

Kellett School

Primary Six

1986 — 1987

Limited Edition

Donated by

K.L. Miller

to Kellett School

November 2004

Kellett School June 1987

Presented to

The Huan

榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮

和 平

快 樂

和 平

快 樂

繁 榮

和 平

Autographs

和 平

快 樂

和 平

快 樂

繁 榮

和 平

榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮 平 樂 榮

All About Me

My name is .....

I am ..... years old. My birthday is on

.....
My hair is ..... and I have ..... eyes.

My teacher's name is .....

My friend's are .....

You will find another picture of me or a piece of my work on page .....

Contents

	Page
From the Principal .....	3
Our Teachers .....	4
Others Who Help Us .....	5
Year At A Glance .....	6
Wednesday Is Assembly Day .....	8
Excursions .....	10
Camps .....	11
S. A. N. T. A. Fundraiser .....	12
Christmas Concerts .....	13
Lunchtime Clubs .....	19
Saturday Sports .....	20
Family Sports Day .....	21
Night Market .....	22
Art – Mrs. Lamont .....	23
Cub Scouts .....	27
Computers – Mr. Miller .....	28
French – Mrs. Mason-Parker .....	30
Physical Education – Mrs. Probert .....	32
Music – Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Galton .....	36
Class 1 – Mrs. Tully .....	40
Class 2 – Mrs. Charlton .....	46
Class 3 – Mrs. Ramsey .....	52
Class 4 – Mrs. Tyrell .....	58
Class 5 – Mrs. Ashdown .....	63
Class 6 – Mrs. Phillipson .....	68
Class 7 – Mrs. Willers .....	73
Class 8 – Mrs. Phillips .....	78
Class 9 – Mrs. Greenaway .....	83
Class 10 – Mrs. Robinson .....	88
Class 11 – Mrs. James .....	93
Class 12 – Mrs. Wiltshire .....	98
Class 13 – Mrs. Barker .....	103
Class 14 – Miss Waugh .....	108
Class 15 – Mrs. Viney .....	113
Class 16 – Mrs. Davies .....	118
Class 17 – Mr. Miller .....	123
Class 18 – Mr. Marshall .....	129
Swizzle Street Starring Primary Six .....	135
Solutions .....	136

One of the important aspects of my role is to show prospective parents round the school, explain our philosophy, and leave them with the conviction that Kellett is offering the best in education for their children. This year I have been able to offer them a copy of the magazine which I'm sure gives them a very effective insight into the school.

Teachers and children have again combined resources to produce another delightful edition and I'm sure they will enjoy looking at the many reminders of this school year recorded in photos, paintings, drawings and writing within these pages.

Today as I took visitors to the classrooms the excellent relationships between staff and children, the busy enthusiastic approach displayed by the children and the keen involvement in various areas of the curriculum were very evident.

The four year-olds, having recently been to ride on the tram, had created tram lines around the covered area and were buying tickets for the various stops, one group were recording their impressions with detailed drawings of the tram, all careful to include the overhead cables, while another group were making a model guided by discussion on the merits of the various seats.

One class of five year-olds having returned from the garden with specimen flowers, were involved in detailed drawings before going on to make a real red bottle brush tree, next to the 'fun brush' tree hanging with a paint brush, tooth brush, hair brush and so on - which had produced much lively discussion.

Some of the six year-olds were keen to show the visitors their food topic books, to explain which parts of the plant we eat when we have carrots, peas and leeks for lunch, and to recount their shopping trip to Wah Fu to buy a "balanced meal" for $10!

As we moved on to the junior department we had difficulty leaving the Primary III classroom where the children were very excited about the puppies visiting from the RSPCA; they could identify male and females now and were looking forward to the arrival of a litter of rabbits expected any day. We stopped with a class of eight year-olds who were making the 'Flower of Crystal' with jewel-like blossoms made from pentagonal, square and triangular based pyramids - "It's very easy, you divide the circle into fifths, so you have to measure these angles and then cut and fold it like this . . . ." "Yesterday we made wide-mouthed fish - this is mine - it's an acute-angled silver-lipped flapper and that one is an obtuse-angled greater spotted garoupa."

Moving on to the Primary V we met some of the visitors staying in the "newest Hong Kong hotels" created by the class; some with impressive passports recording round the world trips were studying brochures advertising the hotels' facilities before deciding where to stay - while the other class of ten year-olds were putting the final touches to their handbound 'Adventure Island' log books.

Some of the Primary VI children were giving a prepared lecture at the Hong Kong Explorers' Club meeting - explaining the finer points of exploration in the Arctic following their research, while the other group were sharing their thoughts on pollution through poetry.

As we passed the hall the choir were practising for the coming concert on conservation, "Safari Serenade" which includes poetry, prose and songs written by the children and will be backed by slides of the many beautiful paintings of animals.

What parents ask about the school can be answered by seeing the children involved in their work, by feeling some of their enthusiasm, by sharing the satisfaction they get from producing excellent work beautifully presented. This year's magazine is a good reflection of the work which has gone on during the year.

I would like to congratulate the magazine committee, the teachers and, of course, the children on yet another exciting edition of the Kellett magazine.

Vivienne Steer

Our Teachers

Mrs. V. Barker

Back row

Middle row (sitting)

Front row:

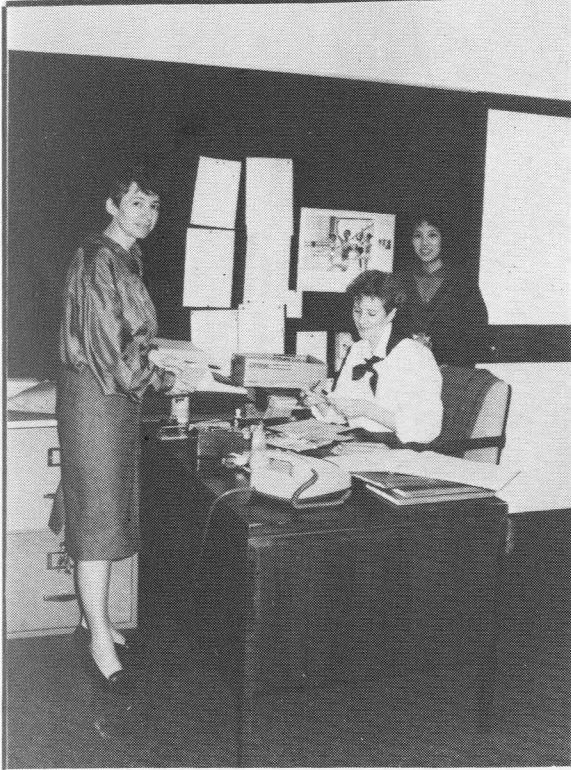

: Miss G. Voller, Mrs. R. Phillipson, Mrs. L. Ashdown, Mr. S. Marshall
 Mrs. S. Trimble, Mr. N. Miller, Mrs. B. Pritchard, Mrs. J. Wiltshire, Mrs. J. Tyrrell, Mrs. A. Willers, Mrs. L. Evans, Mrs. S. Galton, Miss D. Burns
 : Mrs. G. Tully, Mrs. G. Charlton, Mrs. E. Phillips, Mrs. P. Robinson, Mrs. M. Coultous, Mrs. C. Lamont, Mrs. J. Greenaway, Mrs. H. Probert;
 : Mrs. M. Davies, Mrs. A. Mason-Parker, Miss C. Waugh, Mrs. A. Cooke, Mrs. M. Viney, Mrs. F. Macleod, Mrs. D. Goddard, Mrs. T. James, Mrs. A. Ho, Mrs. J. Morton, Mrs. V. Steer.

Mrs. J. Ramsey

.....and Others Who Help Us

Mrs. F. Macleod, School Bursar
Mrs. J. Morton, Accountant
Mrs. A. Ho, Office Assistant

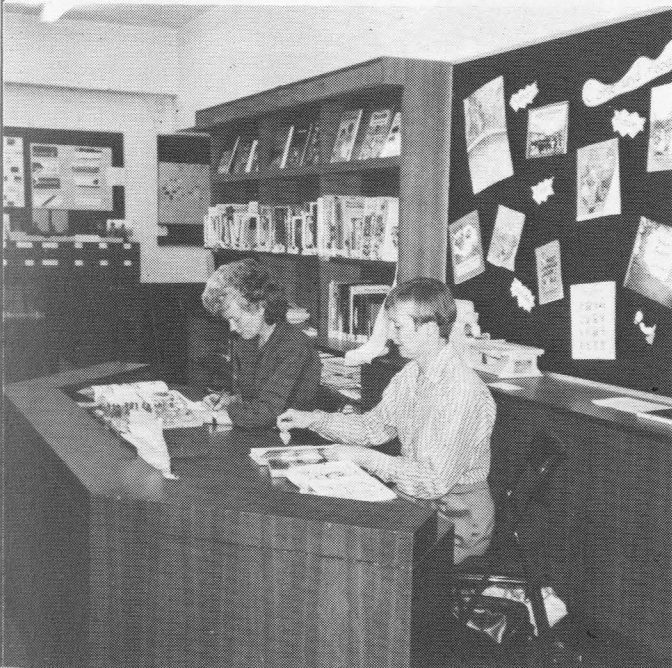

Our Bus Drivers

Mr. Chiu and Ah Shun

The Library Mothers

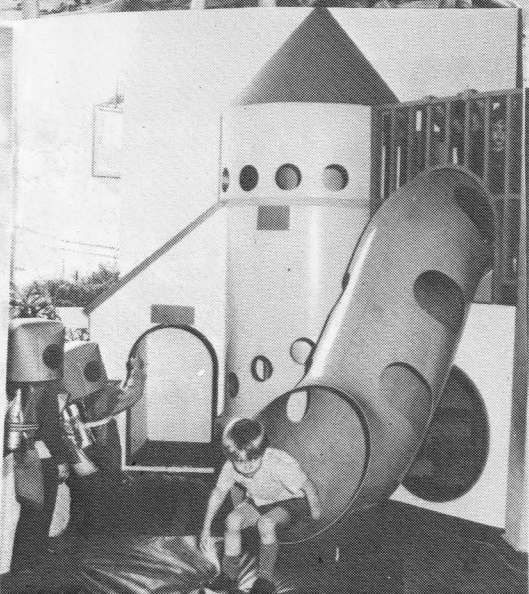

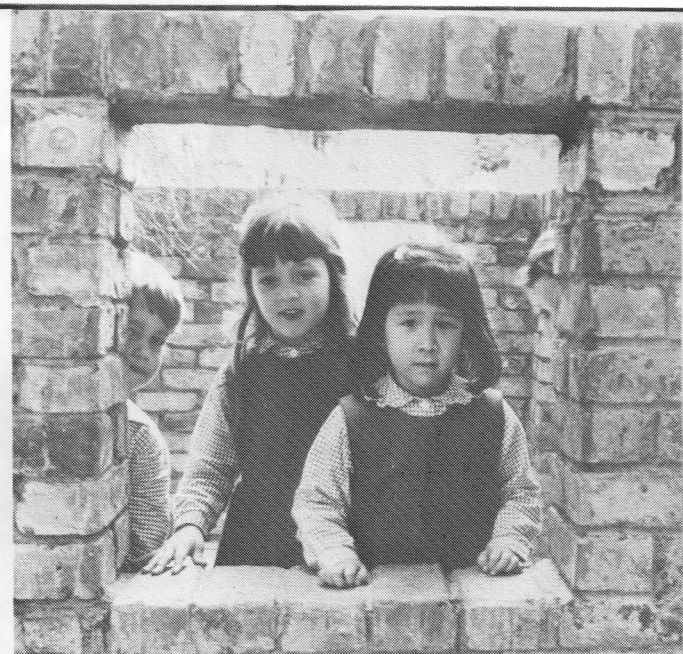

The Nurse

Year At A Glance

Wednesday Is Assembly Day

Excursions

Toasting marshmallows in Tai Tam Park.

Arrive in Better Shape !!!

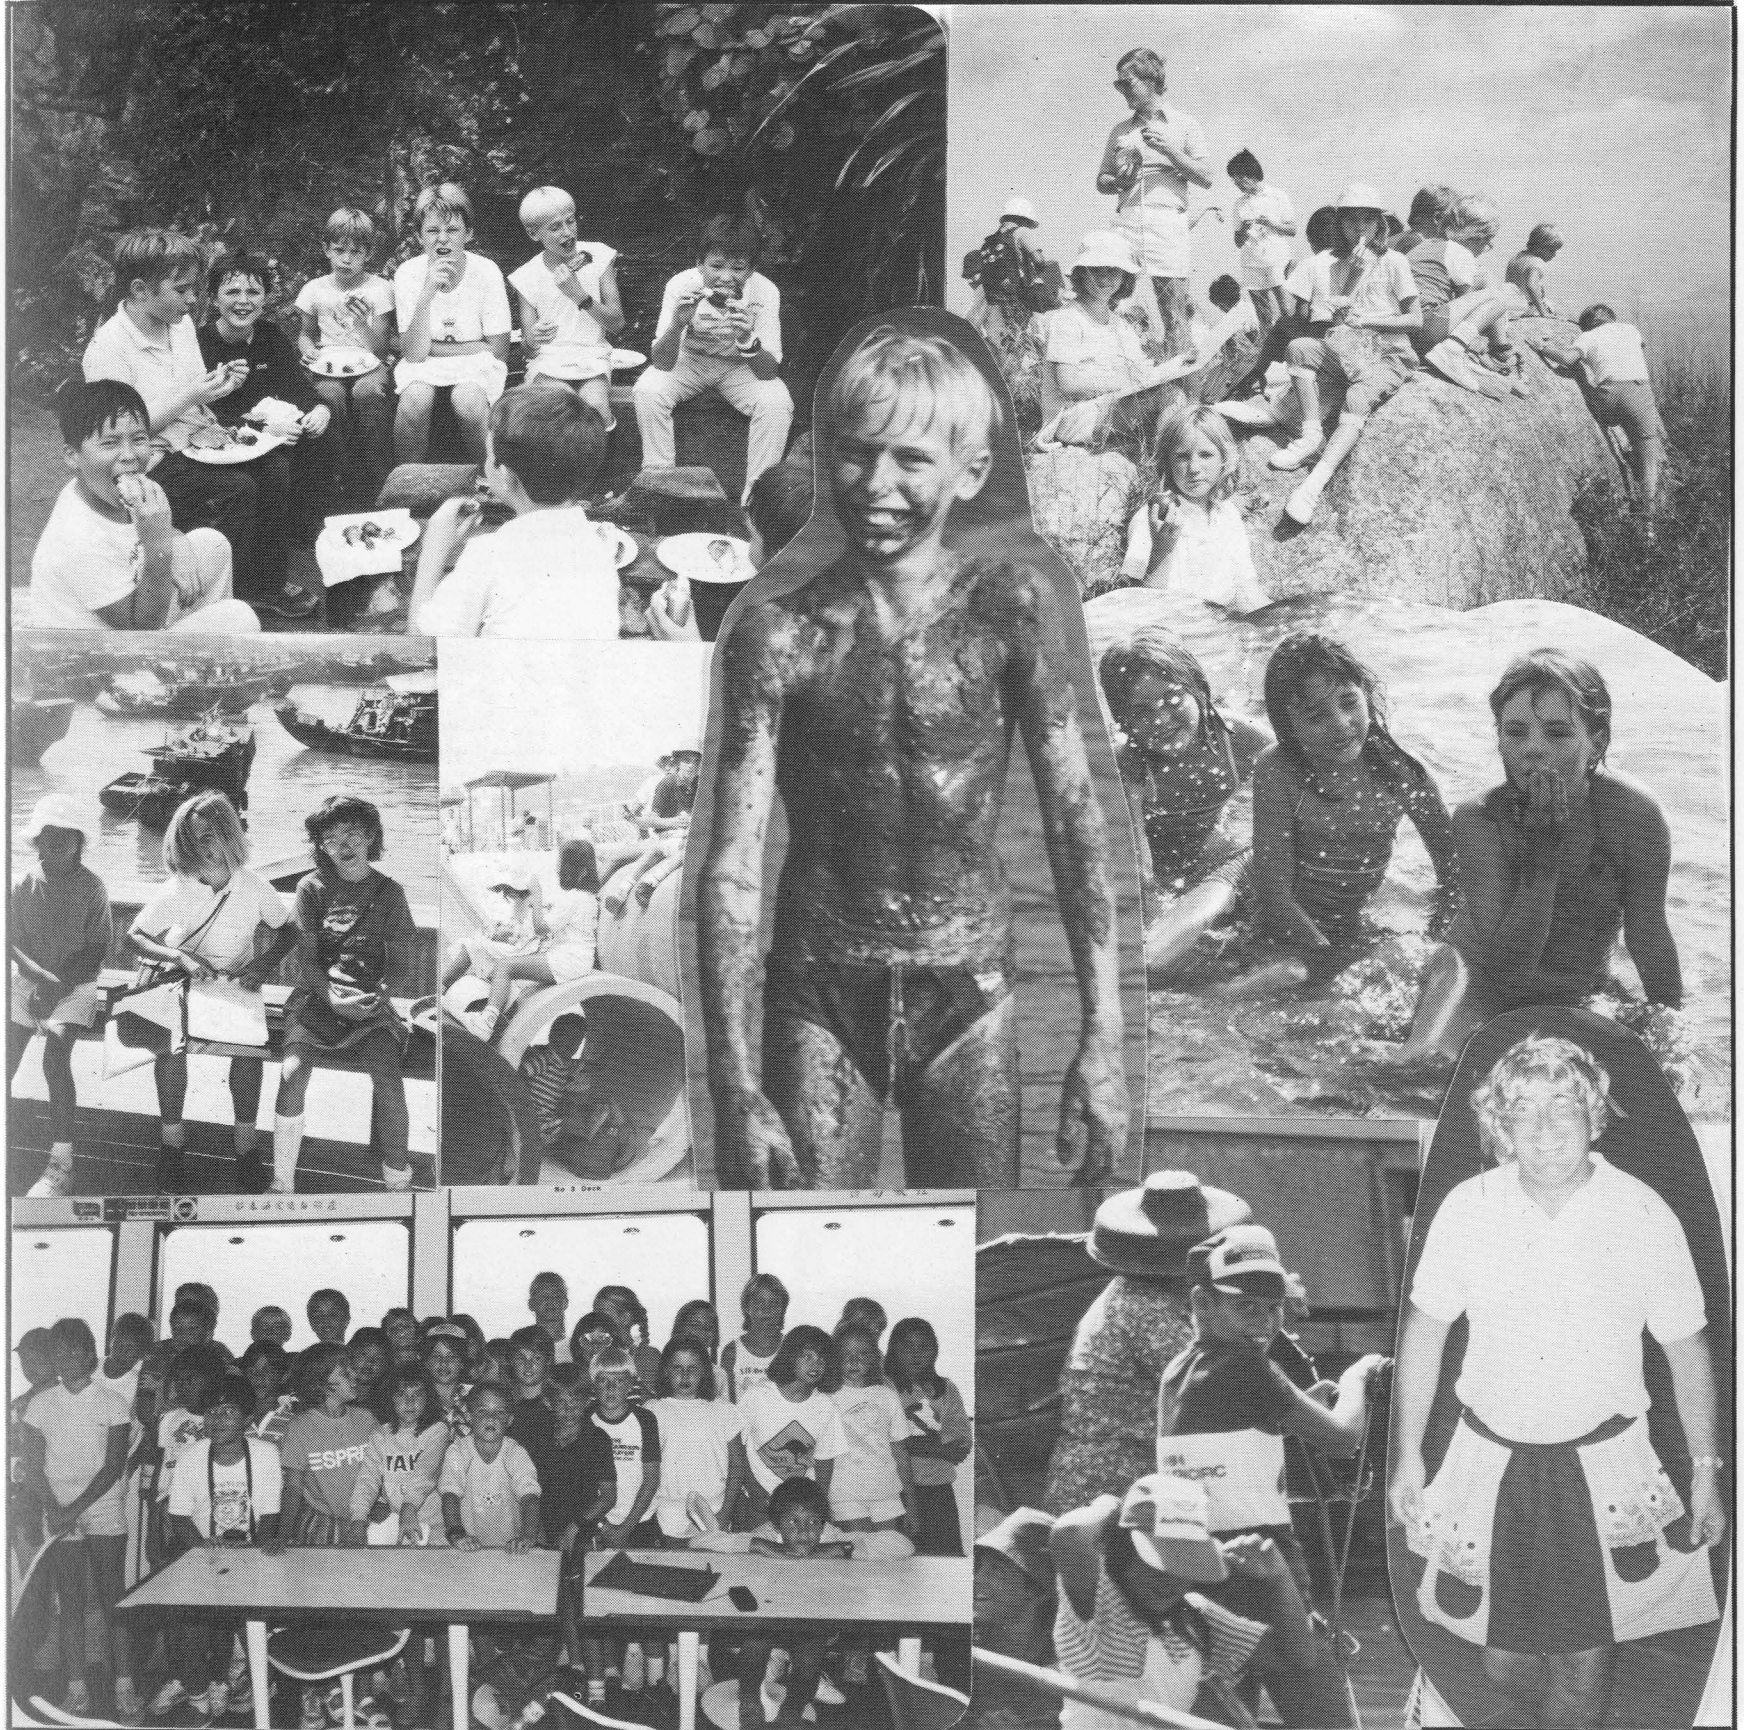

Lantern Festival

Waiting for the Peak tram shuttle bus.

S. A. N. T. A. - Our Children's Fundraiser

Reception — Fantastic Fruit and Versatile Vegie Show

Primary 1 — Rabbit Raffle

Primary II — Book Swap Sale

Primary III Christmas Card Exhibition

We raised money for SANTA by making Christmas cards. We put them all around the hall on display. You had to bring one dollar to go in, and if you did not remember to bring one dollar Mrs. Robinson would give you some. They were all good. Some of the teachers' cards were very funny. One of them said 'Have a jolly holly-day at Christmas'. We all raised a lot of money.

Dugald Pollitt

Primary IV — Cake Sale

Primary V — Pound Puppy Adoption

Primary VI's Spellathon

As you know each class was asked to think of a scheme to raise money for the SANTA appeal, the Primary Six's had a Spellathon.

Everyone nervously picked up their pencils and looked at each other - this was going to be the longest spelling test in their lives. One hundred words had been given to learn and one hundred words should be right. Mr. Miller slowly said the words, repeating them twice. Each person's hand was scribbling something. I, myself, was sweating and wondering when the test would be over. At last Mr. Miller said the last word and we looked up from our papers. We corrected them, crossed and ticked them. The four people who got all the spellings right were Clare, Howard, Morag and Ophelia, they did very well.

Nicky

Staff — Special Luncheon

SANTA

I saw quite a lot of little children but only a few big ones because they were at school. The children live in little cottages and they have people to look after them. I tried to carry a great big bag of toys off the bus but I couldn't manage it. Mrs. Trimble helped me.

Anna

Chinese New Year

Chinese New Year lasts fifteen days. January 29th is the beginning of the Year of the Rabbit.

On New Year's Eve families meet for a special meal with special food. It takes the Chinese families ten days to prepare for Chinese New Year, people clean their homes, buy new clothes, pay back debts and make up quarrels. The children receive laisee packets. This year children from our school took presents to St. Christopher's Home to help them celebrate.

Clare Smith

St. Christopher's Home

When we got to St. Christopher's Home a lady came and directed us to the baby section. Then we took the bags with the toys in and carried them to the baby section which was a house-like building. First of all we went to see children about two to three years old. They were having lunch and we gave them each a toy. They looked very happy. After that we went to see children about three to four years old. I think they were having a music lesson because they were singing, and we gave them toys and they looked happy too. Then we thought we were going back to school but instead the lady took us round to some more sections with homes for older children which was very interesting.

Helen Yates

Christmas Concerts

Lunchtime Clubs

Saturday Sports

Family Sports Day

Night Market

The Kellett News

$10

1986/87

Arbat Donates Computer

Arbat Show The Way

This year Arbat Computers donated ten thousand dollars to the school computer department. This enabled us to buy a complete computer system: disc drive, monitor, BBC computer and a printer.

As I walked into Kellett school the clicking of computer keys could be heard everywhere. The Reception classes were playing games, the Juniors were doing topic work, and the seniors were doing maths. It was fantastic!

KELLETT WHIZ KIDS!

Bonjour

Bienvenue en France

Quelle heure est-il?

WHEN DO THEY GO THERE ?

 1. M. Lambert va en ville . . . . .	 2. Suzanne et Françoise vont au collège . . . . .
 3. Anne-Marie va au lycée . . . . .	 4. Jean-Jacques va à l'école primaire . . . . . à neuf heures à huit heures à dix heures à quatre heures à cinq heures

à deux heures à trois heures à six heures à onze heures à sept heures

Je m'appelle Ghislaine

J'ai dix ans.

Je suis un garçon.

Je suis une fille

Qui est-ce?

Il habite en Allemagne.
Il a dix-huit ans.

C'est . . . . .

Il a vingt-cinq ans.
Il habite à Hollywood.

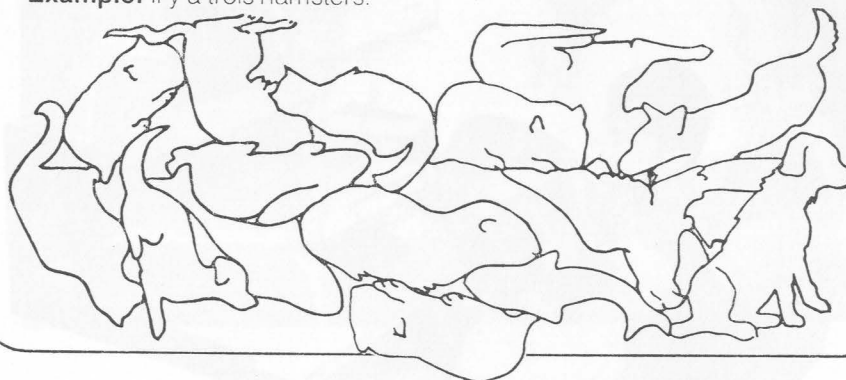

C'est . . . . .

Oh! Les beaux animaux!

Puzzling pets

Combien d'animaux y a-t-il?

Example: Il y a trois hamsters.

Name the drinks

Qu'est-ce que c'est?

Combien de choses commencent par c?
(Trouve 8 choses)

Qui dit quoi?

C'est l'anniversaire de Lola.
Écris la bonne phrase dans la bonne bulle.

Bon anniversaire, Maman.
Bon anniversaire, ma petite fille.
Bon anniversaire, Tante Lola.

Les chats du Cafe' Royal

(Answers - on back page of magazine)

Physical Education

Medals: for representing Hong Kong Junior Schools v Kowloon Junior Schools
 "Hong Kong Players" - they all played extremely well. Clare Forsyth was netball captain of the 'A' team and Peter Evans captained the 'B' soccer team.

Sprint Relay Team: came third against the other junior schools at Glenealy Sports Day

Netball: runners-up in the colony tournament.

"Let's all Sing a Happy Song"

.. and play a happy tune.

Safari

Serenade

Save the animals,

don't let them die.

