London Bridge isn't falling down any more but Congress Hall is! - Yes Cape May's famed major historic landmark, host to U.S. Presidents, etc. chose Sunday, the 13th at 11:30 P.M. to partially collapse - No, not the whole bldg., but 2 heavy main structural beams collapsed in the lobby over the "Cashier's desk".

City Constr. offic. Arthur Doran says, "The (1st) beam sits on a brick column + apparently the brick gave way", even causing cracks in the walls on the 3rd + 4th floors + everything gave way, so some of the doors are jammed shut!!!! The McIntyre was out of the country the building was closed 'til a proper survey can be made to determine the root cause! - Even part of the porch ceiling outside fell down. Fortunately it happened after most of the guests had returned from services + noone was hurt!!!!. Guests Frank Krafick + Michael Szepulski of Vandergrift, Pa. were on the stairway at the time + saw it all happen - a lot of noise + a lot of dust!!!!. Guests were evacuated right away by bus to the Admiral for the rest of their vacation stay. Mon. was not a "come as you are" party outside the Congress entrance - It was the evacuees (some still in night clothing) returning to retrieve their luggage, etc from their rooms!! Congrats to C.M.'s Fire + Police Depts who with no sirens or fanfare quietly went from door to door + took everyone out one at a time - Noone in C.M. would have known unless they were walking by at the time!!!!. Wonder what happened to the Phila. news media who never picked it up????... At least this puts an end to McIntyre's accusations last month that Doran + Bldg. Insp. Ronald Burgin were "harassing him" + violating his civil rights in inspections of his properties!!! The City lists 300 violations - most of them in each of Congress Hall's 100 rooms such as door locks that don't fit R.I.'s criteria at a commercial hotel, etc - Dr. M. claims a listing of roughly 600 "violations" of local + state Building Codes!!!!. Quite a bad summer for Dr. McIntyre

Souder, pres. of the Phila. Water Color Soc., Pa. portrait painter Virginia Talbot, + Sydney Coryn, N.Y. teacher, artist + illustrator - all 3 were judges last yr.!!! ... At the Art League's Gallery on the Physic Estate, Marian Simpson is holding a "One Woman Show" thru Sept 9 - she teaches 3 day workshops - in N.Y. in Ocean City + at C.M.'s Art League!!! - Her work is different because of her salt technique in her water colors!!! ...
