Usually, we have a ton of weekend happenings; we can tell you about, but this weekend seems to be the lull before Labor Day!!!... Since we will be "on the streets" with our Pennywise this Thurs, Aug 27th (a day ahead of time) we will tell you about two very important events on Thurs nite that shouldn't be missed: — In our last issue we mentioned the famous ever popular Macedonia Baptist Church Choir who will blend their musical spiritual voices in chorus at Convention Hall Thurs the 27th. — Of course they will be led by their inspirational pastor, Rev. Dr. Robert Davis, whose voice and enthusiasm is always infectious!!!... That same night, commencing at the same hour 8 P.M. at Victorian Towers will be the "Young at Heart All-Star Revue" for the benefit of the Korean Veteran Monument, to be placed in October at the West Cape May Park!... Young at heart 78 yr old Mr. Mc Namara has performed at St. Citizen homes + hospitals around Fla. Ft Meyers area for many years. Also on the bill will be Mrs. Mary Grayson (of Ft.) singing a new song written by the late Buck Mc Govern (of Cape May) named "Those Precious Moments", + the great young Cape May 80 yr old "Bobby" leading a sing-along. There are many more acts (Admission only $1.25) for a wonderful cause! — see Paul F. Panthello, Ballroom Dance President!!!....

now as for the rest of this week and Fri Sat and Sun Aug 28, 29, + 30 the "International Clamshell Pitching Club of Cape May" will hold its 36th Annual Clamshell Pitching Tournament on Steyer's Beach as usual! The contest area is roped off, shells are provided, trophies for all winners + runners up are awarded. Both men + women compete (separately) in singles + doubles competition - with usually about 70 entrants!!... The contest is something like quoits or horseshoes, but with clamshells instead. Holes in the sand 26 1/2 ft apart take the place of the "pole" or "target". - Competitors take it all very seriously, so "QUIET" is observed as in an International Golf match!!!... See ya' there - rain or shine!!!!

... Sat 29th at 8, the Nabb Leslie American Legion Band of Millville will hold a concert at the Victorian Bandstand!!... At the Corinthian Yacht Club there will be a "Special Buffet for Landlubbers + Ocean Racers" (that sounds a bit all inclusive!)!!!... On Sun the 30th keepers will be conducted by Rev Wesley Newell of West Cape May's "First Assembly of God Church"!! - The Harrogate String Band concert has til Sept 6th the Sunday of Labor Day Weekend. It'll be a benefit for the benefit (new equipment) for Cape May's all important Rescue Squad. Whether or not you plan to go to this best of the numbers Band you should at least purchase some raffle chances!

- 330 ANDREW MACKNIGHT THOMPSON

If you would like to have the negative of your cover photo send a stamped self addressed envelope and $1.00 one dollar!!

May Elisabeth called us about next weekend's "opening & reg even" at the Corinthian Yacht Club on Fri Sept 4 - the "Salute to the Commodore's Ball" - For the 6 to 7 PM cocktails, the hors d'oeuvres will be the super favorite specialties made by various individual members. The dinner (by members of course) - now get this: roast prime ribs au jus, baked idahos (cream cheese chive dress), string beans almondine, salad bar, hot rocks + creme de menthe parfaits!!! The dinner is from 7 to 9 when Mark Shaw will play for dancing. Mark was so popular last year they invited him back this year - He's one of Al Raymonds 23 bands so he's got to be great!! Of course its coat & tie - and all the above for only $12.50 ~~per person~~ can't beat that! The catch is the reservation deadline is this Mon Aug 31st - Call Gloria Holmstrom (884-8632), Ruth Hand (884-3681), or May Elisabeth (884-2570) - "A word to the wives etc!!" Early this summer, we promised to write up the beautiful long stem red rose (150) girls in white lace Victorian dresses + bonnets at every bistro in town!! Mother outfit Mon Ami is based in Calif with Debbie Ewing + Eileen Oleksick doing the CM pitch - They are local gals + we miss them + their touch (??) of glamor!!!