Reception Class 1 - Mrs. G. Tully

Jorgen Dohlie

Back row

: Mrs. G. Tully, Meagan Lyon, Sarah Evetts, Geraldine McMahon, Sian Rees, Rupert Murphy, William Addison, Jonathan Mair,

Middle row

: Amy Smith, James Boylan, Asko Ahtiluoto, Valentina Pepe, Charles Nelson, Daniel McLeish,

Front row

: Laura Skyrme, Amy Corstin, Daniel Beard, Virginia Hargreaves, Adam Clark, Benjamin Smith, Roderick Priestley, James Royds-Jones

Mummy and Daddy

James B

Meagan

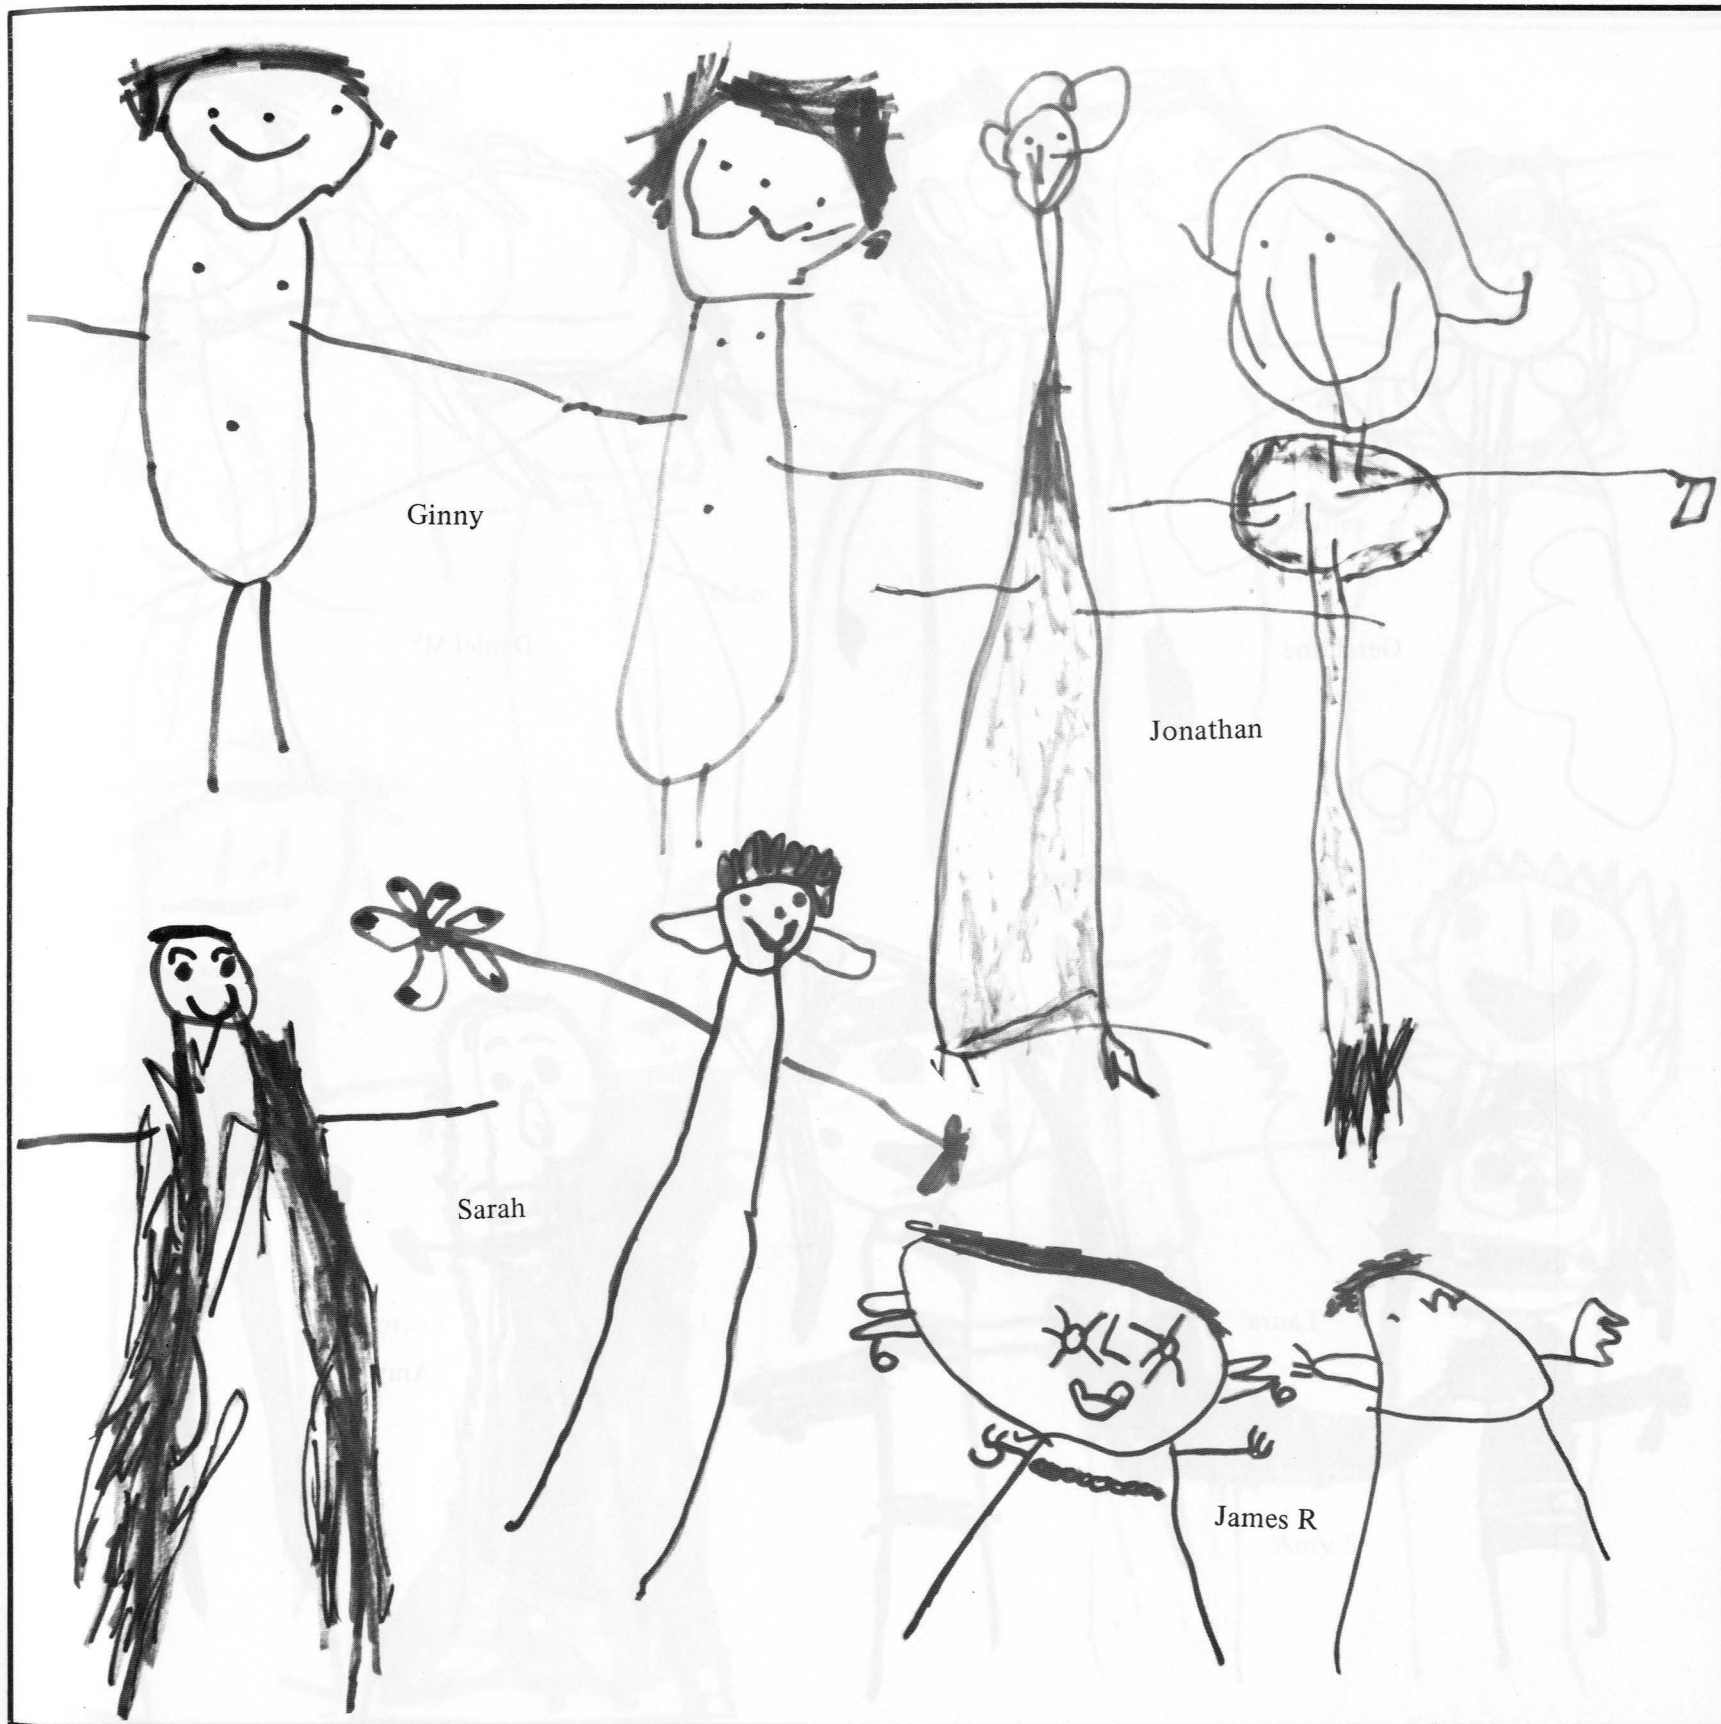

Daniel

William

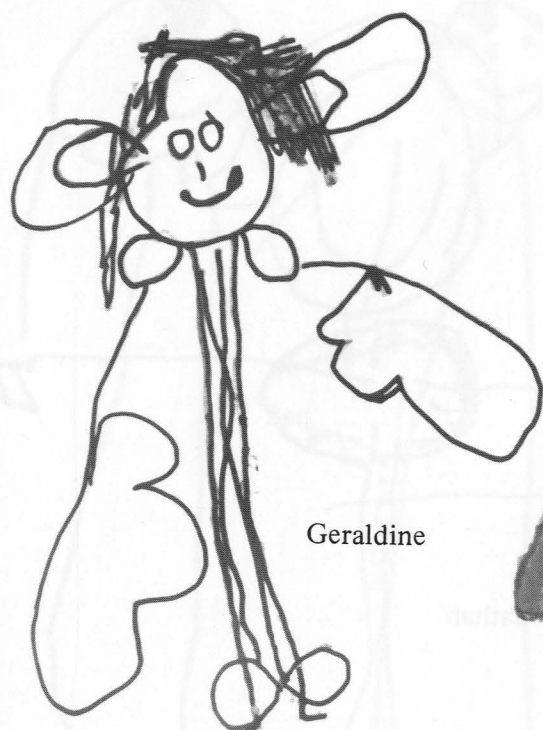

Ginny

Jonathan

Sarah

James R

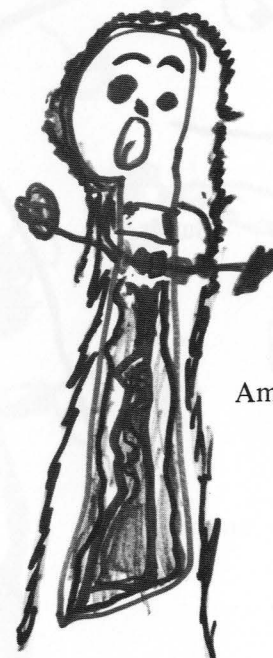

Geraldine

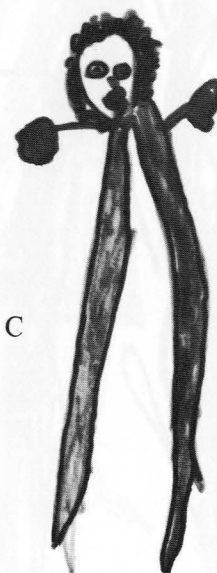

Daniel M<sup>c</sup>

Laura

Amy C

Sian

Asko

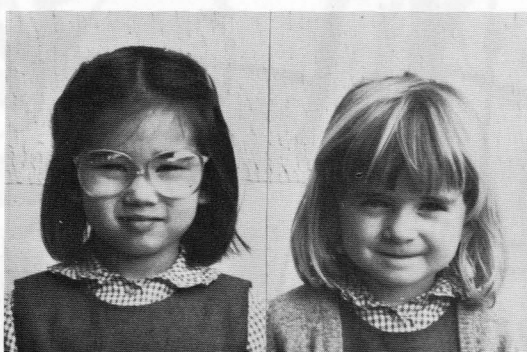

Charles

Jorgen

Amy S

Reception Class 2 - Mrs. L. Charlton

Catherine Liddiard    Charlotte Barlow

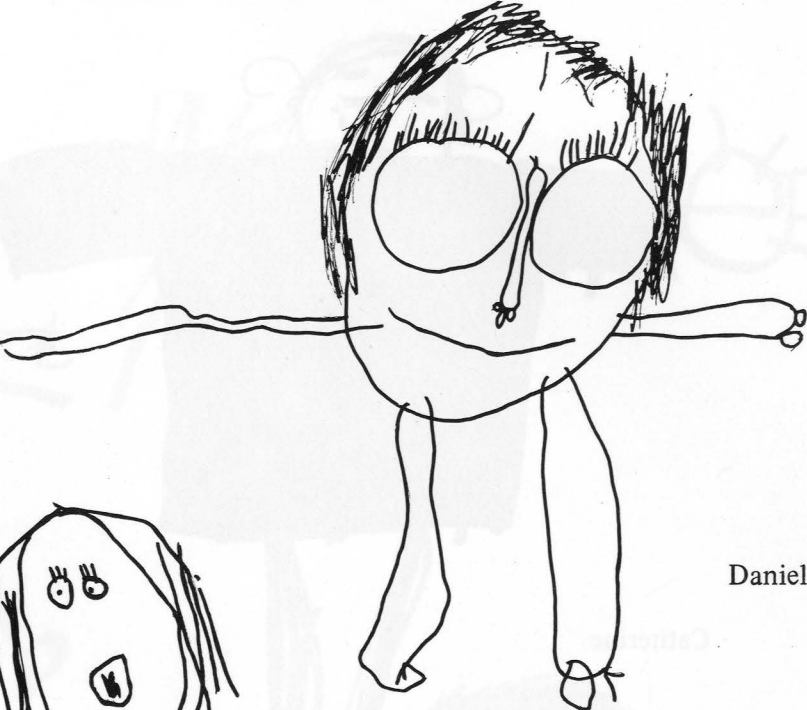

- |            |   |
|------------|---|
| Back row   | : Mrs. L. Charlton, Graeme Morrison, Thomas Fortune, Lisa Nicholson, Jenny Martinsson, Ashley Barker, Jane Hunt |
| Middle row | : Jessica Reid, James Bell, Simon Kelson, Nicholas Pearson, Michael Dinnen, Timothy Smith, Daniel Collins       |
| Front row  | : Roland Sage, Stephanie Shiu, Kellie Rees, Alexandre Seiler, Ashley Barker, Amy Boyce, James Absolom           |

My teacher

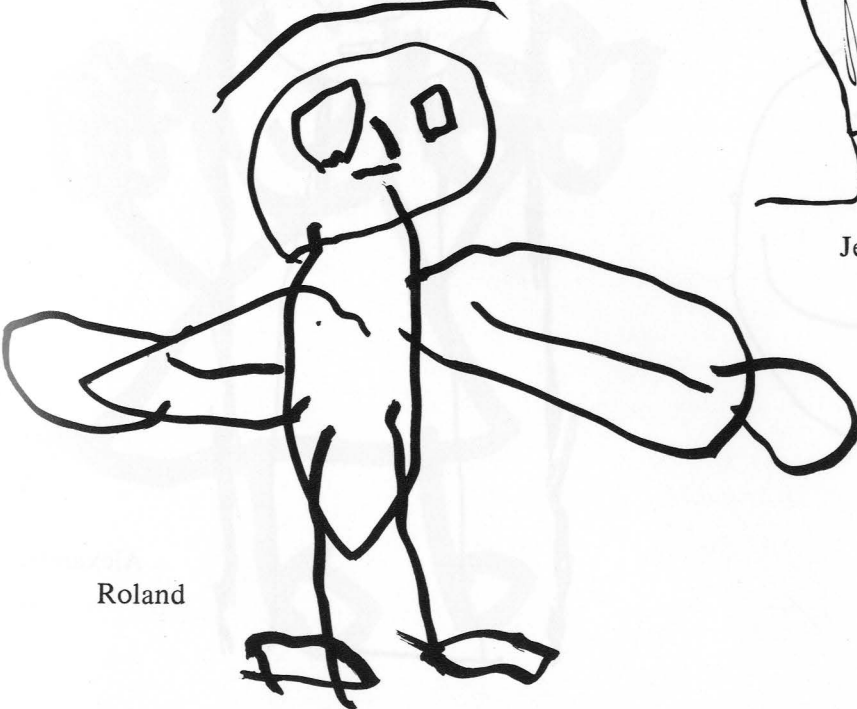

Timothy

Daniel

Jessica

Roland

Simon

Catherine

Jenny

Jane

James

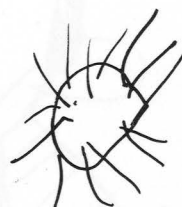

Alexandre

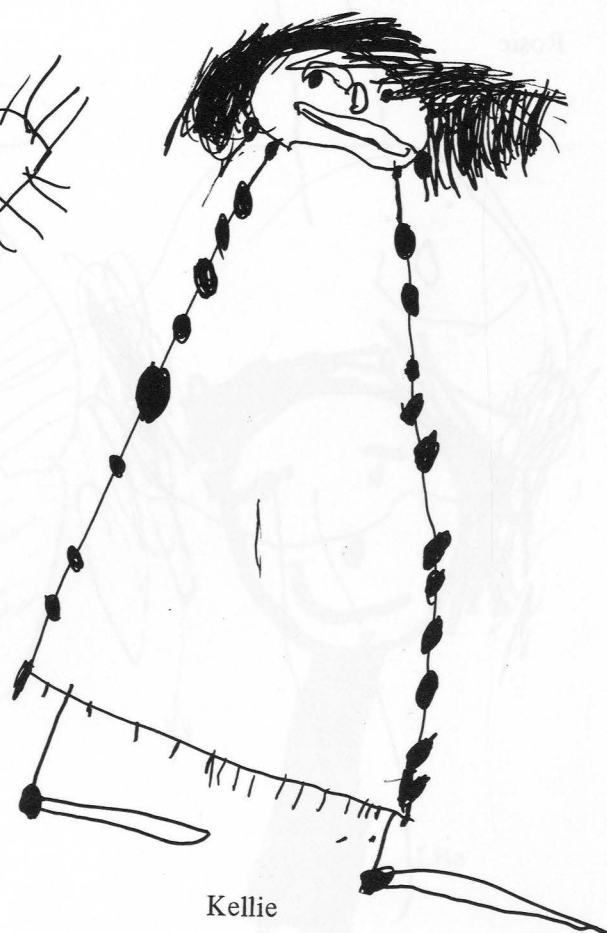

Ashley

Charlotte

Kellie

Rosie

James

Nicholas

Graeme

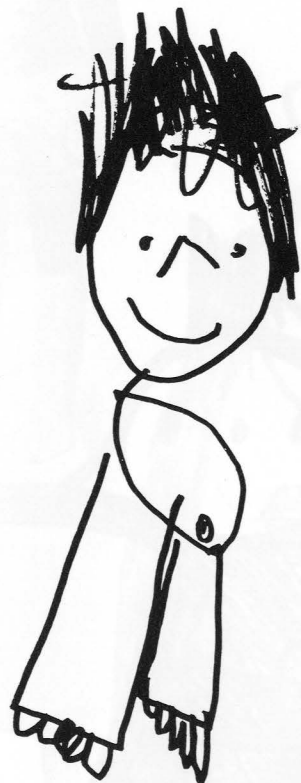

Michael

Amy

Thomas

Stephanie

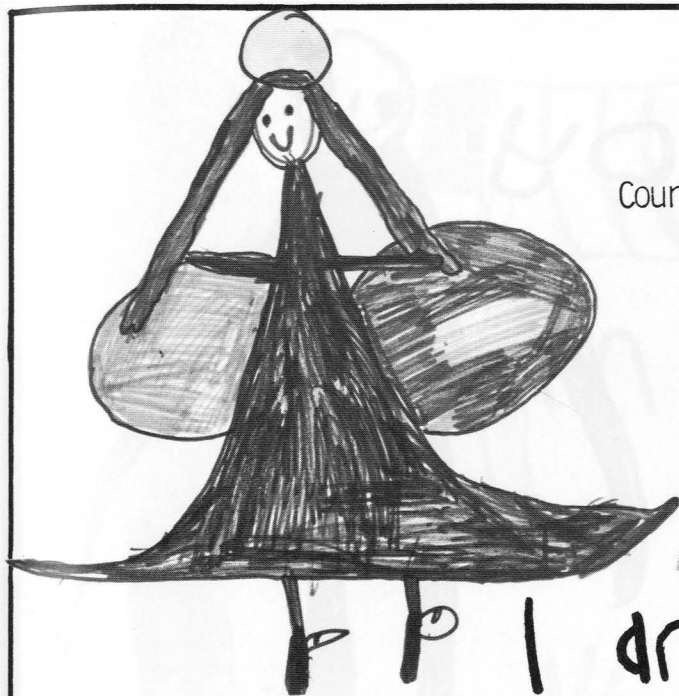

Lisa

Reception Class 3 - Mrs. J. Ramsey

Courtenay

Sarah

I am an angel.

I am a fairy.

Suzie

I am a prince.

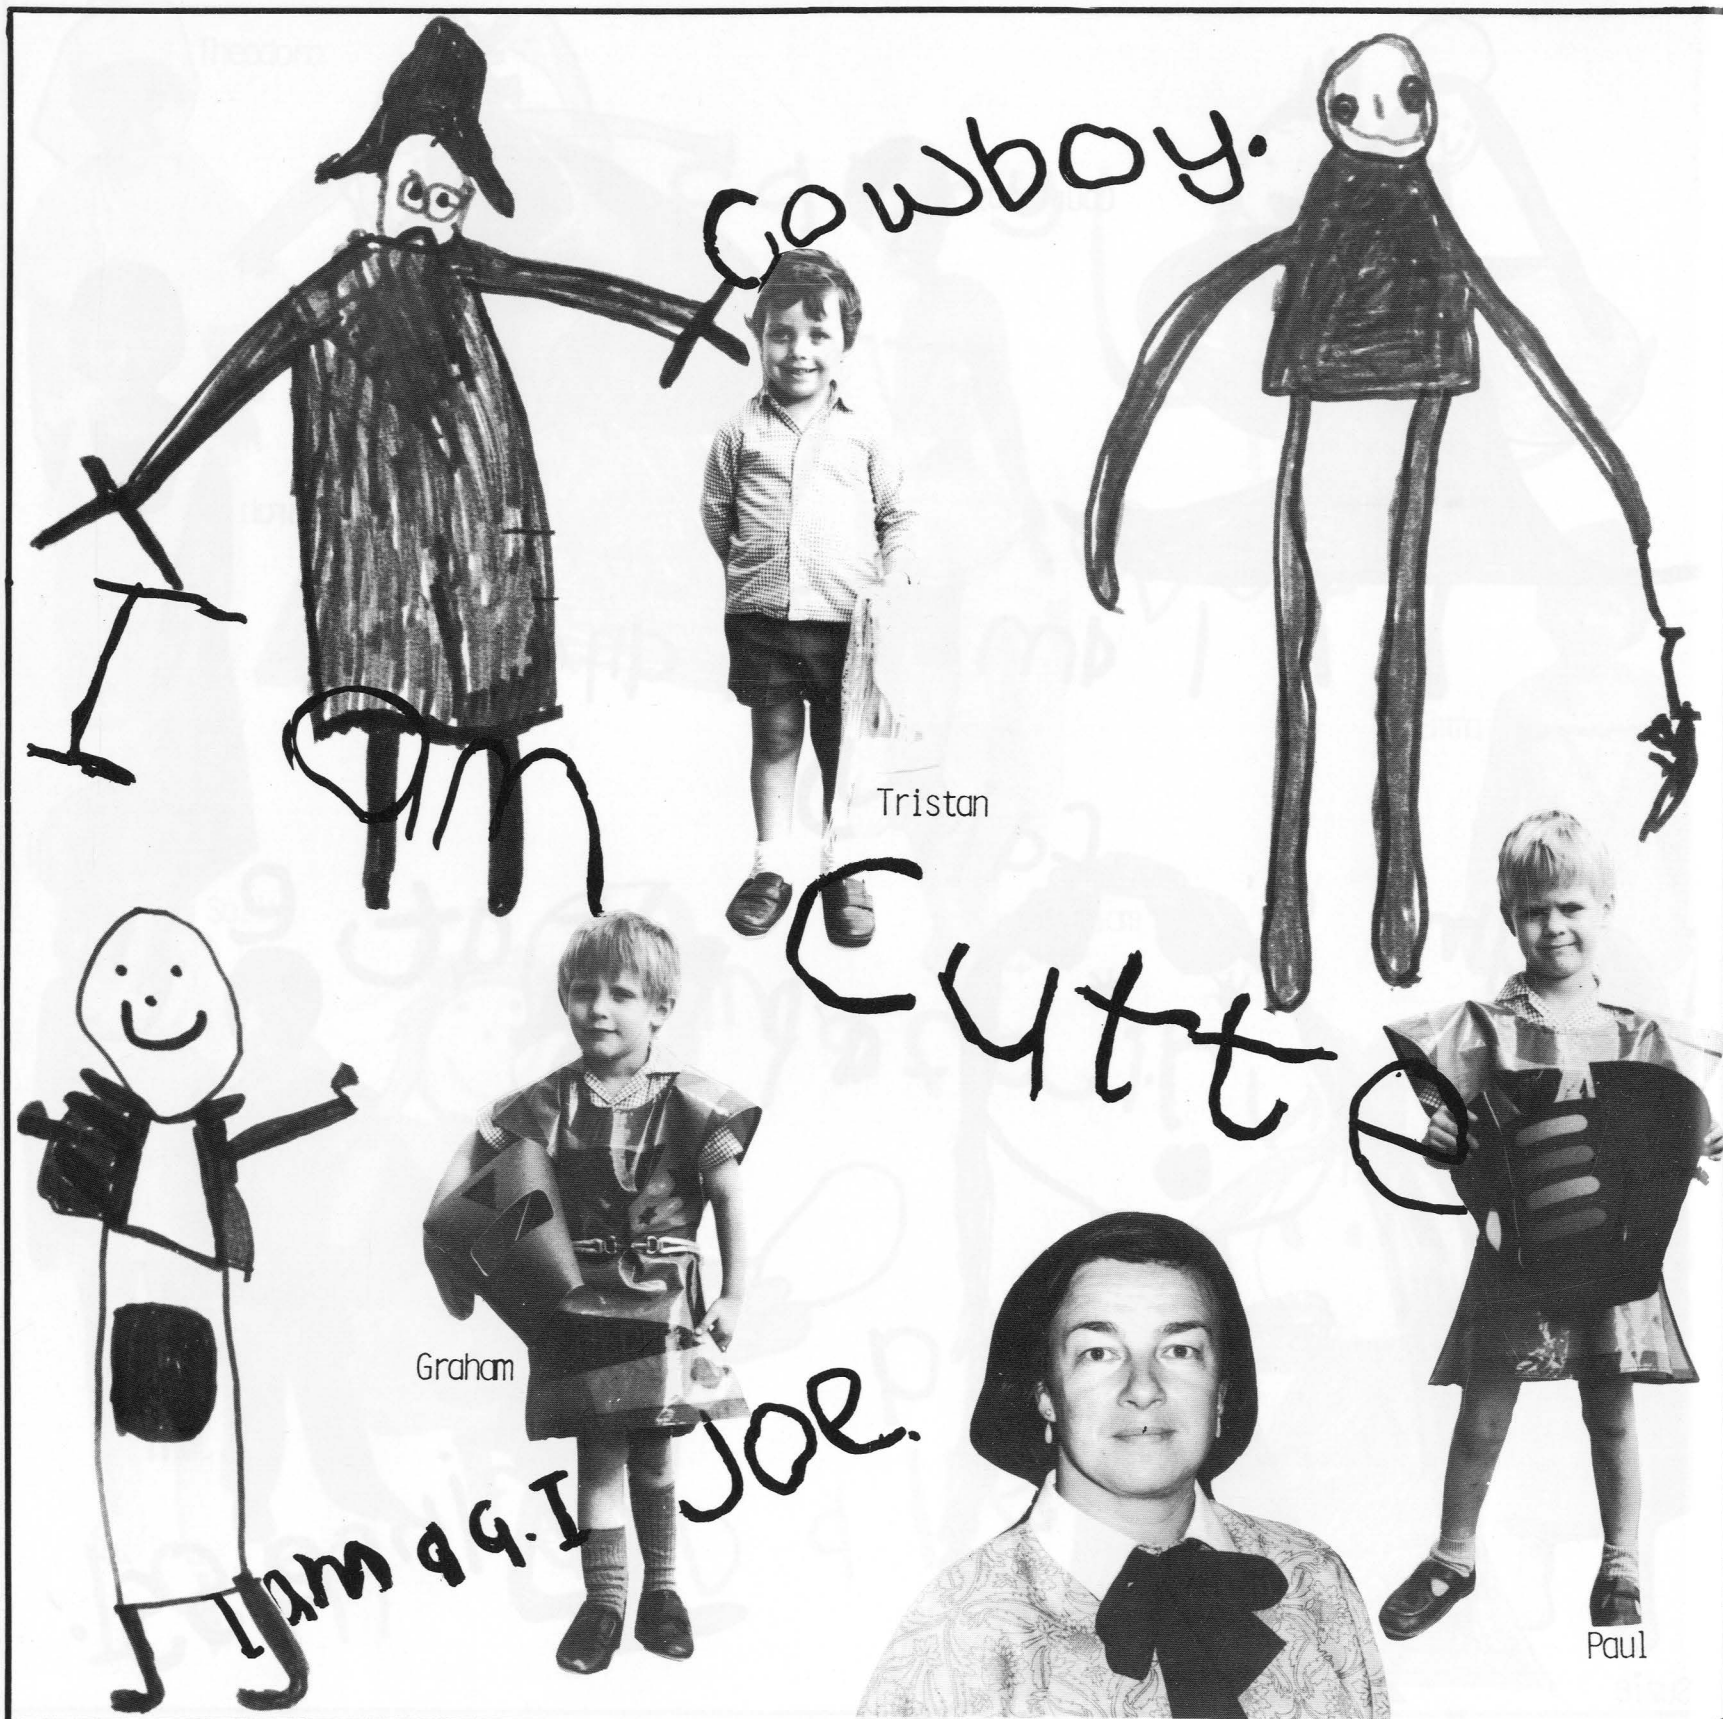

Princess.

John

Tara

I am a lion.

Keith

I am a cat.

transformer

Hannah

a construction

Nicholas

princess

I am a bride.

I am a cat

witch

Lisa

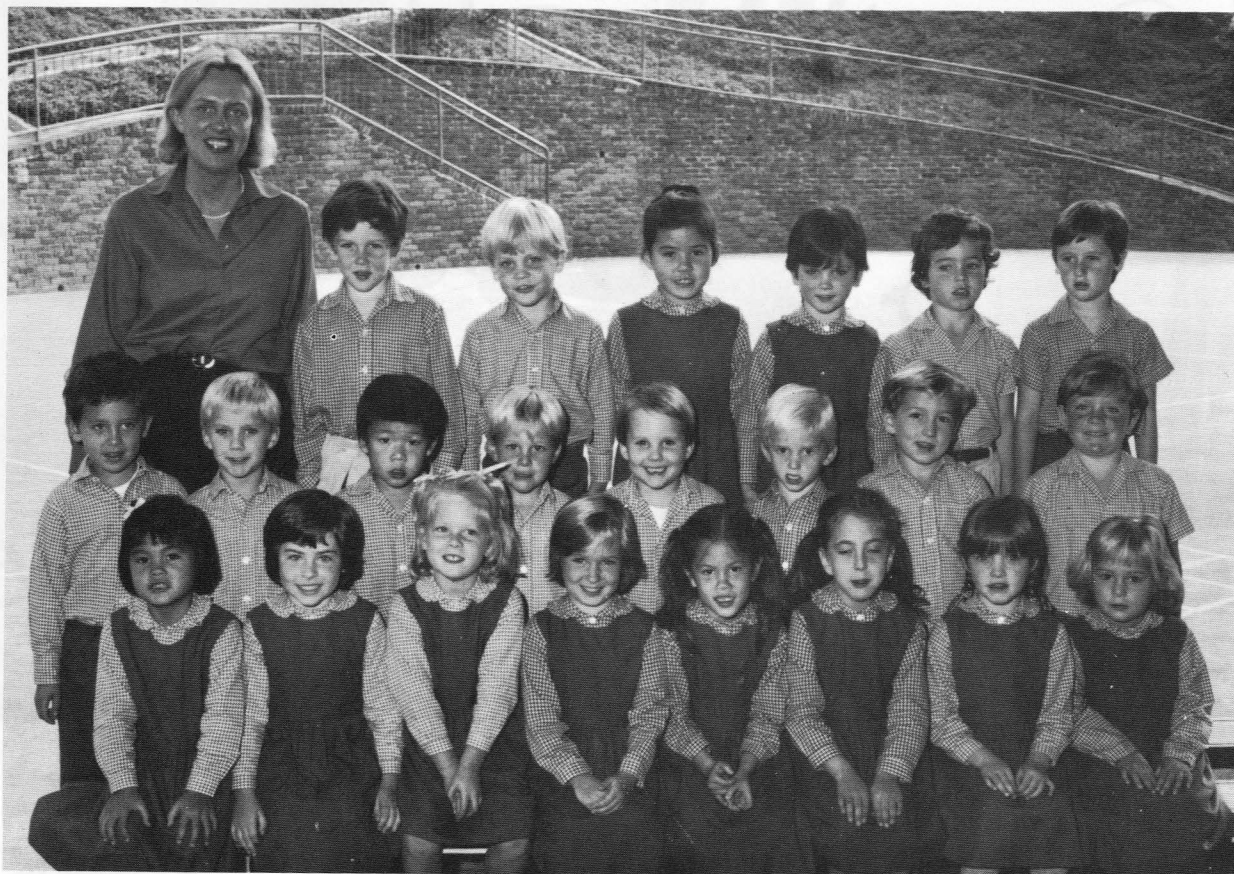

Abigail

Sarah

Lauren

Primary Class 4 - Mrs. J. Tyrell

Back row : Mrs. J. Tyrell, Peter Sabine, Jonathan Clatworthy, Stephanie Stroud, Sarah Yates, Hugh Jonathan, Miles Dickinson

Middle row : Idan Udalevich, Christian Nylander, David Kitchell, Matthew Broadhurst, Jarrod Dotterer, James Dickson Leach, James Barker, Toby Rolfe

Front row : Allegra Whittaker, Amanda Telling, Amanda Connor, Susannah Fiducia, Sarah McDowall, Samantha Herbst, Marisa Davies, Pamela Jonker.

