As someone recently told us, "Thanks to everyone's prayers, we suffered a beautiful summer weekend for the Art Show last weekend!!!... However we must again do our best for the weather as M.A.C. has planned a Victorian Lawn Party at the historic Physick Estate on Sat the 18th from 4 to 8 rain or shine!... Starting at 4 P.M. refreshing alcoholic beverages will be available with tables for the ladies. A sensational antique quilt show (a magnificent collection of centennial work) will be shown, along with original innovative paintings by Cape May artist Joanne Echevarria Myers. Their floater also says there will be "matchless professional interludes unequalled in wonderful performance!!!... You also can watch or participate in the Grandest Lawn Croquet on 3 separate + distinctive courts!... Starting at 5 there will be "The most marvelous Chicken Bar-B-Q" - How Victorian can you be? - so get out and wear your big picture hats, skimmers, panamas, white flannels, etc + enjoy!... You can't afford to miss it - Yes, there is a nominal admission fee, + all for the benefit of the "Stupendous Centennial Fund" ... To add to the Victorian atmosphere this is also the weekend of the Annual Antique Auto Show + Parade in Cape May!!!

Yes, the Antique Autos will be on display as usual on the Mall Saturday morning followed by their parade thru + about town!!! At 8 PM the Onized Band of Bridgeton will concert at the Victorian Bandstand!... Out at the Corinthian Y. C. there will be a Saturday night Monte Carlo family night with blackjack, craps, horseracing, bingo, + the wheel of fortune!... Of course, the money bet is "play money" as usual, but at the end, the enthusiastic juniors will auction off the prizes to the highest bidder at this Corinthian Casino. The fun really start when friends begin fooling their cash + outbidding each other - Were told there are some really worthwhile prizes!!!! Above we mentioned the Victorian Centennial - Centennial of what? - The building of the Physical House, naturally!!! As for Sunday the 19th, Vespers at 7 at Convention Hall will be conducted by the Rev. Miss Lash Shaw of Cape May's "First United Presbyterian Church" And at 9 the popular "Alisa and Friends" have returned for your enjoyment!!! Tues the 21st at the M. A. C. Movies at 8:30 at Victorian Towers will be "You Were Never Lovelier" with Fred Astaire, Rita Hayworth + Adolph Menjou (My mother remember ed him when he was the young son of Cleveland's "Beer Parlor"!!!)

Cape May)"; 1st Award (Marine) - Larry Saine's "Rocks + Surf" (of Villa); Watercolor Floral - 1st Award Mary Whyte's "Rabbits" (of Horsham)!!!! Amateur Oil/Acrylic Marine 1st Award Cash - Cape May's Rick Martin's "Anchored Up"; Portrait - Cape May's Mary C. Curtis "Running Cloud"; Watercolor Landscape 1st Award - Wildwood's Angelo Navarro's "The Barn"; Marine 1st Award - Edwin Hewitt's "Big Wave" (of Wildwood); Floral 1st Award - Millville's Gladys Day's "Flowers"; Photography 1st Award - West Cape May's Dianne Kwasniewski's "Cordially"; Youth 1st Award - Wildwood Crest's Traci Goulds "Urban Order!!!!" It is interesting to note that every one of the above winners were 1st in their category!! - Congratulations! - We're proud to have so many winners among us! Many of the contestants came from as far away as Boston, or Staunton, Va!!!! Next weekend the 24th + 25th (Fri + Sat) the 6th Annual Decoy + Woodcarving Show will be held in Convention Hall!!!! Another recent big celebration was the Tenth Anniversary of Cape May's Washington St. Mall - Doesn't seem that long ago, or does it?... Remember all the pros + cons arguments, + the contagious enthusiasm of the Fenssenbaum's, jeweler M.C. Stern + Jolan's Sylvia Lewis who wanted to bring Palm Beach's Worth Ave to Cape May!!!! Now ferry Rosemary Stumpf of the Mall's Merchants Assoc. is carrying on the tradition with all sorts of improvements: - Now Harry Pozout, pres. of the C.M. Chamber of Commerce is "gung ho" about a "Cape May Tulip Festival" since C.M.'s discover. Capt. Mey was from the Netherlands, as is Carin Friederiman of "Capt. Meyer's Sweet House" - What's more appropriate!!

To go on about "C.M.'s Tulip Festival" - Sozour envisions it ad to begin Sept 25th - thousands of tulip bulbs are planted (perhaps as many as 6,500) on municipal, commercial + private property here + late in April they bloom + transform Cape May, tulip capital of N.J. into the virtual garden spot of the Garden State... Of course it'll take cash - yours! The City started by putting $500 in the pot to give two-lips the kiss that leads to the greening of C.M.!! Come on now lets "give for tulips" if you love C.M.!!!... And now were told of C.M.'s 5th "Peach Festival + Mini Bazaar" - This ones put on at the Welcome Center on Lafayette St on Aug 11th (Tues) from 10 to 4 by the Women's Community Club of Cape May. It'll be a real peachy time with much peach shortcake, peach sundaes, etc!!!... Goin on about town: Who's the guy who walks his pet mongoose on a leash on Beach Ave - Sometimes he just drapes it over his shoulders - No we haven't had one to many!!!... Who sent Harold Wiegand a bouquet of silver helium balloons at his Washington Sun birthday celebration when everyone went hilarious by inhaling a whiff of helium + talking like a "high" Donald Duck???... Have you tried the new "super buffet" at the Golden Eagle? plus the Winged Victory Singers in concert!!!... And speaking of buffets the Beach Club Party was catered by George Charans of the "Diamond Cluster Rest." at 2nd + Sanson. He was formerly of "Taniers" de Bec Fin. "The Garden" - no wonder it was tops!!!... About the Tenn State Sub Shop II - Richard Nelson + Scott Luchesi have been "best friends" since 6th grade at State College (Pa) High School! - Scott started "Sub #1" in Penn State + is staying there with his "Now due" wife Susan running #1 while Richard (of a Va. Restaurant + single) runs this one - And the Subs are great!!!... The greatest fun entertainer in town is pianist, composer, singer Dr Jazz at the Montreal - Don't miss him!!!
