As you know, C.M. in all its picturesqueness has always attracted artists & art shows, and artists are already preparing for next weekend's 5th Annual "Boardwalk" Art Show sponsored by the C.M. County Art League. However this weekend art on a smaller scale flourishes at the Corinthian Yacht Club! The opening preview will be held on Fri (11th) during the "New Members Corinthian Hour." Chairwoman for the show which lasts thru Sun (13th) is Dorothy Truman assisted by Karen Stuard Houston!! Carin & Robin Frederickman were responsible for Fri (4th) delicious dinner! The Cottagers Gala 40th Anniv. Dance (9.3 to 1) at the Beach Club, Howard Lammie Arch as usual is this Sat the 12th & from what we hear just about everyone will be there (Res: Mrs. W.B. X. Cochrane, 1045 N. Y. Ave. 1/3 Couple, $6.50 single) - see you there!!! The City has nothing exceptional planned, but the Sun (13) Vespers at Com. Hall will be conducted by the Episc. Church of the Advent Rev. Wm. Stott at 7!!! followed at 9 by the Delco Barbershop Concert!!! The weekly Vic Bandstand Concert will be on Mon (14th) by the Mays Landing Veteran Band... Tues (15th) Vic Towers 8.15 M.A.C. movie is '38's Holiday' with Kate Hepburn & Cary Grant (Edw. Everett Horton plays the professor & is well known to many of us due to his several summer performances here at the old C.M. Playhouse!)... Wed (16) don't forget the "Annual Kiwanis Roast Beef Dinner + Auction" at their Clubhouse on Beach Ave!! - Followed on Fri (18th) nite by the Annual Rotary Ball at Convention Hall - Both "musts" for both winter & summer folk, & in a good cause!!! And be sure & have your grand-kids available for Sun 20th for Capt. Kidd's Annual Treasure Hunt with fabulous buried treasure - no "bid-din"!!!... Winners of the recent "Dancathon for Charity" at Com. Hall were Delora Sastino & Robert Martin of Claremont who lasted the full 24 hours - By doing this they raised $268 for the charity plus a $25 bond for each of them plus the fancy trophy with dancing couple on top, of course!!! 2nd place was Sharon Turbevill of Ocean View & Tim O'Neill of C.M. who raised $221 in pledged & lasted the full 24 hrs. (They also got a trophy)!!! 3rd place went to Betty Riddle who finished alone, as her boyfriend gave up!! & "tiring" I guess was another girl who went out & raised $25 in donations on the street, came back in time to get her trophy & dashed off before anyone could get her name - Well! Marathons do tire one!!!... The postponed Tennis Luncheon was held Sun (16th) in Parish Hall of Ch. of Advent Over 100 attended even tho only notified by phone that morning - Thanks to "Phone Committee"!! Surprise was Betty & Bob London, the fastest gun in the West that ever lived & now at Fun Pier in W.wood - He held all 18 speed records available since 1960 & holds 18 World Records & is in "Business Book of World Records"!! Whatta show for the "Tennis Fans"!!!

As you know, because of our limited space we only print winners of C.M. residence (incl. summer vacationers) so apologies to those fine out-of-town prize winners of last weeks CM Baby Parade: Fancy Dress Div. - moone from C.M.; Comic 1st place Jenny Patrick, Peter, & Shannon Mc Donough + Christon Schwimer, & 2nd place Jenny Loper, Cheryl Grau, Shannon Coffey, & Heather Anderson - all of Cape May!! In Decorated Baby Carriages, Raymond Hober of W.C.M. came in 3rd, and in the Novelty Div. Pierina Muscatello of C.M. tied for 3rd place!!... The Judges were Bud Cohen, + Mrs. Claudia Pagano of C.M. + Mrs. Charlotte Daily of W.C.M. - We don't envy them their impossible job of choosing between everyone's most beautiful offspring!!... The parade was great, complete with Viet. Trolley loaded with vintage dressed dames + ending with a 44 pipe circus organ, "calliope" to us!!!... Was amused at remark "The rain held off for our parade, but guess the Lord didn't O.K. Me Dutyr's a few weeks ago!!... The latest on "that affair": City Foreclosing on "Dutyr's" head lined the Star + Wave. The City seeks to recoup over $491,000 in back taxes + interest on "The Windsor", "Morning Star + Evening Star Villas", 2 vacant lots, + the Shelton College property (The College for $365,000 + $56,000 for the Windsor). "The Admiral" back taxes Court Decision is a separate issue which will probably be appealed. - so much for that!!... More about the "Wm. J. Moore Tennis Club": At Monday's City Council Meeting, Club Proxy Jack Kramer presented Club atty. Fred Schmidt's letter answering most of Mr. Golden's financial questions + the Council gave tentative approval to extend the Club's lease of City Owned Courts 10 yrs with an option for addit. 10 yrs (Feb 2002)

Mrs. Olla Truckess called to tell us of her Women's Community Club's Beach Festival & Mini-Fair at the Community Center Wed Aug 16 from noon to 9 - It will have a bit of everything a fair should have plus live music by the Swingin' Old Timers, the popular group doin' the rounds these days!! It's all for the benefit of the W.C. Club's Civic & Educational Projects - Being history buffs they're interested in the Civic Center - Last yr. they bought a new "frig" & this yr. they had

To do the pitch over (Of interest to me as my father's wedding reception to the 2nd Mrs B. Sr. was the 1st party held in that building after the Civic Center took it over from the Church of the Advent in '56)!!!... To continue our long delayed review of Liberty Mall shops - starting at the left side of the far rear is the T-shirt Corner with Alan Fischer of Unionville Pa. doing all sorts of prints (as shown on the wall) on your T - He also peddles wooden clogs & jockey type hats - his 1st yr. in C.M. & loves it!!!... Next is Plants n' Things run by Tony & Pat Di Giacomo of Williamstown, N.J. - They're both school teachers in winter & Tony has been bartending at Lids for 13 yrs - It's their 1st venture in business in C.M. .... Next door you'll recognize Dick Emerson a waiter at the Lobster House for 22 yrs. Quite a magician himself, he calls his stand "Fricky Dick's" & features novelties, magic & marvelous masks, of course!!!... Mrs. Jean Scott who was on Perry St. has moved her Rock shop over here & of course her main rocks are large C.M. diamonds (like we wear!!!) the very decorative entrance shop "Society Hill Stained Glass" sells the obvious & is run by John Kehalos who runs the whole Liberty Village Mall besides!!!... On the other side of the aisle is "The Last Resort" with attractive wares of Roman Meducci of West C.M.!!!... "Nautical Treasures" is just what is sounds like from shells & hat-rooms in nautical items & ships. It's owned by the local M.T.M. Inc. corporation!!!