Rabbiting on with Class 4

I was a rabbit in our assembly I wore my PE shorts with a white tail. On my head I had some bunny ears Mummy and Daddy came to watch.

Sarah
Yates,

I brought my toy rabbit to school his name is Hamburger and he is very fierce.

Hugh

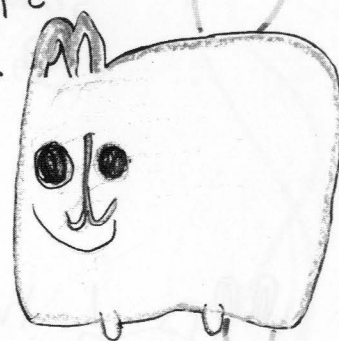

I brought my rabbit to school.

Pamela

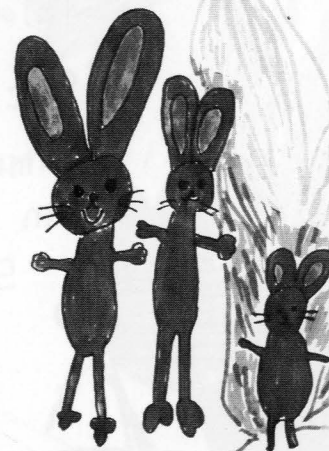

A baby rabbit is called a kitten. Mummy and Sarah didn't know that.

Toby

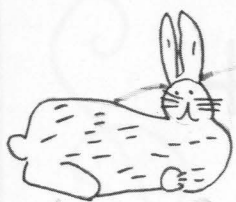

I have a toy rabbit called Pinky he is cute.

Amanda C.

We found Holly in a plastic bag
some brought him to school. miles

I was the teacher in our assembly. We were doing rabbitercise. My mummy came to watch.
It was fun.

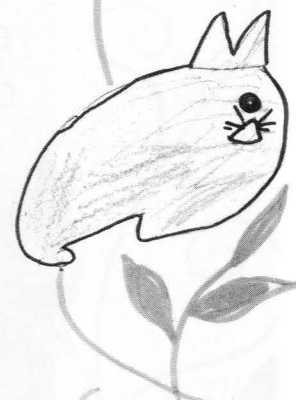

Samantha

I have got a rabbit called Pellet. It lives in a hutch on my balcony. Sometimes daddy lets it out.

Jarrod

We brought Mopsy into the classroom and he did a wee on the table.
James Barker

I had two rabbits but mummy gave them away.

Stephanie

We made some clay rabbits.
We painted them. Some of the ears fell off.

Jonathan

I saw some rabbits in Penang and I stroked them.
Marisa

We had a rabbit raffle and Richard Guest won.
We played with it.
James Dickson Leach

1987 is the year of the rabbit.
I was born in the year of the rooster.
Peter

I have enjoyed all the stories about rabbits. A home for a bunny was my favourite. I liked the Peter Rabbit stories as well.

Amanda Telling

I have got my own rabbit. He is grey and white.
He has very good claws.
Matthew

I like to hold the rabbits Christian

Flopsy has a big pouch of fat
under her chin.
She is a very big rabbit she came to our classroom and hopped about.
Suzie

I made a lovely clay rabbit I painted it black white and grey and brown.
Idah.

Sapphire is a beautiful white rabbit we hope she will have babies at Easter. The Daddy is called Muesli.
Sarah McDowall

I am making a book about rabbits with lots of writing and pictures.
David

I have got a rabbit called FLOPSY she can jump high.

Allegra

Primary Class 5 - Mrs. L. Ashdown

Back row : Mrs. L. Ashdown, Robin Douglas, Kara Banigan, Camilla Buttery, Nicholas Fisher, Jonathan Bolland, Grant Mackinlay

Middle row : Taranbir Chadha, Benjamin Deacon, Samuel Spinks, Matthew McCamey, Alistair Robertson, James Mann, Emily Fenn

Front row : Alexandra Tse, Gemma Boddiner, Bosing Wu, Emma Allen, Miles Dickinson, Sartika Thatcher, Victoria Lavender, Anna Granander, Isobel Packwood

Witches in stories often have black cats to help them to do magic spells. The witches carry the cats around on their broomsticks.

cats

Cats miaow and wake people up
Cats hiss when they are angry and purr when they are happy

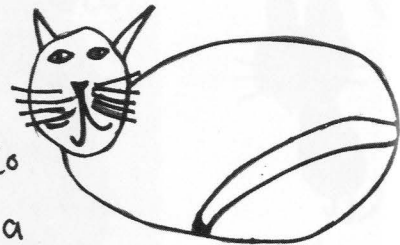

Taran

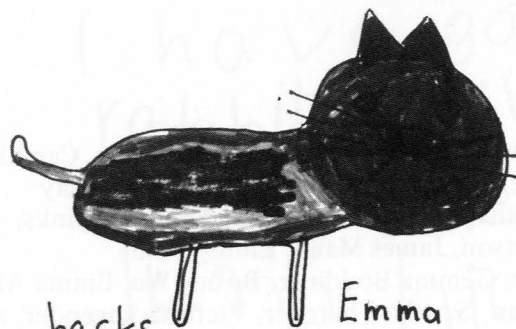

Camilla

Cats like to play. They like to play with a piece of string or a ball of wool. When cats are pretending to catch string they are practising hunting.

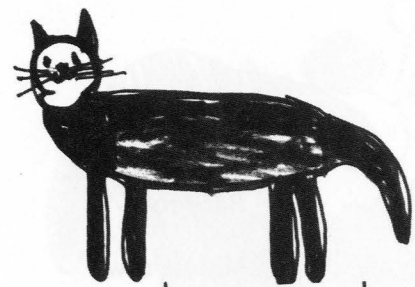

Gemma

Emma

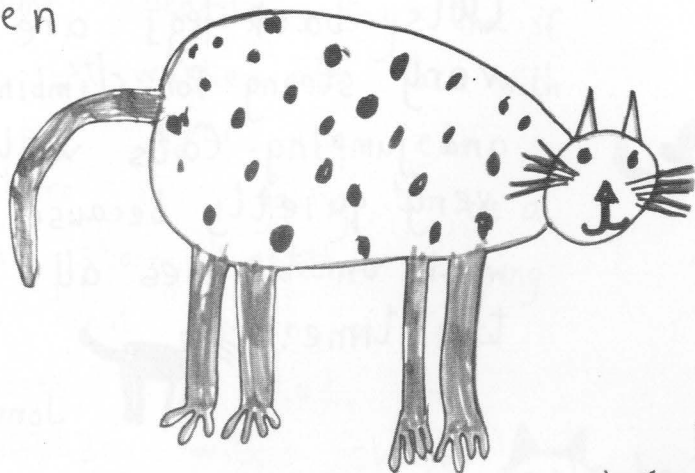

Cats arch their backs when they are annoyed. They hiss and make their fur stick out to look bigger.

Sam
A cat can turn its head right round to look backwards. It has a long tail to help it to balance when it is jumping.

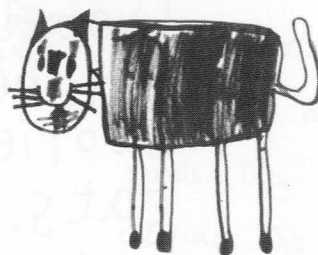

Ben

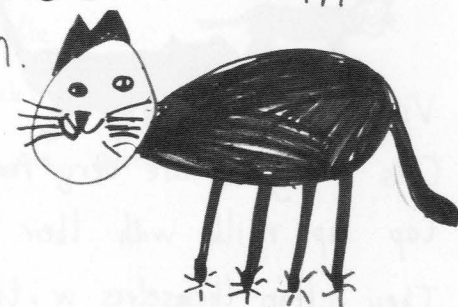

I like the way cats use their tongues to clean their fur. They lick their paws to clean the bits they can't reach.

James

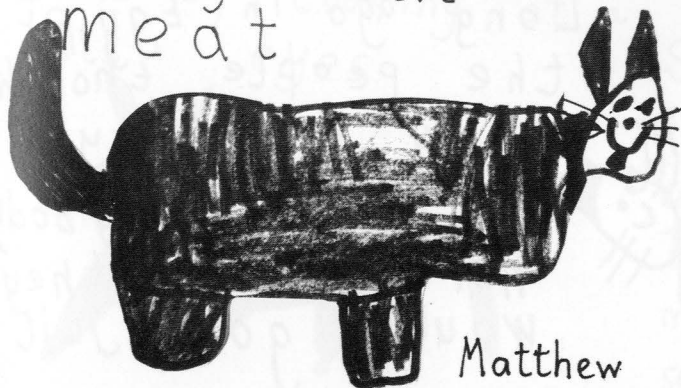

Cats ears can move forwards and backwards and sideways. Cats can hear very well they even hear mice squeaking.

I like the story of the kitten who couldn't get down. Sometimes cats climb up very high and get stuck. The firemen have to use their ladders to get them down.

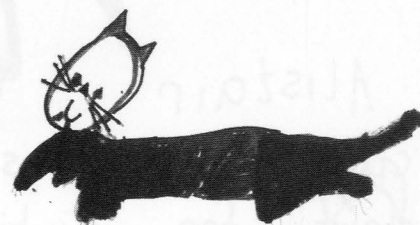

Kara

Cats are carnivorous. This means they eat meat

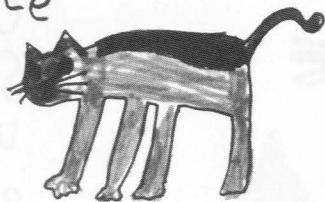

Matthew

Alexandra
Cats have four baby kittens at a time. The kittens can't see and they don't have teeth.

Robin
If cats fall from a very high place they can turn around as they are falling so that they can land on their feet.

Cats back legs are very strong for climbing and jumping. Cats walk very quietly because they walk on tip-toes all the time.

Jonathan

Victoria

Cats tongues are very rough. They lap up milk with their tongue.
They clean themselves with their tongue. Cats are very clean animals.

Isobel
There are lots of stories about cats. I like Gobolino because he was a witch's cat and he made sparks come out of his whiskers.

Alistair

Cats have sharp claws for climbing and fighting and after they have been fighting they can make their claws go in.

Emily

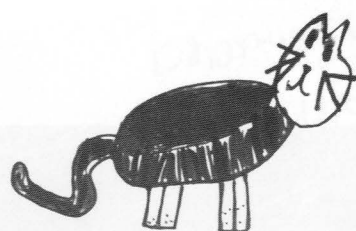

Long ago in Egypt
the people thought cats were very lucky. If anybody hurt a cat they would go to jail

Some people say that if a cat washes its face with a paw over its ear there is going to be a rain storm. Another saying is that when a cat chases its tail the weather will change

Nicholas

Sartika.
I like the story about the Aristocats. They live in a comfortable home with Emily and Joseph.

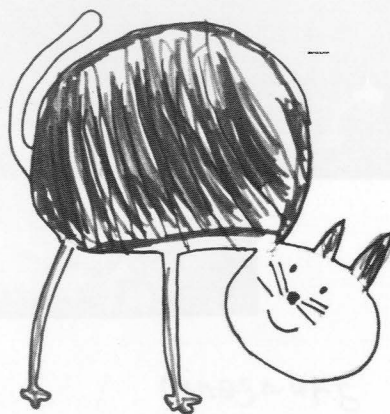

Grant

Cats have sharp teeth to tear bits off meat and to kill little animals. They use their back teeth for chewing. The sharp teeth are called canine teeth.

Cats eyes are narrow in the day time. In the night the cats eyes are very big. Long ago people thought they could tell the time by looking at a cats eyes.

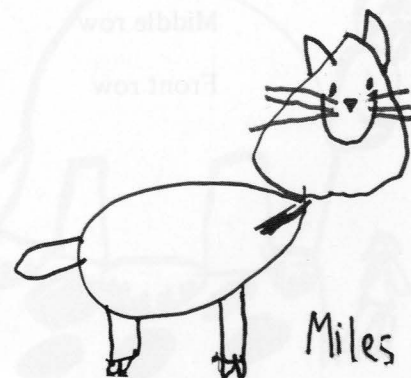

Bosing

Anna

I like cats because they are cute and warm and soft.

Sailors think it is lucky to have a cat on a ship. The cat catches the mice that eat the sailors food.

Miles

Primary Class 8 - Mrs. E. Phillips

Back row : Mrs. E. Phillips, Oliver Northway, Kate Deacon, Kevin Slack, Tove Porseryd, Daniel Nylander, Emma Nicholson, Middle row : Iain Clark, Alexander Priestley, Mark Button, Hank Lynch, Christopher O'Neill, Craig Butcher, Maximilien Tse, Oliver Bayliss, Front row : Pascale Seiler, Julia Tootill, Nickie Hargreaves, Samantha Shih, Samantha Dickinson, Nicola Phillips, Alexandra Judd, Norine Tan.

I like baby dinosaurs and big ones
Dinosaurs used to fight each other.

Astro

Dinosaurs were fierce.
Dinosaurs were enormous.
Dinosaurs were enormously fierce.

Paul

Dinosaurs

I like dinosaurs but they are dangerous.

Kirst

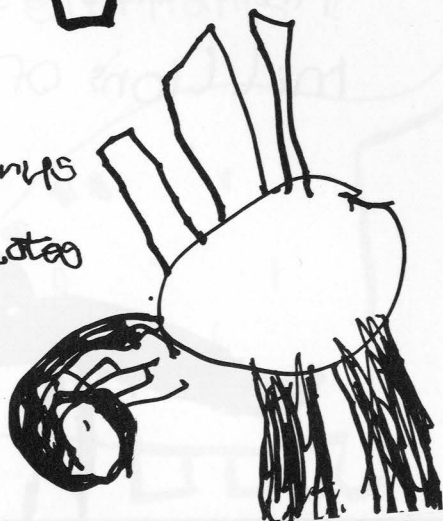

Andrew T

Stegosaurus have spikes on their backs to make them look terrible.

The Stegosaurus had sharp plates on his back

Andrew N.

dinosaurs lived millions of years ago

Sarah

I know that dinosaurs are dangerous

Jolyon

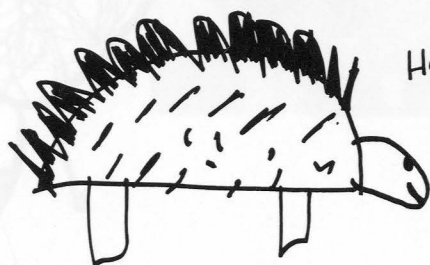

did you know that dinosaurs eat leaves?

Reina

I like dinosaurs.
The stegosaurus is my favourite dinosaur

Hanna

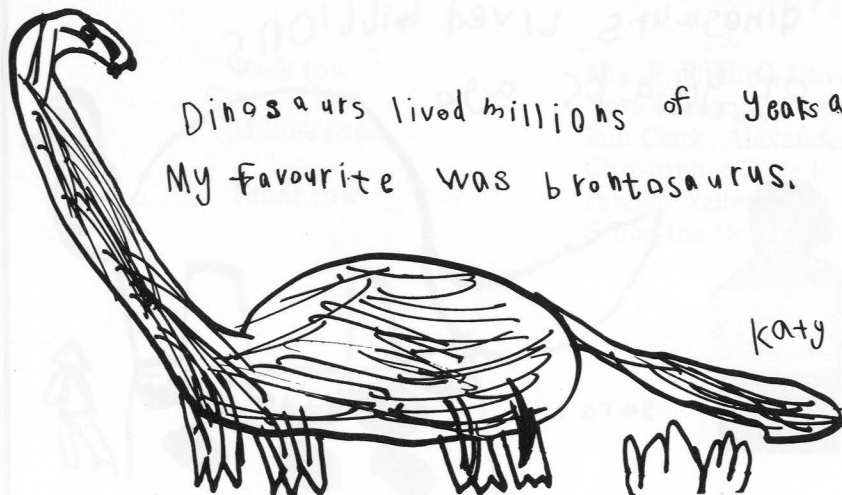

I like dinosaurs

Josh

The Lambeosaurus lived millions of years ago

Dinosaurs lived millions of years ago
My favourite was brontosaurus.

Katy

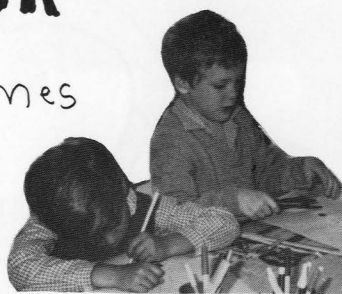

Richard

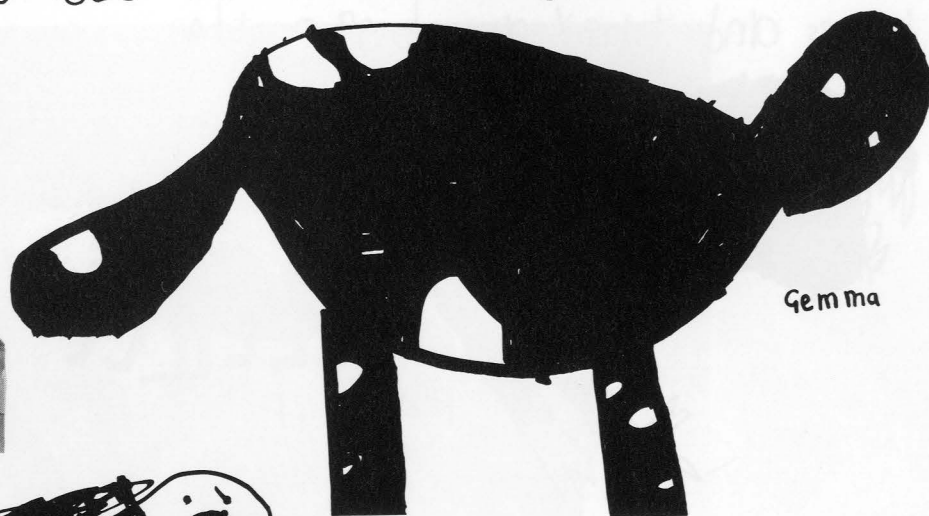

Dinosaurs are ferocious.
Dinosaurs fight

James

The Melanorosaurus walked on four legs
he used his tail to fight

Gemma

I like drawing dinosaurs with big spikes

Emma

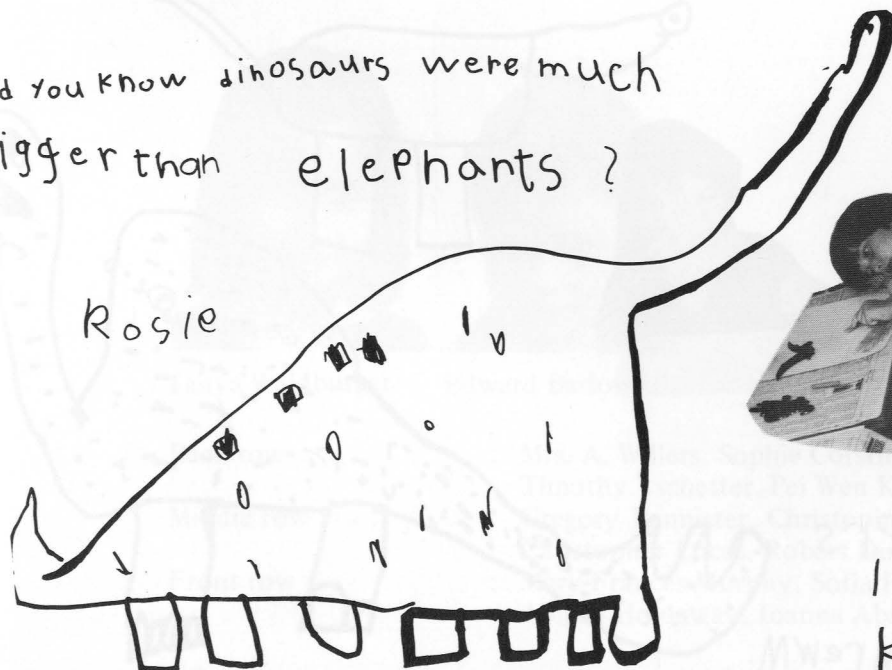

John

This is a stegosaurus

did you know dinosaurs were much bigger than elephants?

Rosie

Andrew W.

I like tyrannosaurus rex the king of the dinosaurs

Some dinosaurs have enormous bones and they are bigger than an elephant.

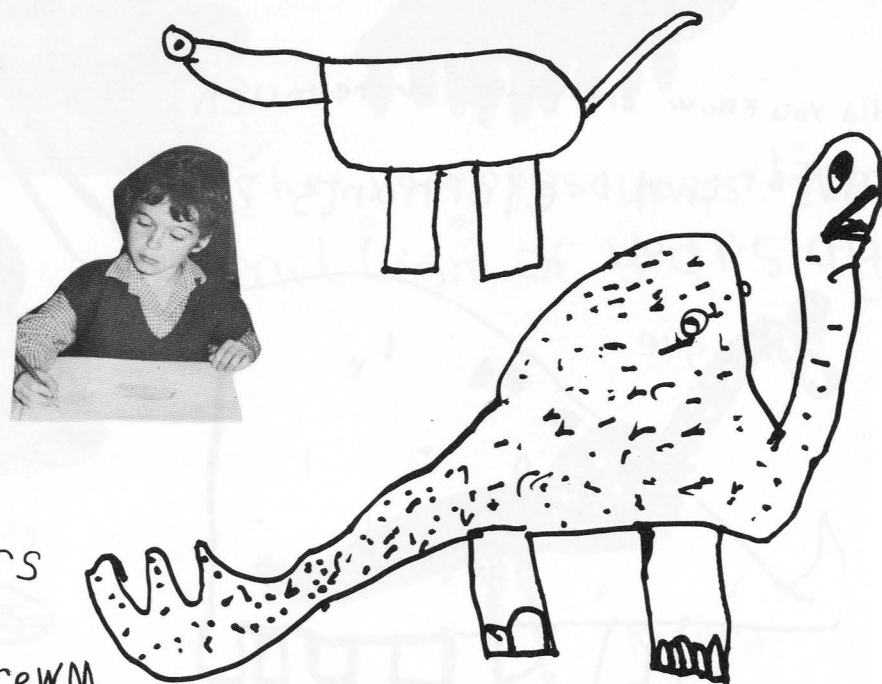

I know something you may not know. Dinosaurs are enormous. This is a Tyrannosaurus rex. He is the King of the dinosaurs.

Did you know dinosaurs play chequers and play baseball?

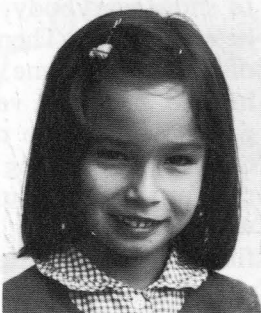

Some Dinosaurs fight with their tails and they have big feet. Mark

I like dinosaur monsters with skinny heads. Andrew M.

Primary Class 7 - Mrs. A. Willers

Tanya Waldburger

Edward Barlow

- |            |  |
|------------|--|
| Back row   | : Mrs. A. Willers, Sophie Corstin, Nicholas Humphrey, Joseph Spinks, Timothy Tschetter, Pei Wen Kuok, Catherine McDowall |
| Middle row | : Gregory Bannister, Christopher Cooke, Andrew McGuigan, David Hilling, Christopher Lucas, Robert Dinner, William Hutton |
| Front row  | : Mary-Frances Murphy, Sofia Fogelfors, Lara Day, Jenny Kruse, Abigail Holdaway, Joanna Absolom, Nicola Murphy.          |

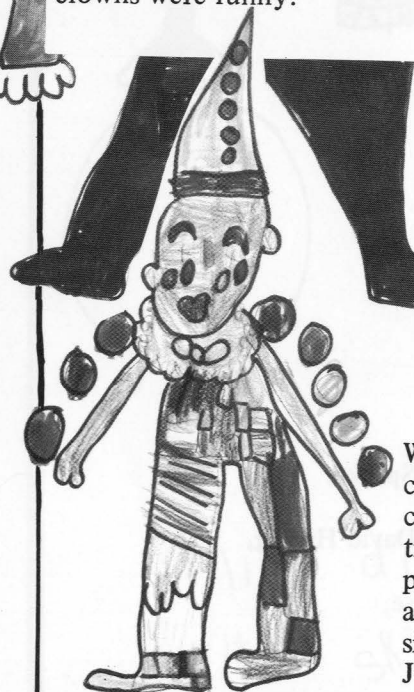

Mrs Willers class is learning about clowns and they are colourful and this clowns name is funny flock. And funny flock can be happy or sad. And he wears rainbow hair and a purple frill red buttons on his coat which is pink his trousers are red and he has a hat with pom poms on it and he has makeup on.

Gregory

I went to the circus with my friend, Sasha and I saw some clowns. The clowns were funny.

Jenny

When I went to the circus I saw the clowns and one of the clowns was called Teethy Lam. So he did some tricks. His first trick he made his pom-poms and his make up come out, after that he did some silly, very very silly things the other clown was called Juggle and one called Billy Silly.

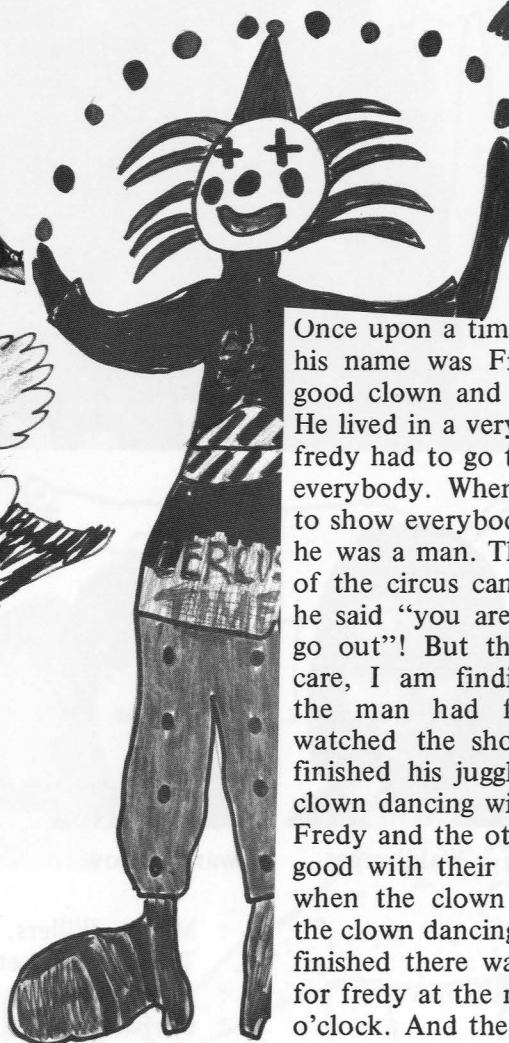

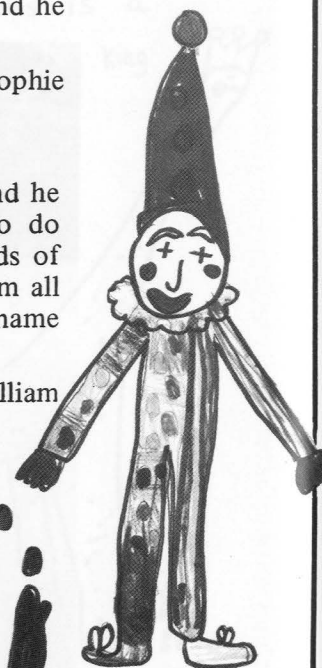

Pei Wen

Once upon a time there was a clown. The clown was very very famous and he was very rich and his name was charlie. One day charlie failed and he wasn't famous anymore.

Sophie

This is a story about a clown and he liked to juggle and he liked to do handstands and he wore all kinds of coloured clothes and it takes him all day to find some clothes and his name is Whiteface.

William

Once upon a time there lived a clown, his name was Fredy. He was a very good clown and a very good juggler. He lived in a very big house. One day, fredy had to go to the circus to show everybody. When he started juggling to show everybody, someone came in, he was a man. Then when the master of the circus came, and saw the man he said "you are very late you must go out"! But the man said "I don't care, I am finding my seat!" when the man had found his seat. He watched the show. When fredy had finished his juggling, then he did his clown dancing with the other clowns. Fredy and the other clowns were very good with their clown dancing. Then when the clown dancing the the juggling was finished there was a wonderful party for fredy at the masters house at 3.00 o'clock. And the master of the circus gave fredy a lovely medal. And they lived happily ever after.

