The first thing any of us want to know when we hit town is "What's going on in Cape May, so we'll lead off with a brief rundown of city + club events for the weekend. — For more complete City details, refer to our City of Cape May ad on page
... Our schedule starts off Fri July 3 at the Corinthian Yacht Club with a 6 PM Yankee Doodle Dinner followed by a performance of Philia's Savoy Opera Co!! ... Sat, July 4th for some of us starts early at 7AM with the beginning of the 3rd Annual Kiwanis Pancake Day at Convention Hall — but don't worry it goes on til 1:00 P.M. if there are any left. It's always popular, everybody goes + the pancakes are good + its all for "sweet charity"!! ...
At 6:30 P.M. (til 8:30 P.M.) the Cottagers Assoc of C.M. will hold their Annual Cocktail Party at the Beach Club (As you know they always have an "open bar"). Guest Subscription $4.00! This party is a must for most people if only to see who's in town!! ... Meanwhile at 8 P.M. the U.S. Coast Guard Training Center Band will concert at the Victorian Bandstand!! ... And at 9 o'clock the C.M. City Fireworks Extravaganza will "shoot off" from Congress Hall beach!!
... Also on this night the Beach Patrol is having an invitation alumni reunion!! ... The Corinthian will have an ever popular "Dollar Nite" on the 4th Another Chalfonte Celebration is their own "Victorian Weekend July 10-12! On Fri (10th): An afternoon trip to the Hedge Gardens: a cocktail reception on the lawn, seafood dinner + informal remarks by former L.M. mayor Bruce Minnix: Victorian Desserts + Open House at the Abbey + the Queen Victoria Inn, 2 restored cottages!!!!... Now to tell you about C.M. new shops, etc.. Biggest surprises for the opening of our summer season are 2 new restaurants!... #1 is the Peter Shields Inn at 1301 Beach Ave built in the early 1900's + where we were guests of the Shields grandson when we were very young. - Later it became the Bridge Club, the Corinthian Yacht Club, the Funna Club, + finally Rev. Carl Mc Intyre bought it as Hqs for his Shelton College!!!!... Two local Cape May boys Bill Mistry + Allen Taylor (+ their wives bought it + have done a wonderful job of restoring it to its original grandeur. Besides them, you will recognize a number of the help from various popular spots about town. They obtained their liquor license by "transfer" from George James "George" Dragon Signor Store down by the Acme - George, of course closed his L + D!!!!... They've placed the bar in the room to the left as you enter, + they're using the porch as a dining area!... The basement has been entirely closed off with the space now used for rest rooms, etc!! Remember how it flooded at high tide?

The other "new" restaurant is a whole village - Cold Spring Village is located on Old Shore Rd just across the road + a bit north of Cold Spring's famous "Old Brick Church." The village is a series of real old buildings of the 17 + 18 hundreds + turned into old craft shops, somewhat like Smithville. They have been moved here + are grouped about the original Cold Spring Orange Hall which opened in 1897 during the Killeys' presidency. This is the Restaurant + chef Marty Adams serves authentic colonial recipes cafeteria or buffet style so you can sample everything - It's delicious! All the craftsmen, waitresses, etc are all costumed as of the period.

The whole concept was dreamed up by a Wildwood born orthopedic surgeon Dr Joseph Salvatore now practicing in Englewood.

He + his wife Anne + children Rickie + Stacie divide their time between their home in Alpine (N. Jersey) + the George Hildreth House adjoining the village + part of the 35 acre property.

Ron Nardi + his wife are general managers.

We're glad "Washington Inn" finally got their liquor license. Owners Rona + Toby have made a real gem of a place. The bar is to the left of the entrance + Toby made it out of an old german armoire his grand father brought over in 1933. - He calls the room Craig's Market because of a brass wall plaque his great grand father brought from Newport, Del. !!!... The old Stockton Inn, now known as the Cape Island Hotel (on Beach Ave off Convention Hall) has converted the ground level basement into a seven store Mall, + as a matter of fact props. Bob + John Peterson have named it just that the Cape Island Mall! Memorial Day most of the shops were occupied + they were planning to rent tables in the center section to exhibit various arts + crafts. Notes Scotty the CM diamond man, + that marvelous home made stuffed animal lady Lisa von Schlichten are among the shops. !!!... "E-Z Market" has been bought by Dale + Pat Hardin of Bessalem, Pa + now call it Dale's Market + Tackle Shop (Its at Lafayette + Madison. Next door the Phil Stetsons house had burned down, so craftsman Dale (who owns that property too) used the decent lumber windows + fixed his store all up into a very cheerful deli - restaurant in the front. !!!... Due to illness all Marian Dietrich's listings are being handled by Toby RE on Victorian Plaza !!!... Texas Mkt now has a new Produce Stand !!!... Cape May bars are now open til 3am

At 15 Bridge St, an attractive family fresh from St Croix, Vt., have a fun spot "Great Granny Annie's Picture Fashin' Parlor n' Homefun collectables!"... Its run by Ann Seymour + her daughter-in-law Heidi. They have all sorts of vintage costumes to pose in + the result is an old time sepia tone print of you in all your Victorian elegance!!!

...Up the Bridge St at #36 is former Cape Mayite Roeland van Dommelen + his "Clocks + Ceiling Fans" shop just across the R.R. tracks. His shops in C.M. just had fabulous old clocks, but now he's added all the best brands of ceiling fans. He lives near Princeton but his Springer spaniel show dog accompanies him to work!!!... Next door, at #40, Barbara Buchan of Annapolis + N.J. + Ed Calaban of Chile have a cluttered interesting shop "So Rare" filled with collectible oddities. They both did "the show" featuring glass + finally just merged into "So Rare"!!! "Lowpath Restaurant" is open at last featuring "Mother Light" and is better than ever, plus 3 interesting shops by the entrance on Mechanic St!!!... Chadwyck Inn formerly called Allison's horses excellent drag shows on weekends!!!... The Barton now serves meals at reasonable prices!!!... Franklin Ray Ellis' new gown shop is at 30 N. Main!!!... Croysers have a "n. h. picture key"
