in our ads because we were misinformed! - The correct names are listed this week!!! ... And speaking of music, Herb Ayers (the music at the Colonial) tells us that "Hey, Hey, Cape May", the Cape May is for lovers song, is getting more popular every nite! - We were surprised to learn it was written by our old friend retired printer Franz Keston (C. M's "Dojac") a summer visitor here for many yrs!!!! ... As a matter of fact he used to print the covers for Pennywise when we published it in Phila in the winter time just before after the war (II World War, naturally). ... Which reminds us - We felt very honored when the Penna Historical Society requested a complete file copy of every Pennywise Magazine we've ever published since I graduated from Penn Charter School in 1931!!!! ... When asked why, they replied it was the most complete & accurate account of the Cape May & Jersey in existence historically speaking. ... As you may or not know, we lost our summer home at the Wildwood end of C.M.'s Beach Ave. in the hurricane of March '52 - (We were the only total loss in C.M. but we still own the vacant hole in the ground property on the corner of Beach Ave & Wilmington Ave. - 100 ft. ocean front & 150 ft. facing the dunes or Poverty Beach, & it is for sale for $100,000 - the most beautiful site in all of C.M.!!!!!!) - But to get back to Pennywise, we lost all of our back file copies which were stored there. Friends & kind strangers have replaced most of them, but we are still missing the early mimeographed copies from '31 to '35 when Ned Reed, Hank Shrober, & Phil Dixon were my partners, also we have none from '38 plus other odds & ends which we will list completely next week! If any of you have any of these missing issues will you please lend them to us so we can have them xeroxed & then returned to you!!! ... Please, Please!!!! ... Also if any of you can do hand lettering in plain block letters would you please call 884-4866 as it's a part-time job!!!! ... Wishing you all a Happy Bastille Day - Celebrate at La Terrasse 3432 Sansom St on Fri (14:30) at Kramer's Lot!