Tanya

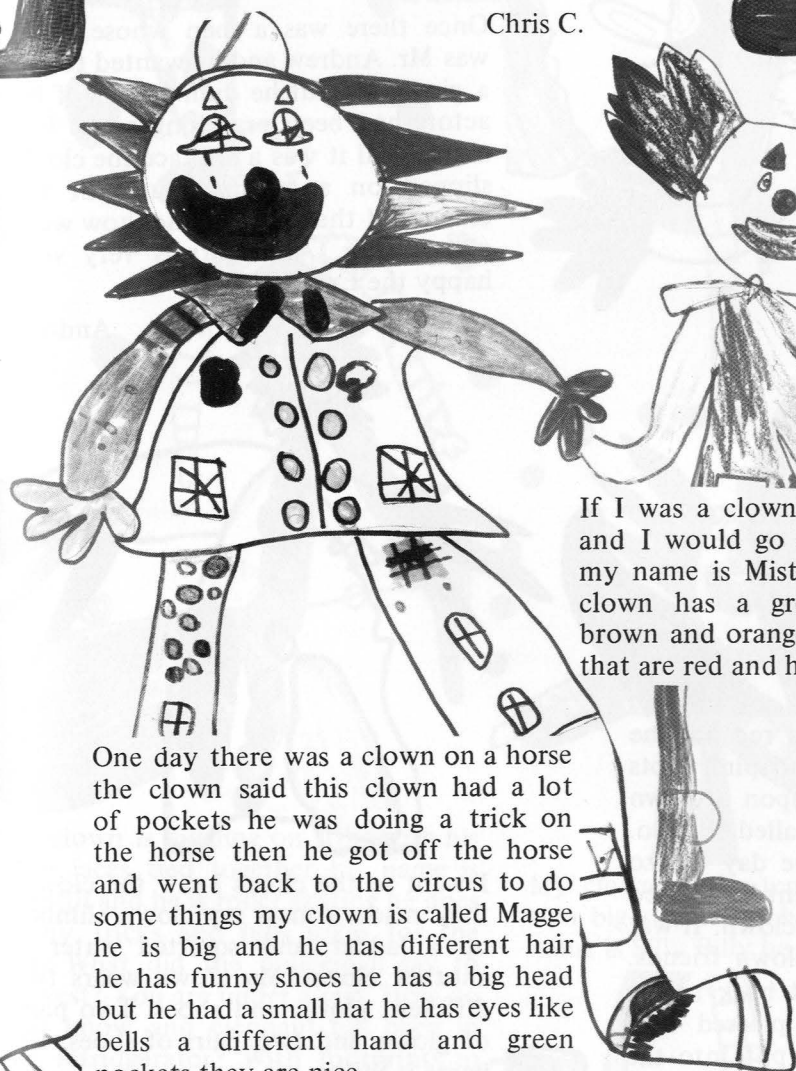

My clown has a lot of colours it has red blue green yellow he is Tiny Tim he tries to do a handstand and juggle at the same time.

Chris C.

One day I was watching T. V. when I saw a clown he was wearing a red shoe and a yellow shoe he was doing a funny act and he was wearing pom poms he had red hair and a red nose and blue cheeks and his name was Teddy and he is five years old his birthday is in May.

Abigail

One day there was a clown on a horse the clown said this clown had a lot of pockets he was doing a trick on the horse then he got off the horse and went back to the circus to do some things my clown is called Magge he is big and he has different hair he has funny shoes he has a big head but he had a small hat he has eyes like bells a different hand and green pockets they are nice.

Joanna

If I was a clown I would do juggling and I would go on the unicycle and my name is Mister long legs and my clown has a green tie a blue and brown and orange t-shirt and trousers that are red and his shoes are brown.

Joseph

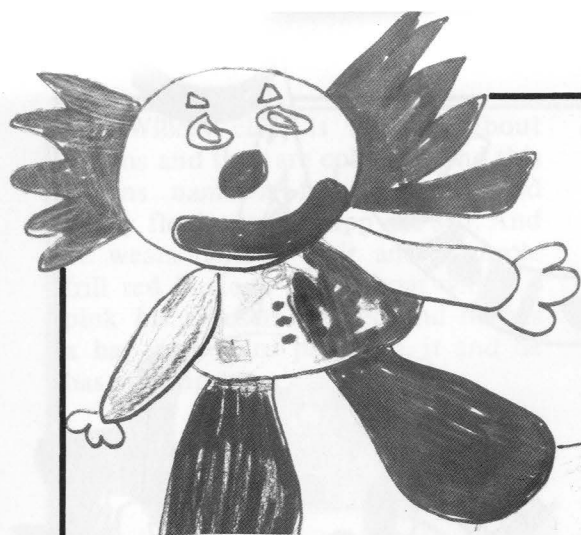

In the circus you can see the clowns they have funny costumes with baggy trousers and they put makeup on clowns do funny tricks they sometimes have pompoms on their costumes. Some clowns are Happy and some clowns are sad. Clowns have Big pockets. They some times have names like Ann. Clowns can do alot of things. Clowns have very Bright colours on their costumes.

Nicola

One day a clown walked down the street and he entered the parade and did wonderful things and afterwards they clapped.

Edward

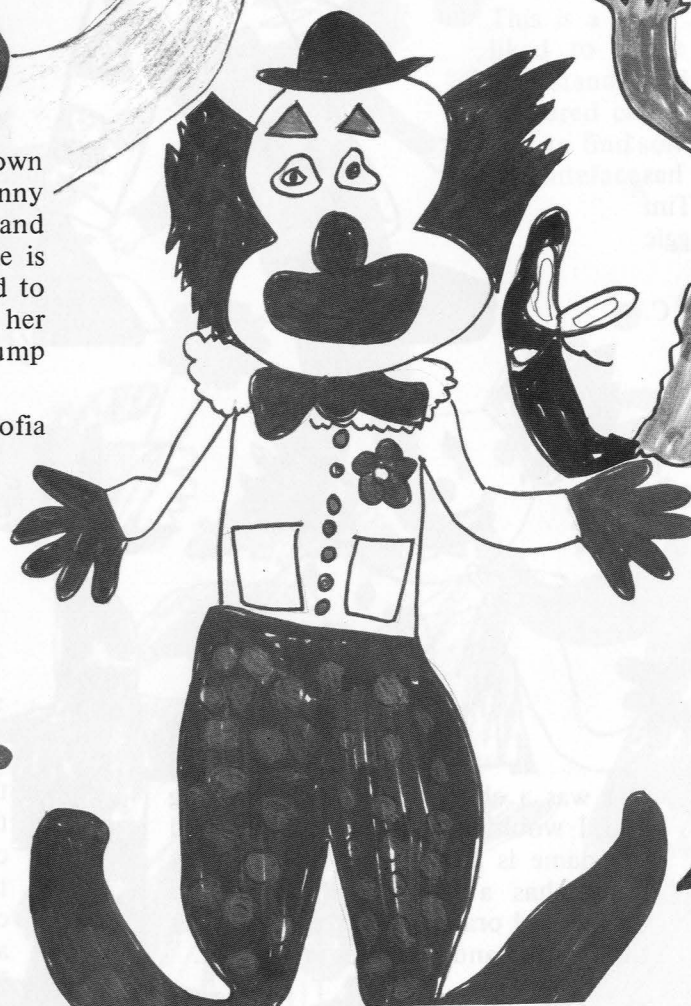

Once upon a time there was a clown called susie and she was very funny and she has very baggy trousers and she loves to play outside and she is my friend. And one day she tried to do a handstand but she landed on her head then she tried to do a jump and she could.

Sofia

Once there was a man whose name was Mr. Andrew and he wanted to put a circus on but he didn't know if his actors had been practising so he had a rehearsal it was a disgrace the clown slipped on a banana skin. But the clown did the best and the show went on and Mr. Andrew was very very happy the End.

Andrew

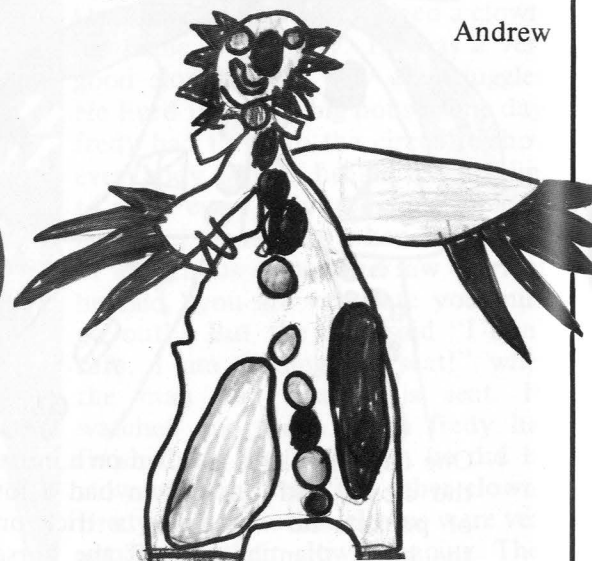

My clown has a hat and red hair he has triangle eyebrows and pink spots on his trousers. Once upon a clown there lived a clown called Bonzo. Bonzo is my clown. One day Bonzo went for a walk as he went he noticed something. Oh! another clown. It was one of Bonzo's rabbit clown friends. Bonzo and Gooley went back to the circus Mr. Cosmo was pleased with Bonzo and Gooley was put into the circus. Everyone loved him.

Lara

My clown keeps dropping the balls when hes juggling my clown is juggling on one leg my clown is about to wobble my clown fell down my clown is called Big Shoes.

David

I went to the circus I saw the clowns they made a mess my clown climbed up a ladder and squirted water at another clown. My clown wears two different gloves and shoes. Two pairs of gloves and two pairs of shoes. His name is Stilty.

Robert

My clown is a funny clown he can juggle on stilts. He has a big pocket and big pompoms. His name is funny face. Funny face juggles 7 balls. He is a happy clown.

Tim

My clown is a funny clown he likes juggling alot he does cartwheels he likes to chase people he thinks it is fun I don't think it is fun but he does and he wears coloured clothes.

Mary-Frances

My clown is juggling on stilts with his shoe laces tied together his name is Skillful and he is roller skating he does funny tricks and tells jokes for the kids What did the policeman say to his vest? You are under a rest. How do you know and elephant has been in the refridgerator? With footprints in the butter.

Nicholas

My clown juggles ten red balls he has two big shoes and he has a name his name is Silly Billy he wears a costume.

Chris L.

Once upon a time I had a knock on our door and it was a big clown that was juggling and she was wearing big pompoms then she told me her name and her name was called Sarah and she did some tricks then I saw she was wearing baggy trousers she squirted water at me and we made friends I showed Sarah to my teacher. Sarah had orange hair and she was wearing coloured clothes and the colours of her clothes wore blue pink and red yellow purple green and that was all she jumps up and down a lot I like Sarah the clown. She is funny and she wears a pointed hat.

Catherine

Primary Class 6 - Mrs. R. Phillipson

John Walker

Astrid Lefdal

Hanna Lansing

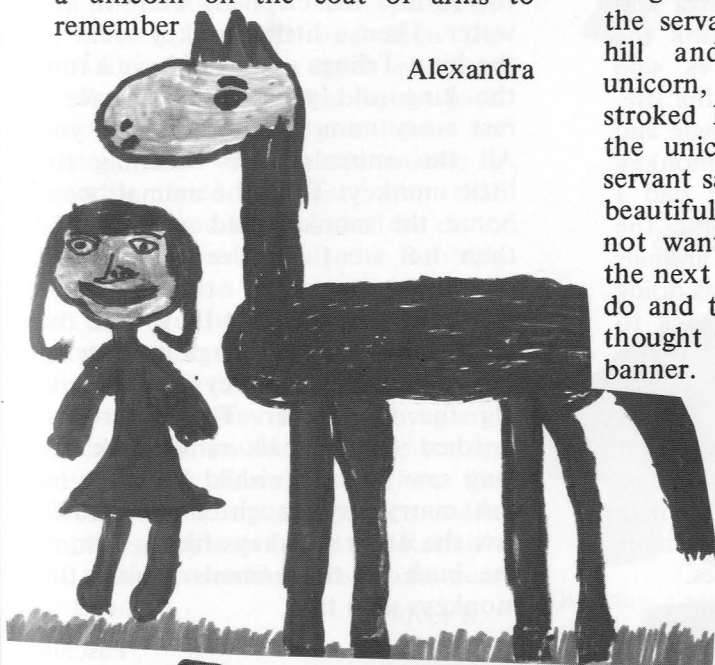

- |            |   |   |
|------------|---|---|
| Back row   | : | Mrs. R. Phillipson, Kate McDonald, Katy Watson, Katherine Fulton, James Hamilton, Andrew Morrison,                  |
| Middle row | : | Jolyon Smith, Paul Ng, Andrew Nelson, Andrew Tose, Richard Guest, Andrew Wilson, Mark Morris                        |
| Front row  | : | Joshua Kruse, Rosamund Goddard, Sarah James, Kirsten van der Mije, Anthea Sizer, Gemma Sage, Reina Lobo, Emma Meurs |

The beautiful Unicorn

Once a upon a time there was a king and he called his servant to catch a unicorn so he went. He walked and walked and he met a man and the man said Shama, you must not harm it so he hid behind a tree. She whistled and the unicorn came to her. And the servant ran to the king he said I have failed he said. The unicorn is special. The king didn't want to harm the unicorn. So he made a picture of a unicorn on the coat of arms to remember

Alexandra

Once there was a king and he called his servant to find the beautiful unicorn. The servant walked a very very long time and he looked for the beautiful unicorn. The servant looked but the beautiful unicorn was not there and the servant walked a very very long time and saw a village and saw a man walking along, the servant said have you seen the beautiful unicorn the man said my daughter has seen one. The man took his daughter out of the house and took the servant and Shama went up the hill and whistled. The beautiful unicorn, came out the tree Shama stroked her. The servant didn't take the unicorn back to the king. The servant said I do not want to harm the beautiful unicorn the king said I do not want to harm her said the king the next day the king decided what to do and thought a very long time and thought what to do and drew it on a banner.

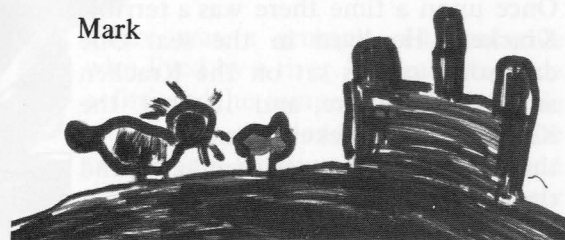

Samantha

Why Monkey's live in Trees

Once there was a gorilla he had a beautiful daughter the gorilla was actually called Nijina and everybody wanted to marry his daughter so one day when he was in a tree he saw a barrel on the ground there was water in it, he tasted the water. It tasted like fire so he had an idea. He took the barrel home and invited all the animals in the wood to come to the party so he said the one who can drink all this water will marry my daughter. So the elephant was first because he was the biggest and he pushed then he drank the water but the water tasted so like fire that he could not drink any more so he went into the jungle snorting. Then the hippopotamus had a try but the same thing happened. Then a little monkey came and said can I have a try of course said the Nijina can I have a rest between each sip yes of course then take a sip. now I will said telinga. So he took a sip then he went away, then he came back again and drank some more this went on all day long then all the water was gone. The giraffe saw the monkeys because there wasn't just one monkey there were ten monkey's. So the giraffe said fight them, all the animals fought them. So the monkeys climbed up a tree, so from now onwards monkeys live in trees.

Mark

Why Monkeys live in Trees

Once a gorilla wanted his daughter Telinga to marry some body in the jungle and one day he saw some water and he tasted the water and his mouth went on fire and he said to himself who ever can drink all of this water can marry my daughter, Telinga. So he took the barrel of water back to the jungle and all the animals were waiting for him and he said to all of them, who ever can drink all of this water can marry my daughter. So the hippopotamus tried to drink the magic water but his mouth went on fire so the giraffe tried and his mouth went on fire, and then a monkey came and said, can I do it and the gorilla smiled and said go on and try so the monkey said can I take a little at a time but the monkey was cheating. — When the water had gone the giraffe looked up and saw that the monkeys had cheated and they chased them up

There once was a gorilla called Nijina and all the animals loved her and once when Nijina was going in the jungle and she found a barrel of water it was special fire water and she took it home with her and she spread a message a cross the jungle and in the big clearing in the jungle all the animals had a try to drink the fire water but all the animals could not drink the fire water. But there was 1 monkey that jumped out of the crowd and said to Nijina I am Telinga said the monkey can I try to drink the fire-water asked Telinga. Yes said Nijina and he had a drink of the fire-water then he ran into the jungle and a minute later a different monkey came out of the jungle and had a drink of the fire water and the monkey went away but the animals did not know what Telinga was doing every time a monkey came back to the barrel, the barrel had no fire water there in the barrel but all the animals did not know that Telinga was cheating. The giraffe saw that behind a bush there were lots of monkeys. The giraffe said "Telinga has been cheating. All the animals chased the monkeys up the trees.

Once upon a time there was a gorilla called Nijina and Nijina had a daughter. Nijina was swinging in the trees and he saw the water and he tasted the water, he didn't know what kind of water it was. If any of the animals can drink this water they can marry my daughter. All the animals were waiting to have a go first it was the leopard the second was the warthog the third was the elephant and the elephant ears turned to red and the elephant went to the water. Then a little monkey went to the king. Telinga said can I have a turn the king said yes but can I have a rest every minute; The king said yes. All the animals were watching the little monkey. Then the animals went home the monkey had a drink and then he went to sleep and some monkeys came but the monkeys were not the same but they were the same as him when Telinga was having a rest the other monkeys were drinking the fire water. The water was finished the animals came back the king saw it was finished he said you can marry my daughter the giraffe saw the other monkeys hiding behind the bush all the animals chased the monkeys up a tree.

Nicola

Iain

Pascale

The Terrible Kracken

Once upon a time there was a terrible Kracken. He lived in the sea. One day some sailors sat on the Kracken and made a fire and it hurt the Kracken the Kracken swam down to the sea and was never seen again and the sailors drowned.

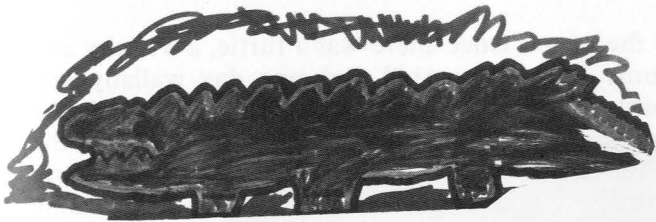

Hank

Once upon a time there was a Kracken. He was gentle and only hurt people when they hurt him. If a Kracken went to sleep it would sleep for a long time and it would look like an island. One day some sailors found the Kracken. That's funny said the captain this island isn't on the map. Then he told his crew about the island so they camped on the island. In the night the sailors lit a fire and danced round it. They got drunk. but then the island shook, the fire hurt the Kracken so he dived under the water the sailors were drowned. The kracken was never seen again.

Maxi

The Rabbit and the Crocodile

Once upon a time there was a Rabbit and a crocodile the Rabbit went out in to the field and he woke up a crocodile the Rabbit and the crocodile said go away. I am, trying to sleep, then the Rabbit saw some leaves so he nibbled at them and then the crocodile snapped his teeth and then the Rabbit ran away his fastest back home and when he got home his mummy said what is the matter a crocodile tried to eat me, that naughty crocodile what shall we do to him. So she invited all the Rabbit's in the Land so they could have a plan about the crocodile and the plan was that you get a bag of twigs and leaves all things like that, he was fast asleep so they lit the leaves and the crocodile could smell the smoke and feel the flames and then the crocodile woke up and the crocodile jumped into the river and the Rabbit's said to the crocodile never come near the Land.

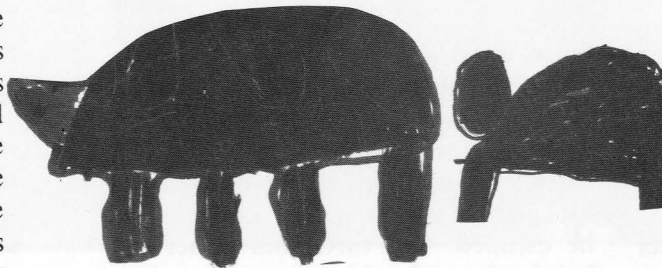

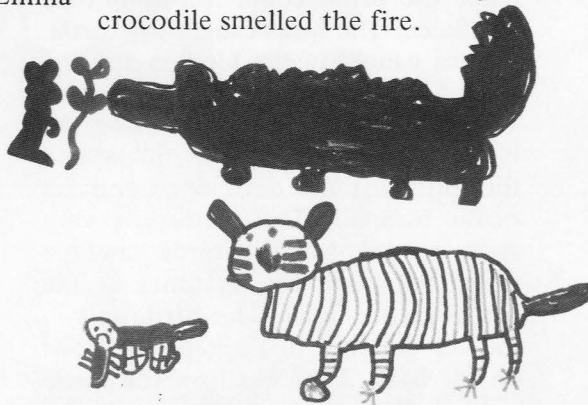

Oliver B.

Long ago the cat and the rat were good friends. They lived together on a desert island far away from anywhere. They did not have a care in the world and were very happy. There were lots of trees for the cat to climb and fat birds for her to eat. And one day cat said I want to leave the island. So they floated away in a boat. And one day the rat started nibbling a hole in the boat then the cat woke up and he said I'm getting wet don't worry said the rat then the boat sunk and the cat and the rat went to a island and the rat dug a hole through a sandcastle and the cat waited for the rat.

Christopher

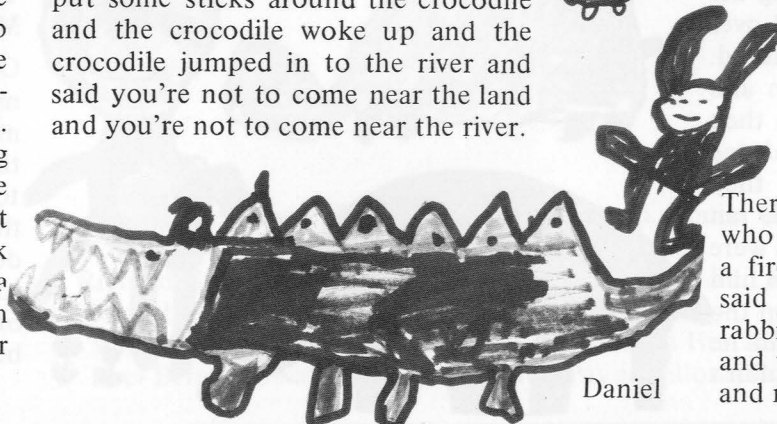

Once there was a crocodile and a rabbit one day the crocodile was sleeping on the side of the river and a rabbit came and said hello to the crocodile the crocodile said go away to the rabbit. The rabbit ran back to his burrow all the rabbits got together and in the woods the rabbit's got twigs from the woods and put them around the crocodile and the crocodile smelled the fire.

Emma

One day a rabbit went running by and said good morning said the rabbit and the crocodile said go away. The little rabbit ran home to tell his mother the rabbit had a meeting and they picked some sticks and some twigs and some leaves and then they put some sticks around the crocodile and the crocodile woke up and the crocodile jumped in to the river and said you're not to come near the land and you're not to come near the river.

Kate

Daniel

The Cat and The Rat

Long ago far from anywhere there was a cat and a rat they were great friends because the cat could climb the trees and the rat could dig holes in the sand. One day the rat said to the cat, I'm bored of this island, so am I but how are we going to get there easy said the rat and he started to cut a tree. When the tree had fallen the cat dug in the tree so there would be a flat seat for the cat and the rat. The rat cut some branches for paddles the rat pushed the boat and jumped in then the cat fell asleep and the rat was hungry so he nibbled at the side of the boat. The cat woke up. I'm getting wet and there was a island, the cat and rat swam to the island the cat ran after the rat, the rat dug a Hole through the sand. The cat didn't see the rat come out of the other side the cat waited all day.

Craig

Once upon a time there was a rabbit and a crocodile and the rabbit went out of his burrow and he went to get some leaves but the crocodile said these are my leaves so the rabbit went back to his burrow and told his mummy so at night they went in to the wood to get some twigs and they came back from the woods and he went to the land when the crocodile was asleep. They went back to the burrow to get some twigs and matches. They lit them around the crocodile the crocodile could smell the fire, he jumped into the river.

Oliver N.

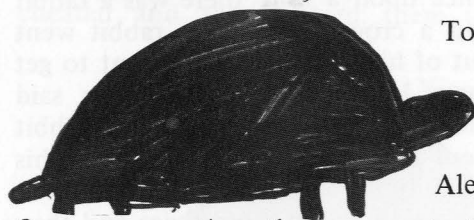

There was a grumpy old crocodile who lived by a river. The rabbits made a fire and he jumped in the river. He said Leave us alone in the river the rabbits said Leave us alone on the land and that's why crocodiles live in water and rabbit live on land.

How the Turtle got its Shell

Once upon a time a turtle and a wallaby ate hornbills sugar canes and bananas and the hornbill was having a party and wanted some sugar so wagtail went to get some sugar and when she came there she saw that the turtle and the wallaby were eating the sugar and rushed back and told the hornbill. And all the birds came and the wallaby escaped over the fence and they caught the turtle and locked him in the kitchen and he hid under a bowl and when they came in the kitchen they couldn't find the turtle and they thought that the turtle had escaped and they rushed out and left the door open and the turtle went out and he was near the sea. And the birds saw the turtle and the hornbill said kill him and they dropped stones on the turtle the turtle had the bowl on his back and he went in the sea and so the turtle carries the bowl wherever he goes.

Tove

Alexander

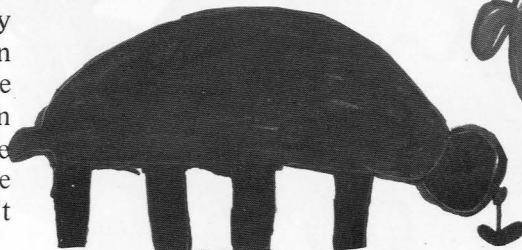

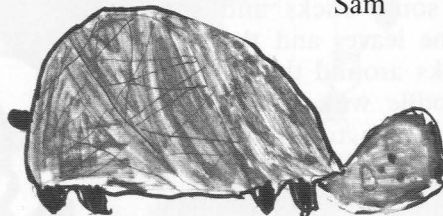

Once upon a time there was a turtle and a wallaby and they were very good friends and there was a hornbill. One day the hornbill was having a party and she had some bananas and sugarcane and they wanted some sugarcane and a wagtail saw the turtle and the wallaby was eating the bananas and the wallaby jumped over the fence and the turtle was captured. They locked him in the kitchen and he hid under a bowl, and when they came in to the kitchen they didn't see him and they flew away. And they left the door open and the turtle ran away to the beach and the birds were there and they dropped stones on him and they were dropping stones on the bowl and it didn't hurt him and he went in to the sea and they couldn't get him.

Once upon a time a turtle was the wallaby's friend they always got some sugar cane and bananas. The birds were having a party one of the birds was getting some sugar cane the bird saw the turtle and the wallaby. The bird rushed to tell the hornbill. So all the birds flew to the garden. The wallaby could jump over the fence the turtle could not jump over the fence. The birds caught the turtle. He got caught in the kitchen and the birds locked the turtle in the kitchen. The turtle hid under the bowl the birds thought about the turtle and the birds left the door open and the turtle escaped. The turtle got very close to the sea the birds saw the turtle the birds threw stones at the turtle in the bowl. The turtle got in the sea and the turtle kept the bowl on his back. That was how the turtle got a shell.

Julia

Once upon a time there was a turtle and a wallaby. The wallaby was eating a sugarcane and wagtail went to get some sugar the wagtail saw the turtle eating the sugar cane they locked the turtle in the kitchen but he escaped. The turtle hid under the bowl when the birds came in they thought he had escaped they flew away they left the door open. The turtle came out from the bowl. He quickly ran out of the door and into the sea.

Sam

Once there was a turtle, a wallaby and a hornbill and one day wallaby and turtle went to the garden and the turtle ate the sugar cane and the wallaby ate the bananas and the hornbill saw wallaby and turtle running away but the turtle ran too slow and the hornbill got the turtle and the hornbill put the turtle in the kitchen and the turtle hid under the bowl and the hornbill went in the kitchen again but the hornbill said he is gone, he is gone shouted the hornbill and he went outside, and the turtle came outside to the sea but the hornbill saw the turtle and the hornbill was throwing stones at him and the turtle went to the sea.

Norine

Kevin

Once there was a wallaby and a turtle and they were very good friends and the wallaby and the turtle were very hungry. They went to get some sugar cane and the hornbill saw the turtle and the wallaby and the turtle were eating the bananas. The bird's saw the turtle and the wallaby jumped over the fence and the turtle got locked in the kitchen. And when the birds came back they saw the turtle had got away because the birds left the door open and the turtle escaped and he kept the bowl on his back and he went to the sea.

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse

Once upon a time there was a town mouse and country mouse, and town mouse came to the country to stay the night with country mouse and the town mouse didn't like the food in the country. The town mouse said I don't like the country come with me to the town. In the town there is lots of food, so the country mouse went but the cat came.

Nickie

Primary Class 9 - Mrs. J. Greenaway

Fleur Grantham

Back row

: Mrs. J. Greenaway, Lucy Squire, Sana Faruqi, Louisa Gilpin, Charles Fox, David Smith, Nicholas Carter,

Middle row

: Richard Hunt, Fraser Clark, Peter Ng, Christopher Lui, Richard Scott, Mark Egan, Max Woods,

Front row

: Madeleine Thompson, Joanne Pawson, Victoria Herrald, Helen Willers, Boel Bergfors, Natalie Futchter, Sylvia Payne, Ellora Nandi.

On the way home I hurt my knee.
 "How did you do it?" asked my friend.

well a wicked old witch she was sitting on a broom and she had a bag she put me in it but I punched a big hole in the bag and I jumped out and landed on the pavement and thats How I got my bad knee "Gosh" said pam.

Maddy
 Well I was on my way to the play ground and a robber was creeping behind me then he put me in a sack but I broke the sack with a knife then I fell to the ground and thats How I got my bad knee "Wow" said max.

Peter

"Well I was walking in the Zoo and I saw a Big furry bear and I called it furry

 bananas and it got so mad that it knocked me over and thats how I got my bad knee."
 "crumbs" said Nick.

Chris

"well I was on my swing and I saw a dragon coming down from the sky and it picked me up and took me to his cave but I had a coathanger and I hooked him to The cave and ran down the mountain but I fell down and thats how I got my bad knee crumbs said
 max.

Richard S.

well I was walking down the road when I saw a big hairy ghost. He came and grabbed me and I pinched him so he let me drop
 and thats how I got my bad knee. crumbs said Emma.

Fleur

Well, I was walking along the Pavement when a wicked fairy Picked me up and flew me to her garden. But I Pinched him and He let me go and thats how I got my bad knee.

Ellora

Well there's a hippopotamus and it came out of the river and it was going to eat me But I had a Rope and I made a lassoo and I caught it and it was so angry that it bumped me

but I got him and took him to the zoo. and thats
how I got my bad knee.

"Crumbs" said Nick. Richard Well I was walking down a Street when suddenly this Creepy clawed hand grabbed me
But I pinched it so hard that it Screamed and it let me go. I ran so fast I tripped and thats how
I got my bad knee. crumbs. said

Nicholas. Mark

Well I said, I was going to my home
there was a bat coming to catch me he had a bag with him. He put me in the bag then I opened the bag and then I hit the bat on his nose then he left me alone then I fell down so thats how I got my bad knee.

"oh gosh" said max. Sana

Well I walked past and a big dragon came sneaking out just the minute before I stepped in the house. It tried to take me to its cave but I stepped on its toe so hard that it dropped me and thats how I got my bad knee
"Golly" said Jane. Joanne

well, I was walking home from school one day.
when all of a sudden a great big eagle came swooping down from its nest and it grabbed me but I kicked it very hard. It screeched and then it dropped me
and thats how I got my bad knee. oh crumbs said
Helen. Nicholas

Well I said, once there was a big hairy spider and it picked me up with its sticky legs but I pulled one of the sticky legs out and it lost its stickiness and I fell to the ground and thats how I got my bad knee.

"wow" said Nicholas. Helen

Well I was on the school bus and the school bus went flying over a hill and it carried me a way to a desert and after that the bus driver drove me back to Hong Kong and when that happened
I had a big bump and I fell forward and that's how I got my bad knee. gosh said Helen Natalie

"well I was walking home and I met a ghost and it picked me up in its big white sheet and I tickled it and it laughed and wriggled and let me go and that's how I got my bad knee gosh said madeleine. Lucy

"well on the way home I saw a magician in the bushes and he had a black cape and a tall hat
he was going to turn me into a toad
but I ran and he turned my shoe into a toad and I tripped and that's how I got my bad knee. crumbs said
Richards. David

Well I was sitting in a field all of a sudden a big black unicorn was running towards me. it darted me on the knee but I had 2 big clothes pegs and I put 1 on his nose and 1 on his bottom and he didn't like that so he ran away and
that's how I got my bad knee. "gosh" said Helen. Sylvia

Well I was outside I saw a crocodile it bit me on my knee
I hit him on his head and he ran away and that's how I got my bad knee. Gosh said Tave Boel well I was walking on the hills and I saw a dark and spooky cave then a Dracula came out of the cave and it grabbed my butt I stepped on its toe then he let me go with a bump
and that's how I got my bad knee.
Crumbs said Martin. Charles

Well I Went to Ocean park
I was on the cable cars and the door opened and I fell and landed on a tall, jagged rock and that's how I got my bad knee"
Well" said Robert. Fraser

Well I said When it was 8-0 clock I went to Brushed my teeth When I put the top on a huge and vast creature came out it look like a huge and furry toothbrush and it ran after me and it caught me but I called it a name, bat-winged feather and it was so mad that it dropped me and that's how I got my bad knee. "Crumb's" said Nicholas. Victoria

"Well I was walking

home and a big eagle came down and picked me up. I pulled all the feathers off him and the eagle was so cross and couldn't fly The eagle was dead. We both fell crashing to the ground and That's how I got my bad knee. crumbs said sam. Louisa

Well I was Walking down the street and a wicked angry ferocious flying dragon came. He pickd me up in his Slimy claws but I called Him a pussy and he Screeched and he was So-So-So angry that he dropped me to the ground with such a hard bump and that's how I got my bad knee
Crumb's said Jo. Max

Primary Class 10 - Mrs. P. Robinson

Clare Buttery

Dugald Pollitt

Edward Mundy

Back row

: Mrs. P. Robinson, Darran Jones, Melissa Pearson, Sophie Bolland, Nathan Evison, James Payne,

Middle row

: Jason Keen, Philip Williams, Brian Snelling, Francesco Zancanaro, Brendan Strobl,

Front row

: Madeleine Boshier, Maria Fogelfors, Hannah Biggs, Meghan Fenn, Lindsay Ellis, Kate Smith.

Exploring Time

Narnia Time

I was walking along on the street doing my morning shopping when I realized what time it was. I rushed to the nearest telephone I could find and without looking what box I was going to, I sat down inside a time machine. Still without thinking what the box was called I dialed my number but that number to the time machine was to tell the machine to go back into the past. I looked at my watch it was one pm. Suddenly I froze and I felt shivers going up my legs then into my body and my arms and then head and then all the shiver went away I felt myself turning upside down I looked at my watch only I second had gone past and I appeared in Narnia. I stepped out of the box and realised that it was a time machine. I saw a man and women walking towards me. I asked them, "Why are you dressed in those clothes?" I said "You must be in the past," "Yes!" said the man. The man took me to his home and gave me a hot cup of tea. We talked for a long time then suddenly I looked up at his grandfather clock, "I have to go!" I said and made my way back to the time machine.

Clare Buttery

News Time

It was news time. The man on the news said that strange messages were coming from Pluto. Suddenly the T.V. turned blank. I opened my closet and got my robot out. We jumped on my bed, then my bed turned into a space ship and the space ship took off. Trusty the robot said "We are getting close to Pluto!" Crash! We landed on Pluto. Then we found that we were in a monster town. "Trusty! Look out!" We went over to the Monster. When we got there we found that it was a time machine. We went head over heels back home. I want to be a space man when I grow up and fly in a Saturn B1 to Pluto.

Jim Payne

Chinese New Year

Once upon a time I went out to play with my friends in my garden in England. Just then my friend called out and said, "Let's go on a boat." When we were on the boat a shiver went around it and one of the boys shouted out. "Look we are back in the past," and the boat was an olden day junk, it even had sails. The sails were about 5 metres high. I looked around and it was Chinese New Year in HONG KONG. The view was fantastic. There were flags, flowers and orange trees. It was a new country for me and I loved it. Fire works were going and I was in the harbour. Just then someone from another boat gave me a laisee packet and said "Kung Hei Fat Choi," it was a Chinese man. I saw lots of other boats watching the fire works. Chinese people have celebrated Chinese New Year for a long time. After the fire works I went to buy an orange and just as I ate the orange, I came back to England and I was on my boat again.

Darran Jones

The Time Machine

It was 8:30 p.m. and I remembered to phone up my Granny. Our telephone didn't work so I had to go outside and use the outside telephone, it was in a box. As soon as I got in it, it started to move, it got faster and faster. I looked out of the window. There were girls in clogs and long black dresses with pinafores over their long black dresses. The boys wore knickerbockers and stiff collars. I thought that it would hurt their feelings if I laughed, but then I remembered that they couldn't hear me. Then suddenly BANG! I was down on the ground it was all muddy, but luckily I had brought my boots. I walked over to the nearest house and looked in at the window. I saw the stove with bread and cakes in it. There were people washing in tubs and they wore sack aprons. That's funny I thought, then I turned around and I was in my room.

Hannah Biggs

I Wish

I wish I could go in a rocket
My Daddy said, "Come with me."
I got into it, "Wear this suit."
I said, "Good bye," and took off.
The first stage fell off.
The controls went wrong oh! oh!
I fell out of the rocket, and went into time.
I saw a robot . . . . .
He was waving his hand and running to me,
He said, "Hey who are you?"
"My name is Jason, What's your name?" "Rusty," he said.
Oh! he had a clock on his tummy and a clock face and square shoes.
"Come with me and have a ride in my buggy."
He took me to the land of robots
They were all busy on clocks for their homes.
"I have got to get home."
"Can't you stay?"
"No, I have no time!"

Jason Keen

Happy Times

January 16th

It was January and it was morning and it was my birthday and it was Sunday. My Mummy and My Daddy came in and they said. "We have got a present," and I started to get excited and I tore the paper open and it was a real Time Machine. I knew it was a real Time Machine not a toy. I got into the Time Machine and I went to sleep and I did not know I was flying back into the past. When I woke up I was in my Time Machine but when I got out I saw a school in the past. They were writing on a slate. The bell went and it was playtime. There is a fence between the girls and the boys playground and the girls do not get to play with the boys and the boys do not get to play with the girls. Look at the children! They have got boots on and look what they are eating. Oh! they are eating bread and cheese and a bottle of cold tea. Oh! my Time Machine said that I have to go home. I went to sleep and my Time machine went home to my house and when I woke up I was in my bed and my Mum and my Daddy came in and I went down and opened my other presents.

Melissa Pearson

Take Off

Once upon a time I was riding my bike. I saw that I was on the run way. An aeroplane was going to take off and suddenly it got hold of me. I was climbing to the top of the aeroplane and I had a good view and then I heard the captain say that we were going to land in 5 minutes in Hong Kong. When we turned around the hill and I saw that it was in the past I saw the Chinese junks. I had a ride in a rickshaw. It took me to the Peak and I looked down to the lights and I was riding my bike again in the present.

Philip Williams

How Time Flies!

One night I woke up at midnight and I looked at my clock and suddenly something happened. I can't be can I? I was up in the air. I looked at my watch and at once my watch changed. It was 9 pm, and then my clothes changed. I was in a long dress and then I landed in Narnia and I saw a woman from the past. Then I got confused, but then I was OK. The Lady said, "You're not in your time." "Pardon me", I said "Goodness", and then in a flash I was home and I said, "there is no time like the Present!" and the clock chimed twelve and it was midnight again.

Meghan Fenn

Happy Times

Kellett School
2 Wah Lok Path
Wah Fu Pokfulam
Hong Kong
4. 2. 87

Dear Caroline,

My name is Madeleine. There is no snow here, because it is too hot. We start school at 8:50 a.m. I have got hazel eyes and my birthday is May the 6th and I am seven years old and my favourite hobby is writing and drawing too. I have got a brother called Edward and he is three. We go to school on the bus. It is quite warm here. We have lunch at 12.15 pm and we go home at 3 o'clock. We all have to wear a uniform. The girls wear a red and white checked blouse with a short sleeved grey dress. They also wear socks or tights with either red, black, brown, grey or white shoes. It gets light at 6 o'clock and it gets dark at 7 o'clock in Hong Kong. You are 8 hours later than us with your time. My favourite time is art time. Please write back.

from Madeleine Boshier

Journey Into Space

I woke up at midnight and looked at the clock and as soon as I looked at it, I heard a rumbling sound. I looked out of the window, but everything was still. In my room my toys started floating around, and then I went to my Mum and Dad's bedroom and I found my Mum and Dad were asleep. Then I saw I was an astronaut and so were my Mum and Dad. I saw that my home was a space ship and we were in space. The space ship had a forward swept wing and it had stabiliser fins at the front. I went to the cabin and found a robot was steering it, so I said, "Robot what is your name? Please would you let me drive?" and the robot said, "My name is Bleep, I will let you drive because you are my master. We are going in to a future space station." Then I saw a hollow glass circle, I asked Bleep if that was the space station and Bleep said "Yes."

There was a runway to land on. So I landed the space ship and when we had landed a hatch opened and we jumped down and walked down the apron and went down another hatch in the ground and we were inside the space station. Bleep told me that I would be an astronaut when I was 30. After that I was back in the present. Then I went to sleep.

Brian Snelling

Traditions From The Past

It was Christmas and I went down to look at the Tree. I looked up at the angel and I watched her for a whole hour. Then I was in the past and it was Christmas 1900 and I went outside and found some children and they came to be my friends and they invited me for Christmas supper and I said, "Thank you very much I would love to."

I went with them and we had chicken and we had Christmas pudding and they had silver coins and charms in the pudding and I was lucky. I got one of them, and I wished on it and I was back in my bed at home.

Lindsay Ellis

I Like Being 7

I went to sleep and I woke up and I heard a funny noise it was the cupboard. I went into the cupboard it was the lion from "The Lion, the witch and the wardrobe". I met someone called Francesco. He was 20 years old. It was me at 20. I was very big and I had big hands and big feet. I said good bye and walked back through the cupboard into my room. I am glad I am still only 7 years old. I had a piece of cake and I went to bed. In the morning I saw my Dad and my Mummy and we had breakfast.

Francesco Zancanaro

A Drop In Time

I was looking at my cuckoo clock. I was so sleepy I closed my eyes. The floor gave way. I fell into a box and zoomed into the sky and whizzed. I was very dizzy. It stopped. I started falling. I found out I was in the past. Just then I fell onto the beach. I changed into my swimming costume trunks. I ran to the water, the people were staring at me, I discovered that you weren't allowed to show your legs. The other people were wearing lots of clothes so I ran back up the beach and looked at my watch and I was back at home. I said I would never sleep on the floor again!

Brendan Strobl

Time Exchange

Once upon a time I went out to play with my next door neighbour. We were going on a Junk with all our friends. It was midnight and it was Chinese New Year. We went to the harbour, then the fire crackers went off. We went on the junk. As soon as we had got on the junk it lifted into the air and landed in 1922 and the fire crackers went off again and it was still Chinese New Year because their new year is always after ours in January. They were having a party and they were wearing Chinese pyjamas. I looked at my watch and the Roman numbers said XII o'clock 1987 in January. I was back in the present.

Kate Smith

Exploring Time

It was 1987 when I woke up in the morning at 9:30 and found a sort of a square thing. It looked like a time machine. I decided to investigate, so I went in, suddenly the door closed. I shouted for help, but it was no use, the time machine took off and I went back into the past. Then suddenly, it stopped and the doors opened and there I was. I was in the middle of the past. I went out to look around myself. Then suddenly I felt someone pulling my dress, and when I looked down, I saw it was a little baby girl and she wanted her mother so she said, "MY MUMMY MY MUMMY". When she'd stopped crying, I lifted her gently up and carried her home where she belonged, and she belonged to a rich family. They lived in the South of Sweden. It was 1887, a hundred years ago, and it was winter time and it was freezing and very cold. Some of the people were ice skating on the frozen water, some were standing on one leg. The ladies wore long dresses and lace-up-boots. I could hear the muffin man with his bell and the people who wanted muffins would come out and buy some. The muffin man had a ring on his head. Do you know why he has that ring on his head? To keep the tray from falling off. Then I was back in Hong Kong and it was summer time.

Maria Fogelfors

Once Upon A Time

I went to sleep one night, when I woke up the next morning I rubbed my eyes and I saw that my bed was in a different country. Then I saw an old man and old lady. I ran up to them and asked if they knew where I was, they said, "Yes, you are in the world of Narnia."

"Oh! Well, thank you I really must be going back to earth,"

"Oh no you must stay, all the people who come to Narnia must stay, you must help fight the wicked witch. She thinks she's good but she's bad and it is always cold and winter here. She lives on the top of that hill over there." So I set off with the old lady and old man, until we came to the top of the hill. Then the lady said to me: "If you can frighten the old witch she will disappear into thin air. You can scare her with this lion-skin." So the old man and old lady hid, and I knocked on the door, and I scared her. Then I looked at my watch and I was home and it was Spring.

Sophie Bolland

The Telephone Machine

I opened the door and went out side, it was cold so I got a jumper. I looked at my watch it was 11 am January the 17th and I just remembered that I had to ring one of my friends. So I rushed outside and went into the telephone box and rang 559112 and suddenly Shivers! The telephone box lifted up into the sky. I had a good view. The cars looked so small they looked like little toy cars.

I looked at my watch again it said 12:00. One hour had gone and then the telephone box fell right down to earth and I was back in the present. It was Chinese New Year. Everyone was celebrating. They were lighting joss sticks and cleaning their homes and they were buying orange trees to decorate their homes. Kung Hei Fat Choi!

Nathan Evison

Clock Experiments

Today Mr. Marshall came in, and started talking about the water clock. To make the water clock, we had to use papercups, and some little pins. Then we made some holes in the papercup. If you made a big hole you would get the water going down very fast, but if you made a little hole it would go slowly. Then we sticky-taped the papercups to the frame. Then we poured the water into the first papercup, we had to make a mark with a felt tip. We tried to use yoghurt cartons, but the bottom was raised, so when it was at a level it didn't go down the hole. So now we are going to heat up a needle and make a hole in a flat bottomed yoghurt carton and try again. It was a great experiment.

My conclusion was that it was not accurate at timing, and our modern clocks are much better.

Dugald Pollitt

Measuring Time

We have made a water clock and candle clock and I have a loud, loud alarm clock and a game watch. My sister Isabel got a watch for Christmas.

In the olden days they wrote: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 like this: I II III IV V VI VII VIII IX X XI XII in Roman numbers. The candle clock has pins stuck at intervals down the candle to show the hours. The water clock is made out of yoghurt cartons. They have holes so the water can get through. We have just been upstairs onto the roof to mark the shadow of the sun on our sundial. The shadow is made from the stick. We have got a sand clock in the classroom. We time ourselves with it when we are doing our work. The conclusion is, new clocks are better than old clocks at keeping the time. I have just been in hospital for a long time.

Edward Mundy

Primary Class 11 - Mrs. T. James

Back row	:	Mrs. T. James, Antti Ahtiluoto, Johane Royds-Jones, Johan Martinsson, Jennifer Hochstetter, Timothy Crawshaw
Middle row	:	Nathalie Goddard, Claire Dungey, Mark Evetts, Stephen Masters, Dale Rees, Graham Elliott
Front row	:	Juliet Fisher, Luisa Allen, Katherine Marshall, Carolyn Sizer, Alexandra Aldcroft, Alanna Boylan, Veronica Pepe.

Sights, Sounds and Smells of Wong Tai Sin Temple

Yesterday we went to Wong Tai Sin temple. We saw Chinese people praying with joss sticks and paper offerings. We saw big temples and little temples and oranges on trees. We smelled incense and joss sticks. We heard Chinese people shaking pots with sticks in the pot and the sticks had numbers on and we heard fire crackling and people calling. I saw peach blossom. The peach blossom was pink. People were burning pigs. Luisa got a windmill. We had lunch at Wong Tai Sin temple. There were ashes because of the cauldron. The cauldron had fire in it. Chinese people put paper in the cauldron.

Claire Dungey

Yesterday we went to Wong Tai Sin Temple. And we all had to go into groups and Jenny, Nathalie and Graham and Tim and I all went with my mum. The first thing we had to do was get the School Bus. And when we were at the M.T.R. we got a ticket. Then we put our ticket through a hole and there was another hole and it popped out and you took it out and you got through. Then we got the train to Mongkok and then we got off and got on to another train and then we got off. We were there. We went up some steps to a market and we went through the market to the temple. Then we got some money free as we went in. And the first thing we did was we saw a lot of temples and then we saw a temple that was open and there were peach blossoms. Then we saw a fountain but it wasn't working and it had two terrapins and some fish. And we went to see a big cauldron with fire in and people were burning stuff in it. Then we went to draw some things. Then we went for dinner.

And after dinner we were allowed to play and after that we went to the market. I got a windmill and then we had to go back to the train.

Luisa Allen

Yesterday we went to Wong Tai Sin Temple. When I went there all I smelt was the joss sticks, that was a strong perfumed smell and I saw the oranges and the peach blossom and all bright colours of the Temple. The colours are green and red. And I heard the crackling of the fire. When I walked past the fire it was very hot. And there was a cage with turtles. And people gave food to the gods.

Nathalie Goddard

At the temple there was one big temple and lots of little temples. And lots of flowers. There was peach blossom and orange trees and there were turtles in this big rock. We saw people praying to God and we saw pigs and fruits. And I saw some fire in a cauldron I heard the shaking of the chim and laughter, fire crackling and people calling. I smelled oranges and joss stick incense.

Jenny Hochstetter

When we got there I smelled orange trees and joss sticks and after that we did some drawing and I did one of the house and the temple. Then I saw people praying and I saw ashes flying around. I heard the noise of the chim and the crackling of the fire. And after that we went back to school on the MTR and then we went on a bus and then we were back at school.

Stephen Masters

I saw people praying,
People trying to light their joss sticks
I heard people shaking the chim
I heard people laughing
I smelled roast pig
I smelled incense
I felt funny because of the incense
I felt the wind blow me
I saw plants
I saw men and women selling things
I felt as though I could fly
I also felt hungry.

Alanna Boylan

I saw a lady praying and orange trees. I saw the ashes from the fire floating in the breeze. I saw Peach blossom and offerings. I saw windmills blowing in the wind. I heard some sounds and these are the sounds I heard; shaking of the chim, people calling and fire cracking. I heard laughter too. I could smell oranges, joss sticks. I could smell the fire and flowers too.

Johane Royds-Jones

My group went to the temple and we sat and we drew the temple. I drew these fire pots. Then we looked around, looking at men shaking wish sticks and if you dropped two then you got two wishes.

Then we came back to school.

Johan Martinsson

We got to Admiralty then we took the M.T.R. . It was fun. Then we got off at Mong Kok and we got to Wong Tai Sin. We went through a market then we were there.

First we went to the rock garden. We saw some terrapins. We threw some money in it. Second, we went to a little temple, I drew a picture too. We had lunch.

Mark Evetts

This is how we got to Wong Tai Sin Temple. First we got on to a bus and it went to Admiralty, and then we got on to a train, and it went to Mongkok. And then we got on to another train and it went to the temple. Then we went through the market. And then we saw the temple. We went up this big hill and we went up and up and then we went to the right, and we went up two steps. And there was a fountain, and it had a big turtle and a little turtle. We saw some peach blossom, and we saw some orange trees, and Mrs. James drew orange trees. And we saw a wishing well.

Kathy Marshall

On Tuesday 27th of January the threes went on a trip to Wong Tai Sin Temple. It was very interesting. I saw a lady praying and saying something in Chinese so I couldn't understand what she was saying. I also saw a peach blossom next to an orange tree. I loved the Temples with their mysterious patterns and lines. At Wong Tai Sin Temple I also heard people praying.

I heard the shaking of the chim. I could smell oranges, pig and chicken and rice, tea, fruit and sweet smelling flowers too.

Carrie Sizer

We went to Wong Tai Sin Temple. I saw lots of people praying with joss sticks. Then we went to the big cauldron pot and people were throwing paper in it. I could hear it cracking. I could see the ashes rising in the breeze I could smell the joss stick and see all the colours - gold, red, blue and green.

Graham Elliott

First we went on a bus to get to Admiralty and then we went on the M.T.R. to Mong Kok it was about four stops till we were at Mong Kok. Then we switched trains to Wong Tai Sin and it was about five stops till Wong Tai Sin. Then we went in the market and to the temple and then Mrs. Wiltshire showed us where to meet for lunch. Then we all went off. When I went with Mrs. Rees we saw a temple and we saw people praying. Some people had joss sticks and some had chim sticks. The people who had the chim sticks shook the cup with some sticks in and the sticks in the cup have numbers on like eleven. Then when a number falls out they go to the fortune teller and she tells their fortune. But it is in Chinese.

Alix Aldcroft

At Christmas

I hear my Daddy
Playing on the organ,
And carols singing
And I hear bells ringing
And I see Christmas trees
And I see snow falling.
I see reindeer
I taste Christmas cake
I taste mince pies
I smell chocolate
I smell turkey
I touch a snowman
I touch snowflakes
I touch holly —
That's my Christmas.

Veronica Pepe

What Is It?

It has a plastic handle
It is sharp on the front
It's been used in the kitchen.
What is it?

A knife.

Antti Ahtiluoto

Kim's Game

First we looked at the tray for two minutes. Then Mrs. James took the tray away and we had to try to remember what was on the tray. Our team didn't win but we came second, but we knew all the answers.

Nathalie Goddard

A Sense of Christmas

I see all my Christmas presents
Under the Christmas tree
I see my mum putting a Christmas tape on the Walkman
I hear bells ringing and my Sister singing Christmas carols.
I taste my mum's turkey yum yum
I touch my stocking with sweets in it.
I smell chocolate
And the candle burning
That is how I like Christmas.

Carrie Sizer

Making Rubbings

I was in the first group with Mrs. Pritchard. We had a piece of paper and special crayons. The paper was thin. We found a place in the garden. Then we put a piece of paper down and rubbed on the paper with a crayon. We used one of the rubbings and drew a picture of an animal on it. We had to choose one of the twelve animals of the Chinese Zodiac. I chose a horse and a rabbit.

Johane Royds - Jones

A Sense of Christmas

At Christmas I see the turkey
I touch the holly on the wall
I hear the bells ring
And the carol singers outside my door.
I hear Father Christmas say "Ho, ho, ho,"
And I smell the candles burning
I touch my stocking and guess
What is in it.
I touch the Christmas tree
And I try to stay awake.
This is how I like Christmas.

Jenny Hochstetter

The Magic Eye

I was in the haunted castle. Suddenly a floating eye came through the window. It was red and sparkly. It came towards me so I ran out of the door. The eye came after me. I ran over to the side of the door and it went out and crashed into a tree and disappeared.

Dale Rees

Sights, Sounds and Smells of Bali

While I was on my holiday in Bali I saw some ladies carrying baskets on their heads. I saw van-taxis. I saw different people. Some of the men had long hair. I saw the barong, a made up play where the people wore masks. When we came out we saw children — I think they were orphans, selling flowers like pink tulips. In the fire dance the man was in a trance and he danced on the fire, his feet were swollen at the end. Some girls in a trance danced with their eyes closed but all doing the same movement at the same time. I heard the gongs clashing. When I went to watch the barong I heard music that was different to the music we listen to in Hong Kong. I smelt chips. They smelt like potato chips with potato inside. The hamburgers smelt spicy. I didn't like them.

Juliet Fisher

The Magic Eye

On Monday I went to Water World. I was on the biggest water slide when suddenly a great piece of iron cladding blocked the way. I used my magic eye to smash it to smithereens.

Then I saw one evil eye. When I started shooting at it, it flew back to its own planet. Soon it was in all the papers and I became very famous.

Graham Elliott

My Magic Eye

Only I have a magic eye - it is a very powerful one. I use it nearly all the time, I like doing it because it is a good eye. Once upon a time I met a horrible queen. She was really a witch. I put my magic eye on her to make her into a stone statue, and she became one. The next day I saw a beautiful princess with a raggedy dress. Then I put my magic eye on her to make her pretty.

Alix Aldcroft

Our Eyes Let Us See

Our eyes are very important because we don't slip on the soap and so we don't accidentally push anybody over, and so that you don't fall in the water when you are in a boat.

Antti Ahtiluoto

Our Rubbings

Well we found a rubbing and we put a piece of paper on top of the rubbing, and we got a crayon and rubbed the crayon on the piece of paper. I think that the best rubbing was the bumpy wood on the apparatus. Then we drew an animal of the Chinese Zodiac. We cut out the animal and we put it on a piece of red paper. I did a rat.

Claire Dungey

A Magic Eye

I was in my house when I saw a light in the sky. It was a kind of round shape. It was an eye of some sort. It was a big, big eye and it destroyed my house. I felt sad.

Mark Evetts

The Evil Eye

I went to school and it was song practice, and I saw an evil eye. It looked horrible and slimy and slithery. But I wasn't scared. I stood up and ran to the evil eye and it said, I will take you to the castle of bad luck and you will die there. But, but, I said, but no buts the evil eye said. Then he flew away and I never saw him again.

Kathy Marshall

Braille

Blind people read and write using the Braille alphabet. It was invented by Louise Braille, a Frenchman. We worked out our names using the Braille alphabet. Today Mrs. Masters has come in because she has brought her Braille typewriter.

Dale Rees

Playing the Feely Game

We played the feely game with Mrs. James. She had a bag with things in it and someone put their hand in the bag. They had to describe one thing. Mine was hard and it had spikes. It is a rectangle and you can open it out.

Johane Royds - Jones

How to Play Kim's Game

First you get a tray, then you get some things to put on the tray. Then you start the game. Someone goes out of the room. The person who goes out has to have a good look at the tray before they go out. When they've gone out you take three things from the tray. Then you invite them back in. Then they have to guess what things you've taken away from the tray.

Juliet Fisher

Stephen Masters

Good morning

Hi

Morn

Jambo

Goede morgen

Buenas dias

Buon giorno

Guten tag

Guten morgen

Dober dan

Goeie more

Anung Ha se Yo

Dia dhuit

Josun

Bonjour

God morgen

Magandang Umaga

Sawadee Dorn Shau

Back row

: Mrs. J. Wiltshire, David Hamblin, John-Paul Dunnett, Nina Poulsson, Jody Pritchard, Nicole van der Mije,

Middle row

: James Beattie, Thomas Ayres, Kenneth Shih, Dominic Johnson, Simon Shannon, Stuart Mackinlay,

Front row

: Oonagh McCarthy, Roisin Murphy, Alice Barty, Kirsty Bell, Phoebe Arcus, Stephanie Ryan, Anna Smith.

New Languages

Language/Languages

Mrs. Wiltshire reads us stories. Sometimes we sit on the cushions in the library for our stories and I like that best of all. When it is story time I sometimes forget where I am and I want to read it all.

Favourite authors

Roger Hargreaves
Rodney Peppe
Enid Blyton
Roald Dahl
Judy Blume
Otfried Preussler
Michael Rosen
Pat Hutchins
Shirley Hughes
Joan Aiken

We are authors. We wrote our own stories.
Sometimes our stories are happy.
Sometimes they are sad.
Sometimes they are true stories, and sometimes they are very, very scary.....

Mrs. Trimble has been teaching us about the library. We have heard the story of Mr. Dewey and we can find books in our library. I like the games we play. I look in the index to find my book.

Exciting language

Something Strange

I looked at my window. Outside there was a giant square-faced monster with long hair with spikes, and long teeth. I turned to ice.

I had big ears and it was hairy and slimy and bloody. It had a long nose and was fat, with a bloody body. I was still a piece of ice. My legs were ice and my arms were ice, and I was like a piece of jelly.

I was about to scream.

Thomas Ayres

There was a great big dragon. It could shrink. It grabbed me out of my bed. It had shrunk to the size of a very little dragon so it could not be seen. Now this dragon was wanting a meal for a long time and then he got out his pan. He put some pepper in and then he got some more boys and girls and dropped them all in and he ate them all up, and that was the end of them and the octopus.

Roisin Murphy

Outside there was a number 9 monster. Eye juice was falling and his blood was pouring out. It had big ears. It was green, with one arm. He was happy but nice. He liked to be ugly.

Anna Smith

There was a monster shaped like a sausage, with big eyes and blood streaming down his eyes, and sharp claws and sharp teeth. He had blood around his head. He was coming towards me. I couldn't just lie there, so I jumped out of bed and ran downstairs....I was screaming so the monster ran away.

Stephanie Ryan

There was a horrible figure, well two horrible figures in fact. It was so horrible I nearly fell to bits. I'll tell you what it looks like. Well, it was big and fat and he had a pale blue nose and his ears and mouth were very purple. His eyes were green. He blew through one of his fingers. There was no sound, but something happened-but I don't know what.

Oonagh McCarthy

There was a giant tiger with three eyes. It was a monster, with snakes for the hair. It had got three heads and bloody claws. It had got twenty legs, with a slimy bloody body. I saw that the monster had a hairy head. The last head was the scariest head you ever saw.

Kenneth Shih

There were two lions...but wait a second. It seems to have changed. Why, it looks like something out of a movie! Why, it has two glowing red eyes and long purple ears, with a long blue nose and very, very long ferocious teeth. It seems to be coming thi.....!

Kirsty Bell

There was an ogre with two brown sharp fangs, and pointed ears, and big blue staring eyes. There was blood dripping from his mouth and he had sharp black claws and sharp teeth. I ran to the lounge and got a ladder, then I got the keys and climbed down the ladder and into the car. Then I ran him down.

David Hamblin

Outside there was a monster. It was big and chubby and it had a big scary face. It had gynomous hands and it had very long legs. He was very big, with blonde hair. I had to scare him away. Then he put his hand in the window and I picked up a stick and hit him. He went away.

James Beattie

There was a werewolf with one eye and teeth as big as the Empire State building, with people on his teeth. Half his body was full of snakes and the other half of his body had slime and blood and heads. In his 8000 hands he had swords, so I jumped out of the window. The werewolf said "You fool!"

Stuart Mackinlay

Exciting Language

Air Emergency

We fastened our seat belts. The 'plane took off. We were climbing higher. Suddenly there was a bang.....

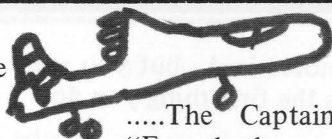

.....We heard the Captain and he said "Keep calm and fasten your seat belts. Do not smoke." I looked out of my window and saw a fire. I went to the door and I saw more fire, and I ran to another door but there was a bang. We landed and we went to the fire escape and I ran out of the plane.....

Simon Shannon

.....Then the Captain said one of the engines has died. Then he said "We will have to go back to Kai Tak." We had to put our head in our laps and our hands round our ankles. Then we landed. There was a bump. Then the Captain said something but I didn't hear. Then I saw red, yellow and orange. I knew what that meant FIRE!

I undid my seat belt and ran to the fire escape and slid down the slide. I ran to the airport. I was safe!.....

Dominic Johnson

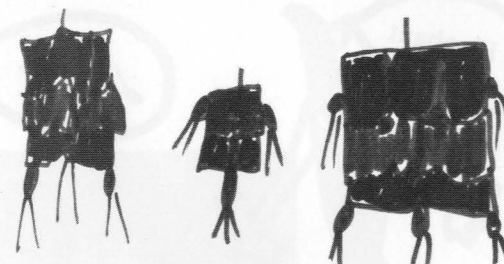

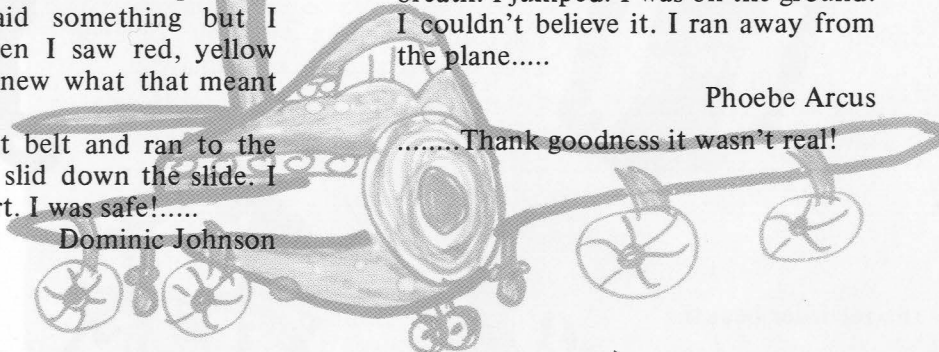

.....The Captain said "Keep calm. "Everybody was very scared. I looked out. I saw a fire on the engine. It spread. The lights were zig-zaggy. I was very scared. The Captain said we had to go back to Kai Tak. We got there just in time and everybody got off in time....

John-Paul Dunnett

.....The Captain said to be calm. One of the engines was not working. We were going to turn back to Kai Tak. After a while I saw a fire outside, then suddenly we landed. The hostess said to go down the chute. It looked a long way down. I took a deep breath. I jumped. I was on the ground. I couldn't believe it. I ran away from the plane.....

Phoebe Arcus

.....Thank goodness it wasn't real!

Chinese New Year

I smell fires from far around burning brightly with crackling sounds.

I see fires burning so gay,
It looks so nice I'd like to stay.

At Chinese New Year the people pray.
They burn gifts to gods to thank them for the year.

Jody Pritchard

I see people praying and giving the gods all the food. The food is pig, duck and vegetables and lots of other things too. They pray with joss sticks. Oh, I must not forget the smell. It was a smoky smell. Lots of people talking, and I see the special colours. They are green and red and gold.

Nicole van der Mye

Computer Language

Factfile

We did some Factfile investigations. We had to load the file and then ask questions to find the information we wanted. First we had to answer Mrs. Wiltshire's questions then we had to think of some of our own.

Jody

Factfile

We made our Factfile from our Body facts sheets. We had to give the computer lots of information about ourselves. We decided the headings we wanted and we typed it ourselves. Now we can look at a file and we can ask questions too.

John-Paul

Crash

I like to play Crash. It's a good game but you can get muddled up very easily. You have to remember what you have told the computer to do.

Stuart

I can do sums on the computer. I can do adding sums with tens and units, and I get them all right. It's fun!

Kenneth

Cunning Running

Cunning Running is a computer game. It is a fun game. There are markers and sometimes they are hidden in the forest. You are only allowed two moves on open ground. We had a competition to find the champion.

James

Cunning Running

Cunning Running is a fun game. You need to know North, West, South, East. There is a forest and a cliff. There is open ground, a road, a swamp. When the game is over you see the chart. You look at the score and see how many mistakes you made, and how many markers you have found.

Nicole

Musical language is fun !

I wonder if I'll ever be able to play my recorder really well.

Kirsty

I practised to my budgies, they started to sing with me.

Simon

I have written some real music for Mrs. Evans and I can play it!

Anna

I think I will play the recorder beautifully. I can't wait!

Stephanie

Mummy thinks it's great that I'm learning the recorder.

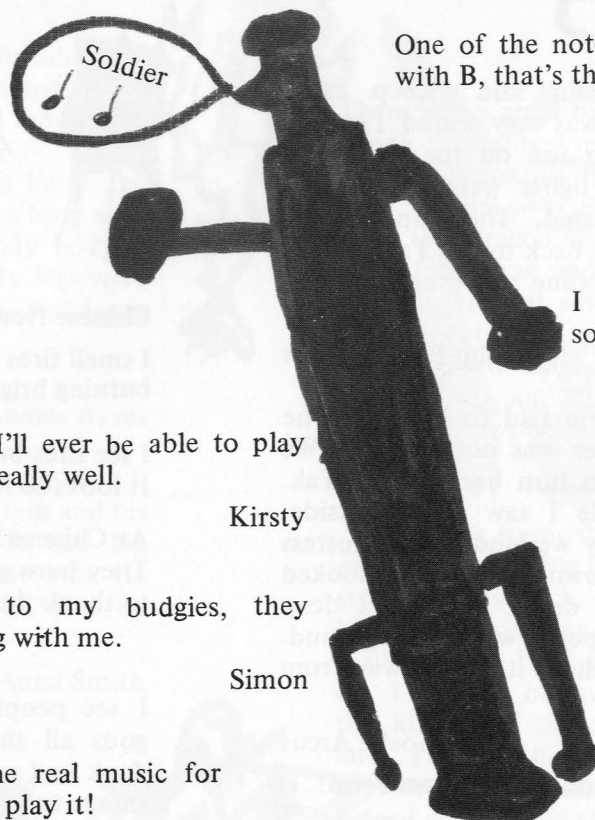

Nina

I took my finger off by mistake. I know what D is though.

David

I play every day. My Mummy and Daddy listen to me.

Thomas

One of the notes is A, but you start with B, that's the first thing you do.

Phoebe

I practised in the bathroom. It sounded lovely and I got it all right.

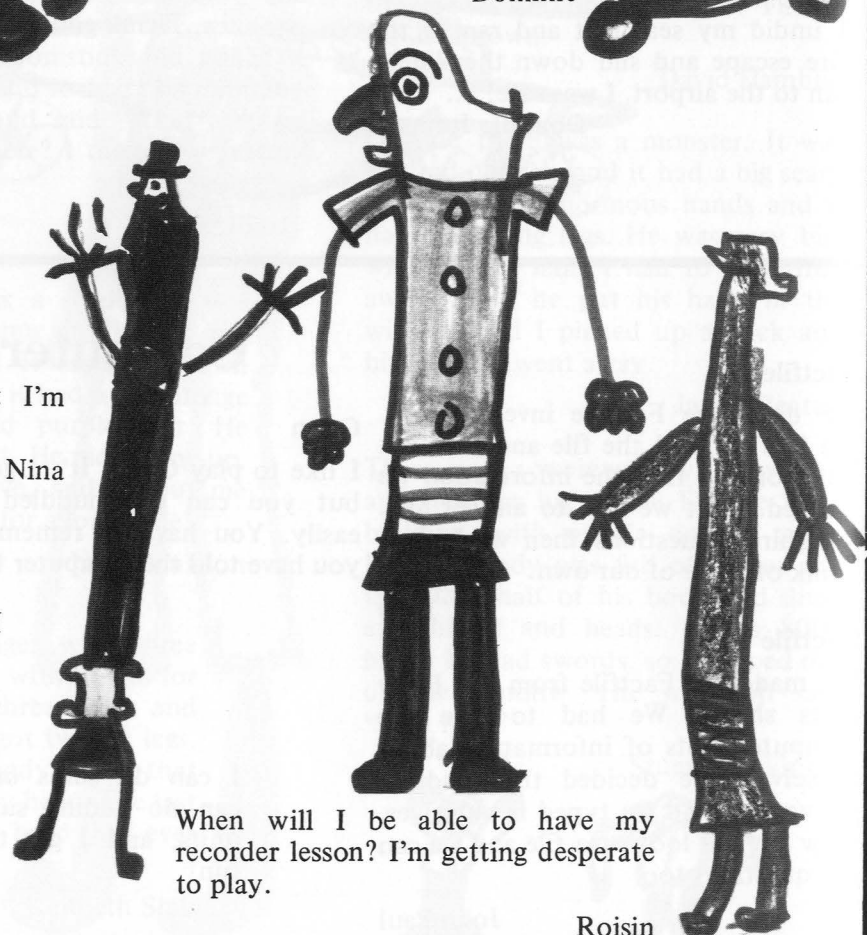

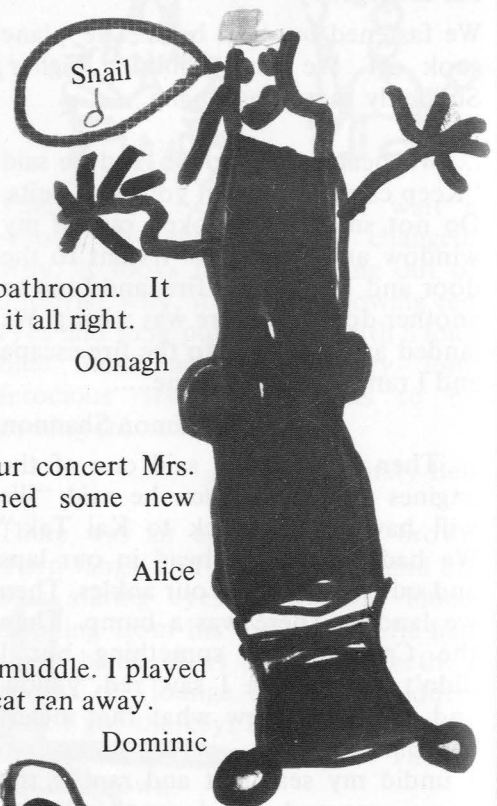

Oonagh

Come and listen to our concert Mrs. Wiltshire. We've learned some new notes.

Alice

I get my fingers in a muddle. I played a big squeak and my cat ran away.

Dominic

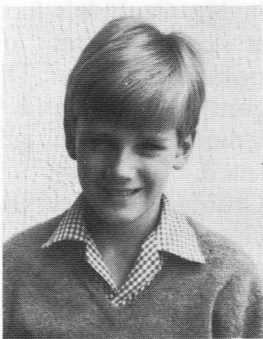

When will I be able to have my recorder lesson? I'm getting desperate to play.

Roisin

Primary Class 13 - Mrs. V. Barker

Paul Ziegenhardt

Back row

Middle row

Front row

: Nicola Evans, Alana Perkins, Clare McDowall, Lisa Hunt, Barnaby Nelson, Magnus Granander, William Wong

: Marc Street, Cameron Osborne, Julian Murphy, Richard Andrew, James McCamey, Matthew King, Richard Tootill,

: Eleanor Bayliss, Sally Wetten, Hilda Stoppa, Ming Ming Thompson, Shevaun Porter, Isabel Mundy, Kirsty Royce.

The Planet Crystal

The History of Crystal

In a far away galaxy there was a planet called Crystal. It had all different kinds of animals and one was called the Blue Bleeper.

The planet used to be a place of fields and swaying flowers. One of the flowers was called the Crystal flower. The Crystal flower had silver leaves and silver roots that poisoned the Blids.

The beauty of the planet was destroyed by Grubble. Grubble went to the Crystal planet to get the sap from trees to make bubble because he loved bubble gum. Grubble built hotels, cafes, shops and factories. He destroyed the planet by pulling up all the flowers.

Rumala hid the last Crystal flower and left a message in the sky for her follower who would take her place and try to save the planet.

by Cameron Osborne

The Centre

The Centre was built by Super Jim. It was built to protect the Crystal Planet and the computer that Super Jim had made. Super Jim put his computer and equipment, which the government had put some money towards, in the Centre.

The Centre is a building that is pale brown. It has no windows and one pipe going up the side. There is one steel door saying "No Grubble Likers Allowed." There is a spy hole above the door.

Shevaun Porter

The Ruined City

The Ruined city is a place that is demolished, destroyed and totally wrecked.

The buildings have cracked windows and broken doors. Old rags cling on to the trees. Inside the buildings you see broken seats and tables, couches with springs coming out.

It's all dusty, brown and black. The earth shakes, the roofs fall. If you get under one it's the end of you.

Nicola Evans

CRYSTAL NEWS FLASH CITY DISASTER

At 10.30 am in the city, there are pits everywhere! The Blids have done it. They caused buildings to tumble down. Soon the whole city will be destroyed.

Children fall into the pits. Bricks fall down on people and they die. Soon tourists won't come to the planet any more. Mr. Camborn Smith said, "Oh!! Look at that house" and his wife said "Oh! It's been destroyed!"

We will show you the highlights of this disaster on our main news at eight o'clock.

Reporting for "CRYSTAL T.V."

William Wong

Grubbles Factory

The din, the clatter, Grubbles factory,
Dead, black, building,

Silhouettes against the overcast sky,
Footsteps .....

Grubbles Grabbers coming nearer,
Heart racing,

Danger near.

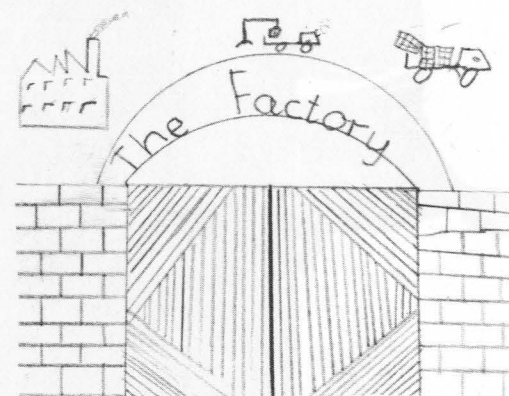

They turn back.

Dirt, polluted air

Footsteps quieter, quieter, quieter.

They're gone.

by Eleanor Bayliss

Inside Grubble's Factory

Clink, Clank, machines are working in Mr. Grubble's factory. The smoke is coming out of the windows polluting the air. The smell of bubble gum is all around the city. Lime, lemon, mint, a mixture of sweet smell.

Grubble's Grabbers are coming closer, closer and closer. I put on my disguise kit hoping that they won't recognise me. Luckily they didn't.

I sneaked into the room where the city pass was kept. It was in a box. The box was locked!

On No! Mr. Grubble was coming. I hid behind a box and when he went out I was able to get it.

I hid behind big bowls of bubbling bubble gum. I made my way out with the city pass.

Lisa Hunt

Crystal Personalities

Rumala

I am Rumala and I love plants more than the people who destroy the Crystal Planet. I feed the animals and they talk to me.

One day I was eating an apple when Blue Bleeper flew to me and said "Chuck, there are metal monsters eating up the planet, chuck." and flew away. I gasped, I went to investigate.

The monster was a bulldozer and there were cranes lifting up bricks to make a new building! The cranes were making a horrid noise like "CLANG, CLONK, BOWK, BANG" I couldn't stand the noise. I ran away. I tried to tell people that they were destroying Crystal but they wouldn't listen. I began to think of what to do and made a plan.

I went home and got some fertilizer, a magic gold pot, soil from different parts of the planet, and some magic water. I hid them and wrote some magic writing in the sky for my follower, whoever he might be. Lastly I hid the last Crystal flower and protected it with spells.

Ming Ming Thompson

POUNCERS

Pouncers lurk on the roads of Crystal. Sometimes they pounce on you but most of the time they leave you alone. When the Pouncers come there is this thump and bump and they appear on the road. They sometimes take your equipment.

Pouncers are red and when they jump their yellow top come off.

If you meet a pouncer you just hope that it will go away.

Sally Wetten

Mr. Grubble

Mr. Grubble is fifty-two and a half years old and he loves bubble gum. He has body guards to protect him and nobody liked him except his body guards and the Blids.

Mr. Grubble loves making money and bubble gum. He is as fat as five basket balls.

by Paul Ziegenhardt

Super Jim

I was born on September 14th 1878. When my mother saw me for the first time she was not worried but as I grew up she thought I was odd.

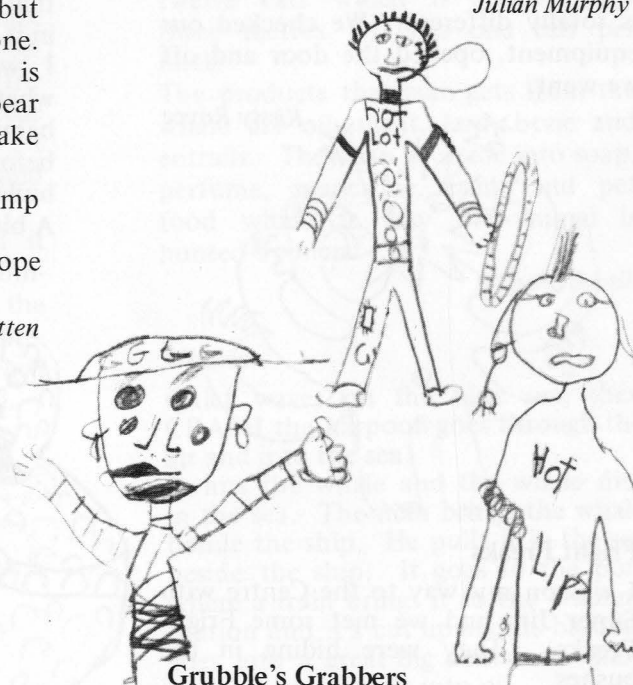

I was top of my class but everyone did not like me because I was odd.

I loved to go to museums and look at things. I also liked computer courses.

When I grew up I decided to save the planet from industrialists like Mr. Grubble and others.

Sometimes I see writing in the sky from Rumala Thompson because I am one of her followers. Nowadays I work in a building called the Centre. I let nobody in except my helpers.

Julian Murphy

Grubble's Grabbers

Grubble's Grabbers are nasty men, they all love bubble gum. They protect Grubble, catch people and make bubble gum.

The Grubble grabbers are almost as nasty as Grubble but they aren't as hated as Grubble is.

When you see Grubble Grabbers, they aren't dressed like normal guards they are dressed like punks.

Their worst enemy is Super Jim.

Magnus Granander

Adventure With Super Jim

I am Kirsty Royce and I am here to help Super Jim find the last Crystal Flower.

I started at Super Jim's Centre, the weather forecast said that it would be warm and dry so we took a drink. We chose to take a disguise and a fright stick so we could go into the factory without Grubble's Grabbers recognising us.

We took a Fright Stick which protects us from Fright Freaks and has a pointed end. Flames come out of the end when we see Fright Freaks.

A disguise kit is a kit with glasses and a moustache so your appearance is totally different. We checked our equipment, opened the door and off we went.

Kirsty Royce

Fright Freaks

I was on my way to the Centre with Super Jim and we met some Fright Freaks. They were hiding in the bushes.

One arm stretched out, two, three, four, five, six arms, all with scratchy claws. They were covered with brown scales like a fish. Their eyes were staring at me, red and green.

They went hiss and sucked air inside. They walked slowly and their eyes puffed in and out.

They needed energy, mine and Super Jim's.

We felt scared, we used our Fright Stick to save us.

Matthew King

In The City

I am Hilda Stoppa and I am helping Super Jim to find the things needed to grow the last Crystal flower.

We left the factory with the city pass and made our way to the Ruined City. It was in the distance and my heart was beating. I showed them the pass I could go in.

I crawled into one building and what was there? A black box with silver lines around it. It looked like a lie detector.

I crept into another building. Was that a sack? It had something funny in it. It was the fertilizer!!!!

I went into another building and what was this ugly creature? It was a baby Blid. I had to tell it a story before I could go into the next building but there was nothing in it. A block fell on my head and so I left.

Hilda Stoppa

What is a Blid?

Blids are the slimiest things on Crystal.

Blids are gruesome and green

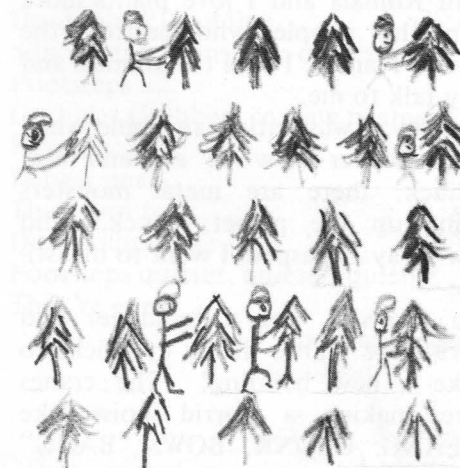

With bumps and lumps.

Blids burrow in the earth of Crystal.

Blids mine crystals and minerals.

Blids love bubble gum.

Richard Andrew

In The Forest

We have just come from the factory and are now going to the forest.

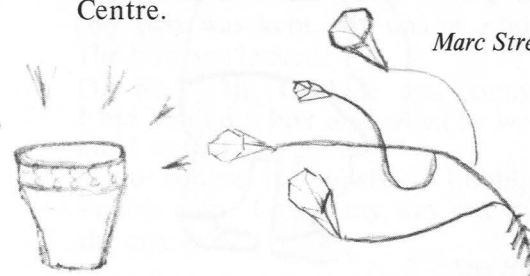

The forest looks very nice from the distance with all the lovely hills covered with greenery. We are hoping to find the gold pot.

In order to find the gold pot we must have the metal detector. The only problems are "Zap Gates" which will take you to anywhere in Crystal, Grubble's workers taking bubble gum sap from the trees and being transported to another part of the forest by magic.

We walked through the forest smelling the forest smells and carefully following our map. We stayed well away from Grubble's Grabbers by staying away from the noise they were making working.

Suddenly something bright caught our eyes. We had found the gold pot! We carried the pot back to the Centre.

Marc Street

Primary Class 14 - Miss C. Waugh

William Clark

Kersti Pritchard

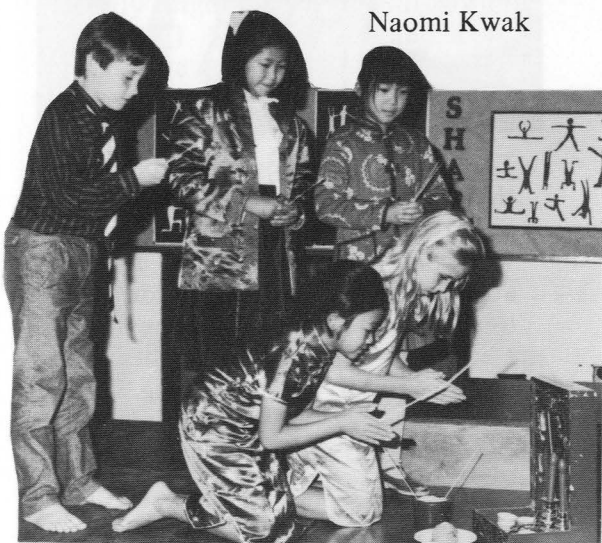

- |            |   |
|------------|---|
| Back row   | : Miss C. Waugh, Clare Smith, Pelle Porseryd, Simon Northway, Tony Sabine, Callum Ashdown, Ashley Neal,                           |
| Middle row | : Louise James, Naomi Kwak, Cameron Sim, Stephen King, Gavin Ramsey, Alexander Tancock, Philip Mott, Timothy Watson               |
| Front row  | : Jessica Ng, Megan Banigan, Leonie Roberts, Rebecca Morris, Caroline Watson, Leanne Masters, Nund Rudarakanchana, Clare Tyrrell. |

Chinese New Year Preparations.

My part in the assembly was being Grandma and I was cleaning the family shrine. I was cleaning the shrine for Chinese New Year's Eve when the family would worship their ancestors. I put out tea and wine in little bowls. I put out chicken, meat and oranges on dishes for the spirits. I also put out joss-sticks to burn on New Year's Eve. We burn the candles at the sides of the picture. In the evening the family will worship ancestors by bowing three times with the joss-sticks in our hands. We only take three joss-sticks each.

Naomi Kwak

Today we tasted Chinese sweets. We tasted lotus nuts, lotus roots, preserved kumquats and melon seeds. The lotus nuts were scrumptious, they tasted sweet on the outside and sort of crunchy in the inside. The lotus nuts tasted like mango. The preserved kumquats were unusual and the melon seeds tasted tangy, dry and bland. Lotus nuts are spherical, lotus roots are round. Preserved kumquats are spherical and melon seeds are oval. Lotus nuts mean hope to have sons, lotus roots mean good luck all year, preserved kumquats mean good health in all seasons and melon seeds mean lots of money.

Louise James

My table had melon seeds. First we wrote the meaning which is much money and then we did the shape. The shape was oval, the taste of mine was dry, bitter and icky-poooh. The next was preserved Kumquats and the next was lotus root and lotus nuts. My best one, even though you can see I did not like it very much, was melon seeds. I did not want to taste them again. If we have to do it again I hope we do it with chocolate. Oh! I forgot to tell you we did it for Chinese New Year. Leonie Roberts

In the play I was mother, I had to lay the table and prepare the food. When I checked the places I had to count out how many people in the family were coming and how many guests were coming. I had to lay a place for my father who had died because we always remember our ancestors on New Year's Eve.

At New Year's Eve I, and my own family had dinner together, we had dried oysters and they were very yummy and we had a dish with vegetables with no meat in it. We also had mushrooms, fish and chicken which was chopped and it tasted fantastic.

Jessica Ng

Long, long ago deep in China there lived an emperor. Every night he had a ghastly, frightening nightmare. His guards begged to go into his room to keep the evil spirits away. That night the emperor slept soundly. He decided that instead of having his guards in his room, he ordered some pictures of them in full armour to be put on the door. Every night after that he slept soundly. Soon everybody in the castle had them. After a while they spread all over China until now.

Gavin Ramsey

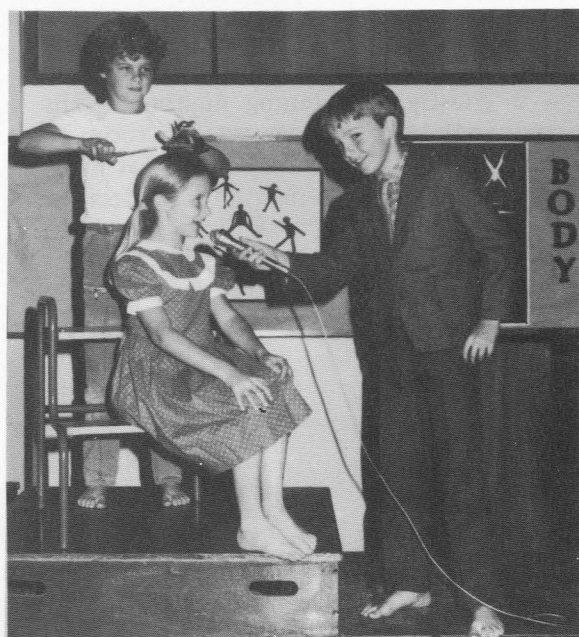

Hello I'm a Chinese lady I am in this market for a reason. I am buying special food for Chinese New Year. Lettuce will bring Chinese people expanding wealth, in Chinese it's called sung-choi. We also drink wine for merriment. Dried oysters bring good fortune and wealth. There is also some food called fut-choi and kum. Fut-choi is a vegetable and means growing prosperity and kum is an orange, it means gold and Chinese people eat this on New Year's Eve. Also we decorate our homes with flowers some of them are dahlias and chrysanthemums. They are normally red for good luck and yellow for money. We also have gladioli and white jonquils.

Leanne Masters

Thoughts, Feelings and Fears!

It was 10:00, the bell rang, line by line the children came in and the whole school came in. In one blink it started. We started singing. I was afraid, but it was not for me, it was for the class because loud singers like Gavin, and Ashley thumping on the wood block, were all so loud that if they did do something wrong everybody could hear them. When it was my turn I went red in the face and when I was saying it I felt something heavy dropping in my head and making me forget things. There was also a thump, thump. The thump came from my heart. When I finished I thought it was easy and wanted to do it again but there was one thing I didn't like, my mummy couldn't come.

Rebecca Morris

It was 8:05 the bus left. We got to school it was 9:00. We went to the classroom and then we got dressed for our assembly and got into our starting positions. Oh no, the bell rang. Class 4 came in and then all the other classes and my mummy and daddy came in. Then we were singing. Oh no it's my turn! My stomach turned upside down, I did not want to look at my mummy and daddy because I was nervous and scared. My turn now, I have to remember my words. Oh good I remembered my words. I said them with no worries but I am sad because it's all over.

Megan Banigan

Ten o'clock arrived, the bell rang. The parents came in, they sat down, five more classes came in. Our play began. I felt very nervous. It came to my part. I went on, I felt sick. I didn't look at my mum and my uncle because I would laugh out loud. Just then I spoke and I didn't feel one bit nervous or sick but when the play was over I was glad to see my mum and my uncle. I liked the play a lot and my mum and my uncle liked it too.

Timothy Watson

Ten o'clock arrived, the bell rang, I jumped on to the stage I was feeling hot. The play began, after a while it was my turn. My heart was beating faster and faster. I went on to the stage. The people were all looking at me. After my part was over I was glad I made it and it was playtime.

Philip Mott

Ten o'clock arrived, the bell rang, this was the start of my death! When I spoke in the barber's shop, I knew I was going to get it wrong. I looked at Pelle, he smiled. I couldn't help looking at my mum, she smiled but I couldn't smile back. My heart was beating faster than anything. Thank God it was over. I felt proud of myself going through all that agony!

Simon Northway

It was 10 o'clock this was it! This was the last play I had in Hong Kong. It was the grand finale of my life. But who cares about that! We're talking about a simple play! Well anyway although I have wasted 6 lines, on it goes! In we came, this was it! Although I felt normal, I was not sure about Gavin because he might shout too loud in his part. I said my part (and my other part) and that was it. The Rabbit raffle was drawn (I didn't win, by the way) and after the photos were done, I was glad. Not to say that I was frightened just that I was hot. Oh by the way I HATE TIES! but I had to do it anyway.

William Clark

"Good evening. Tonight for your information and interest we have an actor from KTV STUDIO, Miss Rudarakanchana. I'm sure our KTV viewers would love to know how you felt." "Well let me start then. First as I approached the stage people were taking pictures. I lifted the sign. I felt nervous and shaky, my nose twitched, my eyes blinked several times, red triangles flickered. I lead off stage, I felt that the world was going to end. But it didn't. I was watching how well every one was doing. Could I do it too? Before I knew it, it was my turn. I nearly forgot my words. But before I realized, I had finished and I was singing like mad."

"Thank you very much. Now that ends our news flash. Good night."

Nund Rudarakanchana

Ten o'clock arrived. The bell rang. The classes were in the hall. The show started! I felt dizzy and stupid before the play. It was my turn to go on stage. I said my words and my heart was beating fast. Simon said his bit and I said "Trade is booming." Me and Megan still had to stay on stage then we went off stage and we sang China Town Dragon.

Pelle Porseryd

It's 10:00 a.m. The bell has rung. At last the moment I've been waiting for. I felt normal most of the time. When I was on my bit those faces were staring at me. They just looked like heads without bodies! But an audience never scares me like most of class 14! It scared me when I was little, it just takes time to get used to it. All you have to do is over resist your fear and then you don't feel dizzy or faint or sick like most of class 14!

Tony Sabine

It was 10.05 . . . take one, scene 2, I was on the air. Before I start this interview, I'd better tell you about myself. Hemmmmm! My name is Callum Ashdown. I am a great actor. Now on with the show! We were on the stage. I started fiddling with my tie. After we had sung the first song I went to my position. William said his part. Soon it was my turn, I felt giddy. I said my part. It took almost no time at all. When it was over I was so disappointed because I wanted to do it again.

Callum Ashdown

It was ten o'clock, the bell rang, the sound came back to me as I stood there in my own world far, far away. Then Mrs. Tyrrell's class came in, the footsteps one by one coming back to me one, two, and on and on. The whole school came in. The music began, I sang, the play began. It was up to the class. A bee's nest was in my tummy. It was my turn, it was up to me to be a good crying girl. I looked at my mummy, her eyes came into my mind as I said my words. Then I finished. I walked off, everybody laughed. Why me? Was I funny? Was it my acting or did I do a mistake? What did I say? What was I? Where am I? I was very confused. It finished. I sang without thinking. The Rabbit Raffle began, the winning name came up,

I HATE RICHARD!

Clare Tyrrell

Ten o'clock arrived. The bell rang, and the school children came into the hall and I could not look at my mummy because it would make me laugh out loud.

During the show, at my bit, I did something wrong and I felt silly but the audience didn't know. After the play I felt happy.

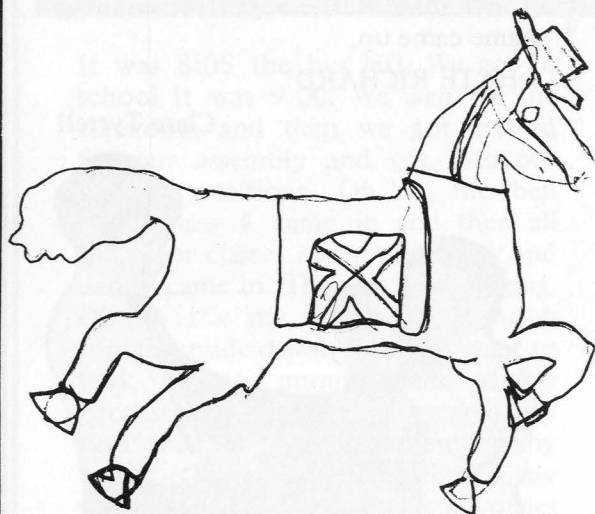

Stephen King

Chinese Signs.

I am a Horse according to the Chinese birth sign. A well known fortune-teller says that this will be an eventful year and you may move to another home or another place (country perhaps?) The horse years are 1930, 1942, 1952, 1966 and 1978. I am definitely moving to Singapore for ever but I don't want to move because I will miss everyone. I would like to move to England and have my friends to live in the same road and go to the same school. Also my wish is that my house in Singapore will move to England because my garden and house is big. Well I think that is enough events for a year don't you?

Ashley Neal

Hello, my name is Cameron. I'm a snake and snakes are talented and persistent. They're also decisive and good listeners too. I hope that my talent is to fly a 747 British Caledonian Airways plane. My persistence is to keep trying and trying, never giving up, like the time I tried to make a puppet. I'm a good planner too sometimes like when I play chess and beat William. I'm hardly decisive because I can't make up my mind, I don't know whether I should colour my picture or not.

Cameron Sim

I am a horse according to the Chinese signs. Chinese think that horses should be friendly, optimistic, sociable, impatient and short-tempered. I am friendly to boys because they are boys. When girls come I say, "Blah." I am optimistic because when I enter a competition I say I'm going to win. Thirdly I am anti-social because I hate going out with my Mummy. Fourthly I am very impatient because when I see cookies I try and eat them. Last of all I'm short-tempered because I kick my sister when she bugs me.

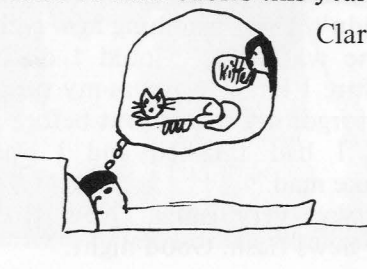

Alexander Tancock

The horses adjectives are all true about me. There is the adjective "friendly". I am very friendly, I have lots of friends. Another adjective is optimistic. Optimistic means you look on the bright side. I think I look on the bright side. For instance yesterday we found a kitten and we spent a long time finding a home for it. Sociable is another adjective for the horse. Sociable means you are also very friendly. So I am sociable. I am also impatient, very, in fact. When I went to Disneyland I had to wait a long time in queues and I was very impatient because I saw lots of people coming and going and I started thinking about how lucky they were to have had their ride already. I also felt sweaty. I am also very short tempered. I especially get cross with my sister.

Caroline Watson

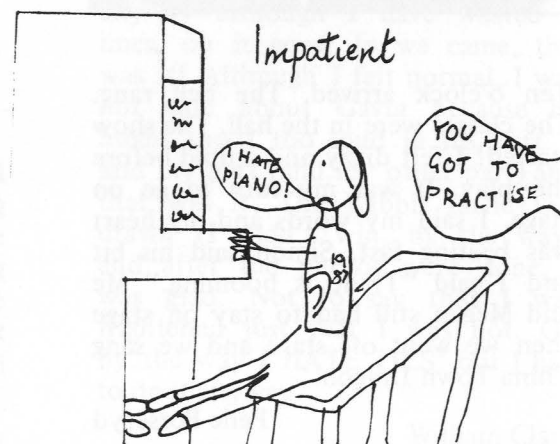

I was born in the year of the horse. The forecast says it will be an eventful year and I will move. Some of this is true because I am definitely going to a boarding school called Rooksbury Park. I don't want to go at all. I'd prefer to move to England with my parents and go to a day school. I'm going to England for Easter and Summer. Do you know what my dream is? I would really like my kittens to have babies this year.

Clare Smith

I am a horse and I'm supposed to be friendly, optimistic, sociable, impatient (sometimes) and lastly short-tempered. I'm shorttempered when my sister teases me or when we go on ten mile walks but that's when I get tired and cross. I am not usually impatient but sometimes I am. I am friendly and sociable sometimes but no one is like that all the time. I'm optimistic sometimes and pessimistic sometimes like most people. For example on walks I'm usually pessimistic but when I'm excited I'm optimistic.

Kersti Pritchard

Primary Class 15 - Mrs. M. Viney

Amanda Butt

Back row

Middle row

Front row

- : Mrs. M. Viney, Simon Murphy, Michelle Stoppa, Lynsy Benshay, Sarah Rolfe,
- : Christopher Ayres, Manuel Pascua, Robert Engzell, Hozefa Bootwala, Rory Howard, Steven Suh,
- : Gina Shannon, Ruth Hunt, Adam Barty, Helen Yates
Rebecca Holdaway, Natalie Bohmer.

We went all trembly about our Assembly.

The Scary Day

Oh no, today is Wednesday!
Wednesday – Assembly day!
I'm so scared my teeth are chattering, chatter, chatter, chatter! What am I doing, I'm chattering on purpose!
Gosh, I've never been so scared in my life, I'm shaking so much shake, shake, shake! What am I doing, now
I'm shaking on purpose!
Wow, we're on stage - on stage now.
"Cat, get my caterpillars and beetles, quick". I didn't know what to do.
"Gr, gr, gr, growl or, or, r, r, right", the audience roared with laughter, I've never been so embarrassed in my life.
The play ended at last. To tell you the truth, I'd like to do it again!

Amanda Butt

Assembly Thoughts

It's our play today on the 14th of January, 1987, our play was called, "Max's Stinky Week", well, lets get on to the story. First we start with the mistakes part, it's really funny, I'll give you an example. Ruth says, "I'm stuck", and then Mrs. Viney says, (Chris is Mrs. Viney in the play), "You've got enough glue there to sink a battle ship". Then the Max's Stinky Week part comes, there's Max, he's the nicest maggot and there's a horrible wizard called Margomell, but the maggots called him Margosmell because he smells horrible. Well, the maggots got to work at once Then Max says I forgot something, and then Max takes a plate full of cream and throws it from out of the window and SPLASH it went right on Margosmell's face, and also they were lucky because they didn't have to put pegs over their noses any more.

Natalie Bohmer

Crazy Play

The job I've got was to be a maggot.
This was the first time I've done assembly and it was the funniest assembly that I thought of, and I was very excited when we started the practice.

We chose 'Max's Stinky Week', because it was the funniest and it needed many people.

When I was in the play I thought that the cream on Manuel's face was the funniest.

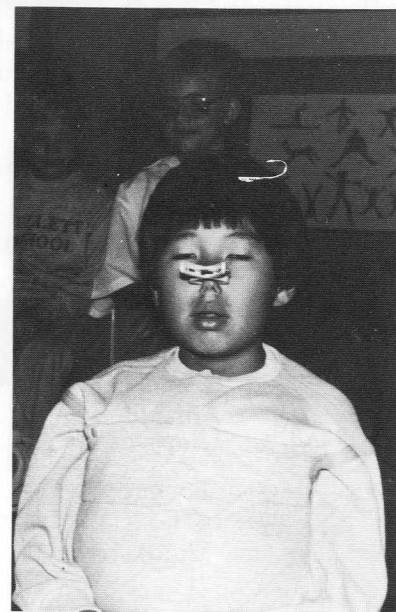

When I saw that I could not stop laughing. When we finished the play Mrs. Viney put a plate over our faces which was full of cream. I laughed and laughed until my stomach had a pain. Soon, the pain was gone but when I think of that I laugh again and again. I will tell my Mum about this CRAZY PLAY!

Steven Suh

Two Plays in One

I wish I had more words but it really does not matter because we had such short notice. We had to abandon every other thing until after the play. Everybody was excited when Mrs. Viney told us we could do two plays in one. One was about all the mistakes we made and the other was from Emma's book which was called "Max's Stinky Week". That play was really funny especially at the end when Emma splattered the shaving cream on Manuel's face. The play we did was also funny. Marc forgot his rough book, I cut my marbling wrong and had stuck it on, then Chris, who was Mrs. Viney in the play, got really mad at the end. The end of ours was also funny, the funniest part was when Natalie said, "Mrs. Viney I have stuck my cover on back to front and upside down", by then Chris, Mrs. Viney, was pulling her hair out.

Lynsy Benshay

Mr. Bollways

Here we are with the K.R. interviews. The person we would like you to meet is Mr. Bollways, one of the most famous scientists in the....what's that ....shh the audience will hear. What, what do you mean he can't come, but he said he'd be here....

Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm very sorry but Mr. Bollways couldn't make it, but don't get down hearted because instead of an interview we're going to tell you about him. Now are you sitting comfortably. Right, let's begin. Mr. Bollways is a very kind gentleman, he is also very good. In his whole career he has won 94 medals and he has worked VERY hard for each one. His greatest medal is the one he won for his most wonderful success. If you want to find out about it you had better read, 'The Day of Darkness'.

The medal is gold with a huge sun on it and on the other side it says 'For making the sun come alight when it had been out for a whole day'. Now that is the end of our report but remember tune into K.R. next week at 11.30.

Ruth Green

Chief Holter

This is an interview at Archer Prison in Calgary near the centre of Canada. We are interviewing the chief of the police today about John Herne who recently hijacked a plane over the woods not far from here and has not been caught yet.

"Chief Helter, do you have anything to say?"

"Only that the criminal is very smart and that he might have a disguise on, so watch out". Well I guess that he is very dangerous so watch out. All of these facts were revealed in "The Perfect Hijack" by Robert Engzell.

Bobby Engzell

Zander Zin

Zander Zin is a boy about 8 years old. He is not very brainy at all. You really can't tell what he looks like because he's always dirty. We are very lucky, because right here in our studio we have Zander Zin himself.

"How does it feel to be a character in a book?"

"Okay!"

"What would you like to be when you grow up?"

"A stunt man."

"What book are you in?"

"I'm in 'Mind your Step'".

"What is it about?"

"Me".

"I mean what is the story based on?"

"Me, falling down the stairs."

"Thank you, Zander Zin I'm sure we all enjoyed your talkative, interesting, phenomenal interview."

Sarah Rolfe

Giant Roy

"Good afternoon Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to H.K.S. studio.

Today we have a special guest from a famous book by Michelle Stoppa we have Giant Roy, Welcome Roy."

"Ah-hum, my real name is Michael".

"Oh sorry Roy, I mean Michael well Ro...Michael so did you enjoy being in the story?"

"Well its alright."

"Actually who was the star of the story?"

"Immmm, well.....Me! It's me."

"Ha, Ha! do you want to say anything more to the audience before you leave?"

"Yes, in the story they drew me ugly, but I look pretty different, that's all!"

"Thank you very much, Mr. Michael we all enjoyed it, let's all give Mr. Michael a big clap."

"Thank you, Bye".

Michelle. A. Stoppa

Bob Dart

Hello I am Eric End and I am here to interview Bob Dart who has just come back from his mission to the moon. While he was there he recently found some wreckage from Mars and here are a few words from Bob Dart:

"How was your journey?"

"Well, it was quite exciting and we haven't found out what it is yet but we know that it is from an alien ship. We know no more about the wreckage".

Right now the wreckage is being examined by the scientists of NASA. We have been very happy for we are very proud of Bob Dart for going on this daring journey.

Hozefa Bootwala

Characters from our own Books.

Successful People

Hello! I'm a close friend of pilot John Neelson and his co-pilot, Tom Smith. They're both rather handsome characters. John has brown hair, blue eyes and is clean shaven. He takes good care of his teeth and body. So does Tom, he is also rather good looking, but he doesn't shave, he doesn't need to, he is still young enough not to have to.

Before they became pilots Tom was in the Royal Marines and John was in the Secret Service. One day, John was in the middle of an assignment where the Secret Service suspected a Marine Officer of fraud and corruption. Tom was a Lieut-Colonel at the time, and that's where they met. After that Tom decided to leave the Marines because John was leaving the Secret Service to become a pilot. Tom thought he would do likewise. They became very good friends, they both went through the promotions very fast indeed, they are now first class pilots.

Adam Barty

The Girl who turns into a Cat

She is a nice cat and she loves climbing trees and loves to go to the butchers, the butcher ran after the cat. Then she shut the door on the butcher's finger, he knocked on the door and her Mummy came to the door. She went down stairs and her Mummy said, "What have you been doing up here?"

"Just playing", she said.

Could you believe a girl turns into a cat? Well read this book and see how Gill turns into a cat.

Rebecca Holdaway

The Rocket that went into Orbit.

We all wrote a book and my best person is Andrew Blogs. He and his friend want to try and get to the moon but they got attacked and went off course and they were heading for Mars. Their landing was o.k. They tried to fix the engine and they fixed it. They tried to take off and they saw the space patrol and they went home. Their ship was repaired and a week later, they tried to take off, their take off was o.k. and they were ready for another attack. At last they arrived on the moon and they went rock collecting. Andrew saw a shiny rock in a crater, so Fred lowered him into the crater. When Andrew picked it up it burrrt through the suit and they tried to get back to the U.S.A.

Rory Howard

Mission Accomplished

Michael Jones is a detective. He has black hair his skin is fairly brown. He is kind, but not to criminals. He is strong and is handy with a gun. He always wants a new assignment because he has nothing else to do. He has recently finished a case against a robber who robs him and is working on another case against a murderer who is very tough to beat. Michael is the best detective in the station that's why they put Michael on the murder case. As I've said before, he is finding this case hard to tackle but in his entire career he has never failed, and he is expecting to get this criminal behind bars as well.

Manuel Pascua

A book we do recommend - to you.

Lord Tom

Lord Tom is a highwayman who lived at the beginning of the 18th century. I chose Lord Tom because I know a lot about him. He lived in old London times.

He looks tall and magnificent with a patch over one of his eyes. He has a black uniform with a red collar and a black beard and he does not have a family.

Lots of exciting adventures happened to him. One of them is that a friend of his, a pick-pocket named Smith, who is twelve years old, one day picks an old man's pocket. Right after that the old man is murdered by two men in brown, which leads both Smith and Lord Tom into an exciting adventure at the end of which Lord Tom dies.

Lord Tom is faithful, scheming, kind and good, unpleasant at times and usually boastful.

Helen Yates

Meg

I will describe a character that came from the story called Smith which was written by Leon Garfield. It was set in old London around 1720. I chose Meg because I liked the way she looked towards Smith and tried to help him.

In my mind Meg looked cuddly and quite plump with blonde hair and blue eyes. Her family would probably be a rather soft family, not many worries and very involved.

Meg tried to help Smith by getting the document from Mr. Mansfield's study even though she knew it was very wrong to do such a thing.

Meg had a very kind heart, she was friendly, loving, generous, kind and mostly lovely. She was very talkative and I would suspect she was very lonely too.

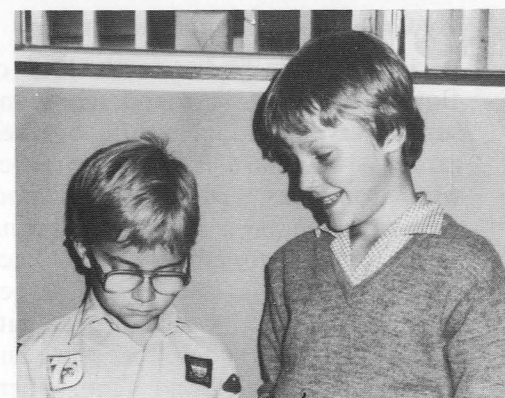

Gina Shannon

Smith

His name was Smith, he lived in London in the year 1654. The book is called "Smith" written by the author, Leon Garfield. Smith was dressed in layers and layers of rags with some torn sneakers. He hadn't got a family but he had two sisters called, Miss Fanny and Miss Bridget. Miss Bridget got the clothes from the people who were hanged. She tidied them up and sold them. She was absentminded and didn't care much. Miss Fanny was very dreamy and Lord Tom was her hero.

The exciting things that happened to Smith were he pickpocketed a man and found a document. Two men in brown were also after the document. They killed that man who had the document and found he did not have it, because Smith had beaten them to it. And that's what the story is based on, the two men in brown after Smith.

Simon Murphy

Mr. Mansfield

Mr. Mansfield is a magistrate. He lived in London, around 1710.

He comes from the book "Smith", written by Leon Garfield.

Mr. Mansfield is blind. He became blind in a fire, also in that fire he lost his wife. He only lives with his daughter and Meg the maid. He is quite rich so he has a coach and a coachman. He lives in a Mansion in Vine Street.

In the story there are three big parts, Smith, Mr. Mansfield and Lord Tom. The first exciting thing that happened to Mr. Mansfield was when he met Smith. This happened when Mr. Mansfield was walking down an alley and Smith had just walked round the corner and they bumped! The second adventure he had was when he got pulled out of his coach into the snow. The third adventure was when he was in half of a gunfight. It all started when Smith as a pick-pocket picked Mr. Field's pockets. He found a document and that one document led him and Mr. Mansfield into some very big adventures. Anyway, back to the gunfight. The two men in brown (the men trying to get hold of the document) were coming closer and closer to Smith and Mr. Mansfield with guns in their hands. Then Lord Tom, the highwayman appeared. He shot one of the men in brown, but as the man in brown fell Lord Tom was shot.

Christopher Ayres

Primary Class 16 - Mrs. M. Davies

My Granny and Grandpa's Garden

It is a small garden with lots of flowers in it – like snapdragons and sunflowers. In the middle of their garden, they have a vegetable patch with tomatoes, peas in the pod, carrots, cucumbers and broad beans. There is also a stone bench at the back of the garden. Behind the bench there is a fence and a gate. The gate leads into a field where sheep live and we like to try and catch them. There are also some big stacks of hay which we climb and play on. Jill, our next-door neighbour's dog, comes with us sometimes.

Joanna Tschetter

A Witch Speaks Out

"Hi! I am Goody Goody Gun. I am a witch. One day I was in a bad mood because I got out the wrong side of my bed. Then I fell down the green stairs. I accidentally poured toad soup down my nice dress which I bought from the scrap yard shop. Then I lost the keys to the SUPER BROOM and the house. So you can understand why I was in a bad mood. I walked to the King of the Mountains. I went there to complain to the King and Queen about their six children. They are always playing in my garden. But the King and Queen didn't listen to me. So I kidnapped them and have hidden them in a cave. Then I hid their six children in different places. No one will ever find them."

John-Paul Lui

The Witch Speaks Out

"My name is Cricky. I am a witch. People say I am ugly which isn't very kind. I have a cat and a broomstick which flies. I live in a very dirty house. It is very messy with spider webs on the walls. The King and Queen live in a kingdom on the mountains. So if I catch them I will be very rich. But I will have to catch the children too. I will hide the children and I will lock up the King and Queen in a cave. I will have to make a plan to catch them so no-one will be able to find them again."

Mickie Bohmer

My Witch

I made a puppet. It is a witch. I used clay, glue and paper to make the head. The witch has a black dress. My witch is called Svask. My puppet is good. She lives far away in a wood.

Markus Bergfors

GRANNIES, GARDENS AND . . . . . WITCHES

Review of "Granny's Garden"

In the computer program called "Granny's Garden" you and your group have to find the King and Queen of the Mountain's children – all six of them. They have been caught by a very wicked witch and hidden by her. When we started out on the program, we thought we were the greatest – we would crack it sooner than anyone! But we got stopped by the witch again and again! The game got a hold on us and we were grumpy and cross because we could not solve it quickly. But our notes were improving and we really were thinking and so we progressed! The game is great. The beginning is exciting and the end is great but the middle games are very difficult. The game is good for seven year olds or older. You have to be patient, think logically and co-operate with your group. You have to go through the woodcutter's house, the giant's garden, the city of dragons and the land of mystery. Daniel, Anna, Claire, Tom, Esther and Jessica have to be found and only you and your group can find them. Of course other groups can get through all the witch's difficult tricks. But if you really think, you might beat them to it! And solve "Granny's Garden"!

Angus Rankin

How I Made My Witch Puppet

1. First of all I made a clay ball for the head. Then carefully I made the eyes, the nose, eyebrows and mouth.
2. When I had finished the head I covered it with vaseline.
3. After that I put on four layers of paper and let them dry. The following week I put on another four layers.
4. When the head was dry, Mrs. Davies cut it open with a knife.
5. I took out the clay and joined the head together with more paper.
6. When the head was dry, I painted the face green. I painted the eyes blue, brown eyebrows and a red mouth. I made the eyes blood-shot.
7. I stuck on string for the hair. It was grey and green.
8. I made the hat with a cone-shaped piece of paper and added a brim.
9. To make my witch's dress, I used black material. I asked my Mummy to help me by sewing it up with a sewing machine.
10. Then I fitted the head into the dress.

When our class had finished the puppets we put them all on display. Mine looked very happy.

Jane Forsyth

My Granny's Garden

My Granny's garden is a small one. It used to have a small plum tree. It used to have a swing attached on to it, but the tree had a disease. So it had to be cut down. The garden has a little lawn. There is wire around it. Behind that are some bushes that have ladybirds on them. My Granny keeps jam jars and marmalade jars and she lets me have some to catch the ladybirds. The garden has a shed. In the corner of the garden is a flower bed. There are roses and other flowers in the flower bed. On the shed there are sweetpeas. My Granny's garden is at the back of the house.

Vicky Barker

A Witch Speaks Out

"Hi! My name is Black Eye Whip the III. I am a witch. I am really very kind to people. I don't know why they don't like me. I have a pretty, green, warty face but people say that I am so ugly. One day I was out flying on the broomstick and my hair got so messy. So I stopped at the palace of the King and Queen of the Mountains to borrow a brush. But they would not let me borrow one. I was so upset, I kidnapped them and locked them up in a cave. Then I asked the King and Queen's children if I could borrow a brush. I told them that I am very kind to little boys and girls because I give them sweets and toys. But they said I was an ugly old witch. So I locked them up as well but in different places. NO ONE will ever find them! I hear that the children in Class 16 at Kellett School are trying to find them. But they won't succeed."

Eric Ho

Review of "Granny's Garden"

"Granny's Garden" is about a garden as you can probably guess. It is a computer program. You climb over a wall into a ..... garden of adventures! The King and Queen of the Mountains have been captured by a very wicked witch. Their children Esther, Tom, Clare, Anna, Daniel and Jessica have been hidden by the witch. You are set with the task of finding the six children. The people in my group were Fiona, Mickie, Aoife and of course, myself. On one of the adventures (it's divided into four parts) Aoife said something which I didn't entirely understand. We all said, "That isn't right" and didn't listen to her. But it turned out she was right! We blocked our ears when the words, "That was not a good idea" came on the screen because the witch would come on, and send us home. The four adventures on the computer program were - "The Woodcutter's House", "The Giant's Garden", "The City of Dragons" and last came "The Land of Mystery". It took us several attempts to do the third and fourth adventures. I liked "Granny's Garden". It helps children to use a computer, to spell and helps them co-operate with each other.

Elizabeth Hutton

Ella Chase

Christopher Marshall

Back row

: Mrs. M. Davies, Abigail Osborne, Angus Rankin, Daniel Smith, Markus Bergfors, Jane Forsyth;

Middle row

: Joanna Tschetter, Neil Rees, Eric Ho, John-Paul Lui, Elizabeth Hutton,

Front row

: Victoria Carter, Victoria Barker, Mickie Bohmer, Aoife Kelly, Aletheia Goldstein, Fiona McGuigan.

Snails, Snails

They live in gardens.

Slimy bodies

In rough shells.

Slowly, slowly

They slide along.

Looking around

To see if there's any

DANGER.

They leave a sticky track

Behind, as they move

Along the ground.

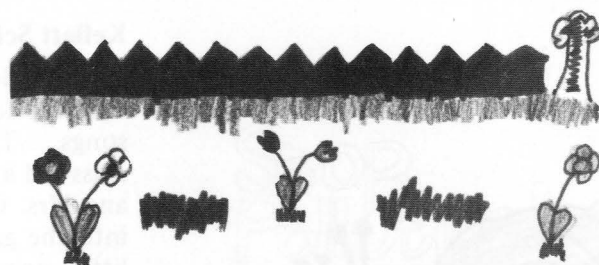

Their shells are cream and brown.

Two long tentacles

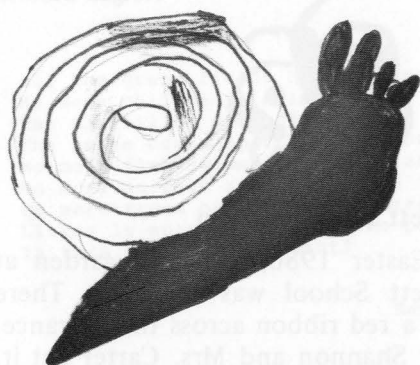

On their head

And two short ones

In front.

Aoife Kelly

The Snail

Looks scared

Moves slowly.

Clings to a leaf.

A rough, wrinkled body –

Blackish–brown.

A spiral shell

With stripes of colour,

Beige and brown.

Sometimes still

As a rock.

Small eyes on the tips

Of its tentacles.

Very curious and

Extremely quiet.

Fiona McGuigan

Kellett School Garden

The garden was opened in Easter, 1986 by Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Shannon. They both cut a long red ribbon. After the ribbon was cut we all went into the garden to have a look. Mrs. Steer said we would all be allowed to plant our own plants in the flower bed. A week after we had all planted our own plants they started to grow. We all came down lots of times to find out if they were growing well. To start off with, they were coming on very nicely, until a group of green caterpillars attacked them by eating the leaves! We got them off, but some of us had a rash from them. I think the garden would be better if we had better soil and grass. The bird table should be looked after regularly. I like the garden when we are allowed to plant seeds, and when we sit down at the tables and do our work or eat our lunch.

Ali Goldstein

SNAILS . . . . .

IN THE GARDEN

Kellett School Garden

The garden has a big banyan tree in it that shades the tables. The banyan tree has lots of roots which hang from the branches. There is a bird table at one end of the garden. The tiles are different in different sections of the garden. The banyan tree covers most of the garden. I like the sitting area.

Daniel Smith

Snails, Snails

Sensitive snails,
Popping in if touched.
Spiral shells
With strange markings.
Snails, snails
Cautious snails —
Moving so slowly
Small eyes
Poking out.
Snails, snails.
Investigating snails.
Liking the shade.
Soft bodies —
Sticking like glue.
Snails, snails.

Chris Marshall

Snails

Snails are very interesting creatures to observe. Most snails have pretty shells. They are usually brown. Snails are almost like slugs when they are out of their shells. Snails are very slow-moving. They like to live on plants in gardens. We brought some snails from the school garden into our class. We put the snails in a glass container. The lid of the container was also a magnifying glass. We looked at the snails through the top. I touched one of the snails. It was a feeling just like jelly. When we touched one of the tentacles, it moved in very suddenly. Some of their shells are shiny and see-through. Most of the snails' shells are curly. They are thick at the bottom and thinner at the top. I think snails are nice animals.

Vicky Carter

Snails

Moving slowly,
Eating their way
Through the undergrowth,
Striped, smooth.
After the rain,
They come to eat
Like locusts.
Snails come and go.
They have a life
Of their own.
So let us leave
And not hurt them —
For they are SNAILS.

Ella Chase

Kellett School Garden

The garden at Kellett School was opened last Easter. We all sang songs. The children in Mrs. Davies class did a dragon dance. Mrs Shannon and Mrs. Carter cut the ribbon leading into the garden. IT WAS OPEN! The little ones went into the garden to plant flowers. We went in after them. The eldest boy and eldest girl in the school planted a tree. It is called the Camel's Foot tree. I like the banyan tree that is in the garden. It's shady and cool if you stand underneath it. I also like the new tables and chairs. There's a bird table at one end of the garden. We planted some radishes. The caterpillars are annoying as they keep eating the leaves of our radishes. If I go into the garden the mosquitoes always bite me.

Abigail Osborne

Kellett School Garden

In Easter 1986, our new garden at Kellett School was opened. There was a red ribbon across the entrance. Mrs. Shannon and Mrs. Carter cut it. There was a big dragon dance. It was done by the children in Mrs. Davies class. Later I planted some radishes. Other children planted thyme or sun-flowers or sage. There is a big banyan tree in the garden. It has been there for a long time even before I came to Kellett School. The banyan tree is now inside the garden. I took a picture of the radishes I planted. The banyan tree has lots of roots and vines. There is a bird table in the garden with bird food on it. The garden looks very good but it needs more added to it. In the garden there are four tables and stools. They are good for doing work and having lunch.

Neil Rees

Stop
Pollution!

SAYS CLASS 17

All the green fields have disappeared,
No more children playing there.
The air filled with dirty dust.
The smoke comes up from the factory chimney.
No more fish swimming in the lakes,
No more animals running in the forest,
No more trees helping us to breathe.
Litter is spread all over the planet.
Is this the world we want?

Emma Lansing

THE POLLUTION OF PLANET CRYSTAL

Cockroaches clamber creepily over the mouldy mess of muck.
Flies zoom about in the stench water making a disgusting, disturbing, slurping noise.
Rubbish, Litter and Lap-sap lie unhealthily around the streets waiting for innocent people to creep up on.
Cars and buses pollute the air and turn it into a black, dusty, unhygienic sky.
Coughs and splutters are heard underneath the fumes of gas and smoke.
Our Planet should be green and full of flowers, not

Rotten, Deadly and Disgusting.

STOP POLLUTION NOW!

Nicola Johnson

Pollution on Crystal.

Why did Mr. Grubble pollute Crystal
With his Bubble Gum Factory,
Sewage, Rubbish and unhealthy smoke?
Green unhealthy rotten bubble gum,
Lying on the ground,
Lap Sap.
Factories which make foul smelly smoke and noise,
Poisonous, unhealthy, disgusting.

Siobhan Way

POLLUTION

A wift of unhealthiness,
The air black.
The factories churning,
The muck burning.
The stench of gas.
A mass of flies.
The foul fuel from passing cars.
A smell of oil from the rigs out at sea,
The running gutters, green.
The ocean once so un-green,
You now see green, with slush,
Slurping on the ferry pier.
As if trying to say,
"POLLUTION GO AWAY!
Don't come back another day,
PLEASE, PLEASE, GO AWAY!!!"

Patrick Chase

POLLUTION

Stinky, unhealthy sewage filled sea.
Drains packed with left overs from last night's tea.

Country park ponds filled with slush.
Junk yard rubbish all a mush.

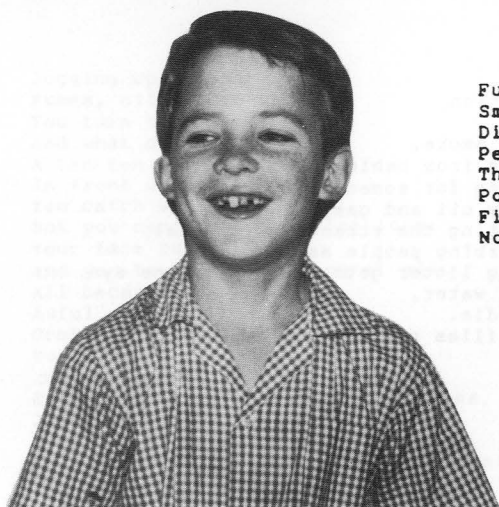

Factory disposal fumes and smoke,
Making every one cough and choke.

Racing cars along the street,
Poisonous gas scorching feet.

Morag Ashdown

Pollution

Fumes from a car all stinky,
Smelly sewage from the drain, Disgusting!
People on junks,
Throwing in rubbish
Polluting the sea,
Fish dying,
No one cares.

Alan Collins

Cockroaches crawling among the drains and litter,
Foul flies fly in the factory fumes,
The rubbish so dirty,
And the poisonous gas,
It's very unhealthy if it turns into dust.
The drains so messy,
The sewage so smelly,
The water once nice,
Now stinky like slime,
With the fire and dust,
The poisonous air is unhygienic,
The green sloppy muck,
Is disturbing and sick,
Just as if it meant to say,
"Pollution does not really pay."

Robin Phillips

Sewers filled with smelly rubbish,
Going down the drains.
Have one little whiff and it's in your belly,
Then it damages your brain.

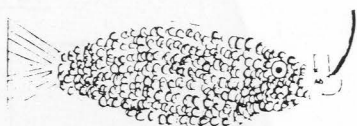

Cars polluting the air,
With foul and stinky fumes.
Next time you see a car go by,
Just hold your nose so you don't smell
THE FUMES!

Ophelia Cheng

Poisonous fumes
 "Oh how dreadful",
 Lots of factories spilling out fuels
 Litter and deadly, dirty, disgusting drains.
 Unhealthy people cough and splutter.
 Terrible roads spilled with litter
 Incredibly dirty cars
 Oil in water
 Noise and dust.

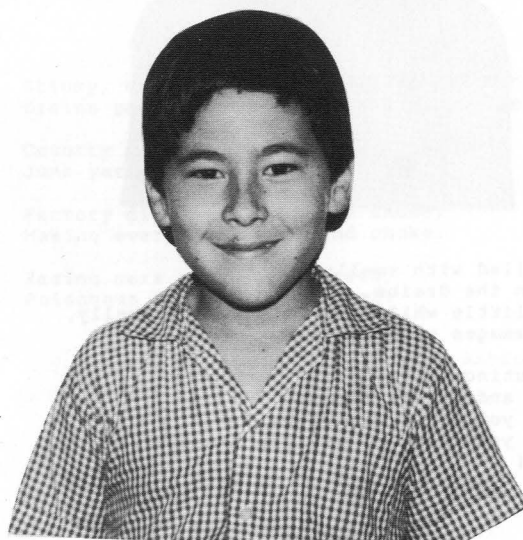

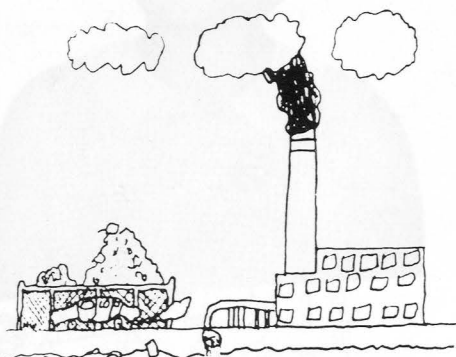

Alexandra Dunnett

Pollution

Fumes smoke,
 Coming from behind a car,
 Waiting for someone to poison.
 Deadly oil and gas,
 Polluting the streets of Crystal,
 Disturbing people as it goes.
 Flying litter gets someone in the eye.
 Green water,
 Fish die.
 Foul flies polluting the skies.

Dalan Nugent

HUGE junk yards filled with rubbish,
 Car scraps and tyres.
 Sea floors covered with tin cans,
 Streets sides filled with waste paper.
 Toxic chemicals pouring into streams
 When the factory has no more use for them.
 Rubbish collectors are here and there,
 In most countries they're everywhere.
 The people have no use for rubbish,
 Some burn it but most dump it.
 In the house the bins are full.
 People buy more paper
 But only to dump it later.

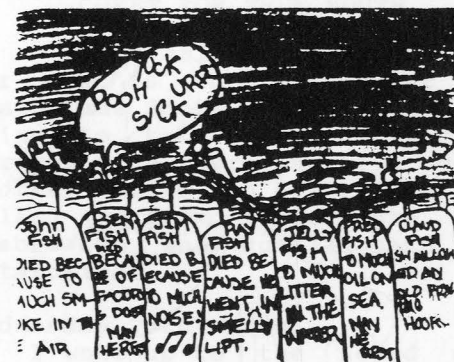

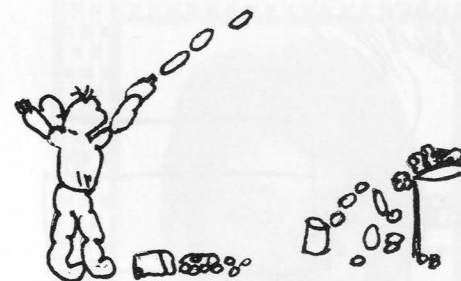

Nigel Wetten

Rubbish

Jogging up behind a car,
Fumes, oil rising near.
You turn the corner
and what do know?
A ten ton garbage truck
In front of you!
You catch a lift,
But you can't stand it for long.
Your face turns blue and you try not breathing at all.
All because of that,
Awful, filthy, disgusting,
Grotty, grubby, piggy,
Yucky, mucky, stinky SMELL!
Even the fish are wearing gas masks,
Just to survive that awful smell.

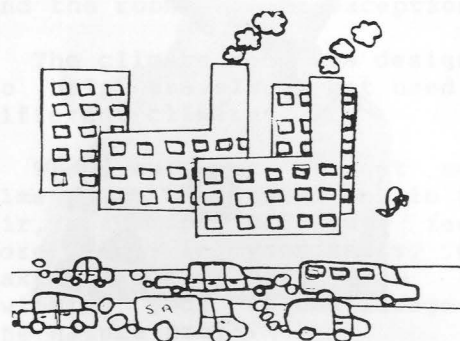

Daniel Balasoglou

Pollution

Rubbish and trash on the street,
People with litter at their feet.
Dirty water running down the drain,
Smoke and pollution from a train.
Filthy waste paper in the park,
And dirty cats creeping in the dark.
Fumes and smoke from a car,
Dirty old trash cans in front of a bar.
Sticky bits of bubble gum stuck to a tree,
I hope we can stop this you and me.

Satu Ahtiluoto

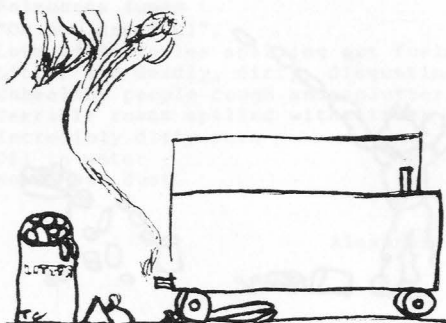

Stinky sewage runs down the gutters,
A cockroach has its meal,
Smelly smoke rises from a chimney,
While noise spreads over my head.

Poisonous gas fumes in the air,
Some dust gathers up with the litter,
The oil spreads over the floor,
With a stench that's dusty and bitter.

Emma Manville

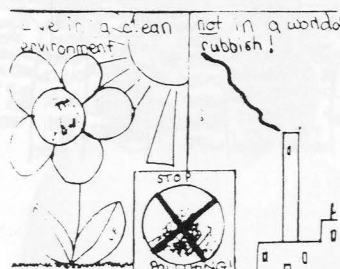

Pollution In Crystal!
Mr Grubble is to blame,
For all this litter.
We tried to keep the city clean,
But Mr Grubble likes these stinky ways.
All these gutters, drains and sewers,
I'm glad I'm only here for a short holiday.
The unhealthy smell,
And all this smoke,
These deadly disgusting fumes.
The smelly shops, buildings and air,
How disgusting,
How messy,
How unhygienic.
All this rubbish gas and oil,
Pollution, Pollution, Pollution!

Tabitha Creed

STOP POLLUTION
NOW!

The stink of rubbish pouring out of dustbins,
Oil rigs dumping their smelly oil in the sea,
Fish are dying because of man's pollution,
This is no place for me.

The fumes of cars rising up into the sky,
Smoke from factories polluting the air,
This pollution is caused by man,
Rubbish and Pollution are a dirty pair.

Howard Lyons

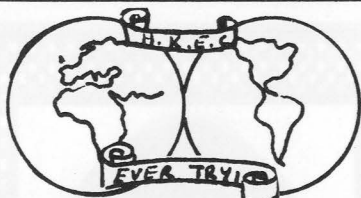

Decomposed rubbish litters the streets
Coughing policemen on their beats,
People turn their noses up,
As they pass the filthy muck.
Gases spread from a factory,
Rubbish is thrown into the sea.
Pollution and gases, smoke and muck,
Rubbish and filth and rotting guck.
All these are senseless things,
This is what modern day brings.

Clare Forsyth

WELCOME TO THE EXPLORERS' CLUB

It is set in beautiful surroundings where hills tower above you and the sea gently laps against the golden sands.

This futuristic building was designed by Foster Associates, the architect responsible for the new Hong Kong Bank headquarters.

The golf course is hilly and lake dominated. Tifgreen Bermuda grass is used for the fairways and roughs.

The centre of our property is a huge pool where you can idle in the sun. Around the pool we have extensive gardens, containing varied and rare tropical plants.

We boast that our library has information on every region of exploration.

In the H.K.E.C. we want you to feel the luxury of the place and the rooms are no exception.

The climate room was designed to help travellers get used to different climates.

When you want to get more time off the ground and in the air, more time off your feet, more time in your seats, just take a cable car from the swimming pool to the lounge or the nature trail.

Polar Exploration

Monday 16th March

We set off. The snow was coming up to our knees. It was getting colder. John slipped. I got out the rope. We were pulling our hardest. We got him out. I listened to his heart beat. It looked as though he was dead. We carried on walking and then decided to camp here.

Tuesday 17th March.

We woke up and had breakfast. We set off, then two hours later we found a set of footprints. We followed them, then we saw some one lying there, dead. We thought that there must be more explorers about. We carried on walking. Peter slipped into an underground cavern. I got the rope. I hammered a piton into the snow. Slowly I went down. He was lying on the snow. I grabbed hold of him and pulled him out. I got the first aid and then we camped the night.

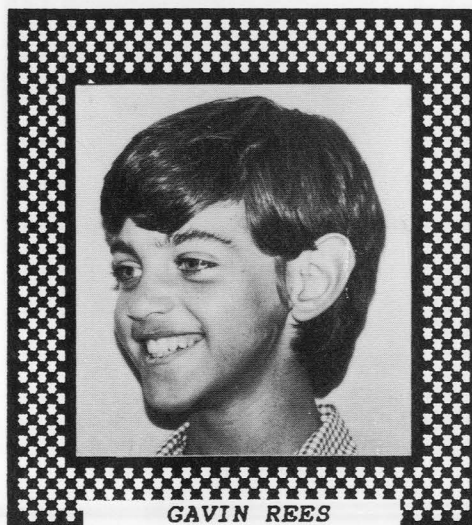

Wednesday 18th March

Now the time had come. I got out the camera and stuck our flag into the snow. We took twenty-one photographs. We went on walking. The blizzard was too strong so we camped for the night.

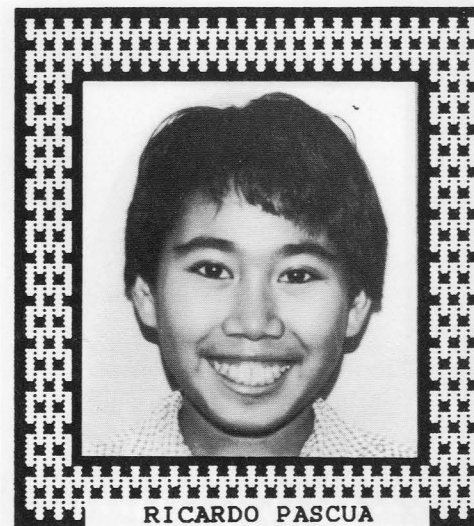

Thursday 19th March

We couldn't go any further. We ran out of food. We were getting weaker. We couldn't go on. I prayed that there would be a miracle.

Gavin

GAVIN REES
AMAZON EXPEDITION

RICARDO PASCUA
QUEST FOR TRUE SOUTH

Exploration Iceberg

Our aim is to be the first to reach True South. First we are going to take a plane to South Africa. From there we will get another plane to Prince Edward Island and from there take an icebreaker to a Russian base in Antarctica.....

Wednesday 25th March

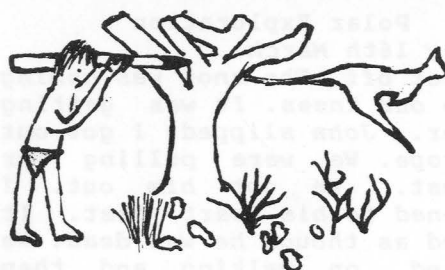

I woke up to the sound of the sail flapping in the wind. I turned around and woke up Ian and Richard. We had some noodles and we were on our way. Our aim for today was to reach the first Russian station. Fortunately our ice boat still worked. On the way there Richard fell off our iceboat. He called for help. I spun around and grabbed his hand. As I pulled him up blood poured out of his leg and his clothes turned a reddish colour. Ian stitched him up. After several hours we reached the Russian station. They let us use their spare beds until morning. Made good progress except for Richard's injuries.

Ricardo

SISSY STROBL
AUSTRALIAN SAVANNAH

Australian Mystery

The hot air surrounded me as the sun beamed down early in the morning on the Australian Desert. My legs ached from walking and my feet were burnt from the boiling sand. I was in a place far away from any civilization.

There were no tribes of Aborigines and there hadn't been so far. I was just about to give up hope of seeing any people when I felt something sharp touch my back. A shiver of excitement ran down my spine. Slowly I turned around. Behind me was a short dark figure with white stripes on his body, wearing a band around his head and holding a spear.

He grabbed me by the shoulder and began pulling me towards a huge sand dune. I struggled to try and escape but he had a good grip on me.

Amy

AMY GILPIN
BORNEO JUNGLE

PATRICK RAMSAY
ASCENT OF K2

The Bermuda Triangle

After half an hour's flying I radioed back to the airport to tell them that I was flying over the Bermuda Triangle. Just then I was driven into thick fog and everything went crazy. The compass swung madly and there were sparks flying everywhere. I tried to radio back but somehow we had lost contact. Quickly, I grabbed a life jacket and strapped it on. I opened the cockpit door and jumped. The next minute I was sinking beneath the water. I scrambled to the surface and gasped for air. I looked around me, the helicopter had blown up and parts were drifting everywhere. Beyond that there was nothing but blue ocean. I had never felt this way before. Here I was in the middle of the ocean, helpless. I figured that the only way that I could get back was swim, drift, or be rescued. Just then something grabbed my legs and was trying desperately to pull me under. I got out my butterfly knife and hacked at it. It was gripping tighter now and I fought for my very life. I gasped for air and spat water as I was continuously pulled under. I gave the thing a powerful blow. It slackened off as a surge of green swept around me. Patrick

Killer Disease

Tuesday 24th March

It was so hot and different but the Kookaburras and all the other animals made the place like home. All the stones and bumps were making me get a headache and feel terribly sick in the tummy. The breeze was blowing in my face as we raced across the ground in the sandy coloured jeep. I felt so strange to be in such a different place from Hong Kong. I looked down again and started to read my book. Then suddenly I heard shouts. I got such a fright that I dropped my book and sat up startled. I looked around and saw some Aborigines running after a kangaroo, but I was even more terrified when I saw their spears gleaming in the sunlight. Ali told me to get a rifle, so I clambered over the back seat and got out a tranquilizer gun and was ready to shoot. Ali told me to shout to the aborigines and tell them to stop, but they couldn't hear me. I hesitated a bit but I had the right aim and I shot the kangaroo. A loud bang echoed through my head. The kangaroo was lying on the warm dry sand in front of the jeep. It was not infected with the deadly disease.

Sissy

JAIME BROADHURST
ARCTIC STUDY

Arctic Studies

Tuesday 24th March

The coldness struck through me as I trudged through the snow and ice. My rucksack was heavy and my hair was blowing against my neck. The strain was getting greater as we lurched towards the Eskimo village. Suddenly a sharp sound rang through the snow mountains. It was Suzanne, she had fallen and was rolling towards an ice canyon. The sound was so great because only the cracking of boots sounded in this lonely place. She was alright, but quite shaken. We reached the Eskimo village after a long time and the people greeted us in a friendly manner. After this day I felt tired. Would we really survive this trip.

Jaime

In search of the South Pole
Dear Samantha,

I am writing to tell you of my joy. I have been the first to reach the South Pole. It will take me three months to get back. I can't wait to get out of this cold wasteland. Exploration going well. I wish you were with me, but it's too dangerous. Give my love to the kids. I'll write soon.

Love Simon.

Wednesday 25th March.

I awoke to the sounds of the Eskimos working. Quickly I glanced down and looked at my watch. It said, 08.35. Realising that I had drastically overslept, I hurried to get dressed. The Eskimos were busy getting our supplies ready, so that we could start right away. Christina was already up and at it when Louisa and I emerged from our tents. We finally started exploring between nine and ten o'clock. Travelling at a speed of about 40 k.p.h. meant that we were making pretty good progress although sometimes we slowed down a little. We were heading for a large snow crevasse. We are now actually camping in the Arctic. My dream came true. It was a great day.

Emma

Thursday 26th March

The cold struck my face as my eyes slowly opened. I got dressed and hurried out of my tent. The other two weren't awake yet, so I was careful to keep quiet as Louisa and Christina needed their sleep. They finally awoke, but we were dawdling because they didn't want to face the coldness. We crossed the ice crevasse with great ease and eventually got to where we are now. Although it was cold everything went well.

Emma

JAMES LAYFIELD
QUEST FOR TRUE SOUTH

EMMA HUNT ARCTIC STUDY

Friday 27th March.

I started walking quite early today as we had seen an escarpment and knew we had to go round it. We lost time because of that but the rest of the day went well. After we had crossed the escarpment it was solid walking until an Eskimo village came in sight. When we got there we set up camp and had an early night.

Jaime

To whom it may concern.

My illness is slowing down our exploration of the Pole. I know that we must reach the food barge soon and that my illness makes me eat more. I have failed in my destiny but you will succeed. I hope that you will reach the ship. Give my love to my wife and my kids. I know that they will understand.

I leave you now,
Simon David.

James

BEN TYRRELL
QUEST FOR TRUE SOUTH

The Atlantis Triangle

The story that I am about to tell you happened two years ago. The events were so horrific that it has taken me all this time to write it down. The memory sends shivers down my spine even now.

It all started one clear summers morning in England. Jake Rockwell, Michael Hughes and myself, Ian Livingstone had been assigned the task of test flying the latest B.A.F. aircraft, test flight number 106. We were all experienced aviators. Michael, my co-pilot had been flying Fl-11's for a number of years. Jake, our navigator was one of the best that I've flown with. Our route was to take us from R.A.F. Bigginhill to Fort Lauderdale, U.S.A.

The first part of our journey went according to plan but we were suddenly jolted into action when we flew into turbulence. We struggled to regain control as the plane plunged towards the sea. The sky and sea turned into a mist of blue and grey. Then I lost consciousness.

Ben

U.F.O.'s

It was a beautiful day and I was walking along the rocks enjoying the sunshine and breeze. Suddenly I realised that the tide had come in and I was trapped on the rocks, it had also started to rain. I was looking to see where I could shelter when I noticed a cave. I decided to climb up to it. When I reached the cave I found a sandy spot and made myself comfortable and waited. Suddenly I was thrown against the wall of the cave unexpectedly. As I looked at the entrance I noticed that a huge boulder had been thrown against it. It was as black as night now. I began to feel dizzy and I almost knew that I was doomed. There was no way out. Suddenly I was sucked through a dark hole. What was to become of me? I started to scream and my voice echoed. I landed with a crash on the floor. I got up slowly and as I did a herd of U.F.O.'s came firing at me. I covered my eyes as a blinding light shone from above me and I ducked in terror as a magnetic ray came zooming past an inch from my head. I gave a sigh of relief but kept on running. Even more rays fired but luckily they all missed. Eventually they gave up. I noticed a bright light before me, I edged towards it. When I reached it I was amazed at the sight.

Solene

SOLENE ARCUS
BORNEO JUNGLE

JOANNE ADAMS
BORNEO JUNGLE

Atlantis Revisited

I was sitting in my office studying Atlantis with my friends when there was a knock on the door. "Come in," I said. The door opened and in stepped a small fat man. "Hello, can I help you?" I asked. The man replied, "I want you and your friends to go to Atlantis." I stared at him. I was confused and excited. "But it might not exist."

"What do you mean it doesn't exist? I live there," said the man in a very cross way. My mouth opened in disbelief. "Here, take this necklace and this stone and go to Atlantis. I'll meet you tomorrow at 7.00 a.m., pier 2. The boat is Atlantis 2."

"What is your name?"

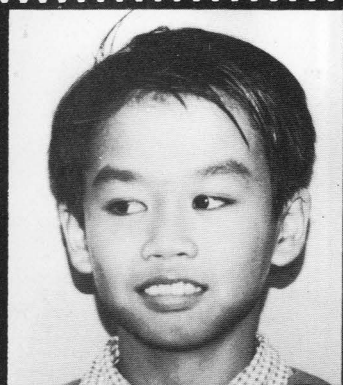

"Atlantic." He shut the door.

"Hey wait!"

Joanne

KEVIN YEUNG
AMAZON EXPEDITION

Amazon Adventure
27th March 1987

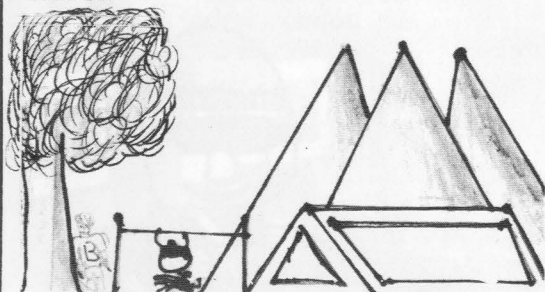

Dear John and Jim,

Hi, how are you? We found the Amazon and we are going to explore it. We found the Indians and we bought a canoe from them and they gave us a guide to help us.

How is mother, is she alright?

We are going to try and catch a tiger and bring it back to the H.K.E.C. It was fun exploring the jungle. The jungle is dark, I was afraid of the jungle at first because it was so dark that you couldn't see anything. It was hard to walk through the jungle because we had to cut our way through the bushes and trees. It was very hot in the jungle and the mosquitoes were buzzing around my head. The birds and the monkeys were making a lot of noise, it makes the jungle happy.

Kevin

El Dorado

The story I am about to tell you happened about two years ago.

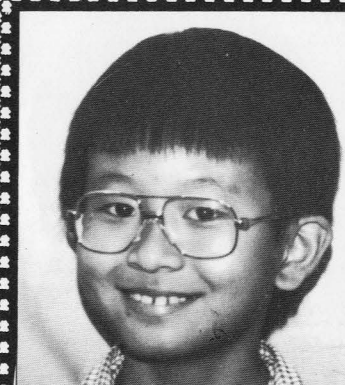

I was rowing down the River Amazon when a crocodile appeared. It swam towards me. It was alongside my boat, I started to hit it with my oars. It bit one, then the other, and it pulled them out of my hands. The boat started to spin wildly, round and round it went. After a while the boat came to the shore. I staggered off and got all the radio equipment, then the current pulled the boat away. I tried to call base. There was some static and then the radio went dead. I had a quick sleep.

A few hours later I heard some drums, they slowly got louder. I started to tremble. Then I saw some natives. I gulped, turned and fled. The natives shouted, "Stop, come to El Dorado!" I turned and looked. They beckoned to me. I followed a path that was cut ahead. "Are we safe?" I trembled. A native just nodded, I hoped it meant yes.

Richard

RICHARD ALDCROFT
ASCENT OF K2

HAN KWOK
AMAZON EXPEDITION

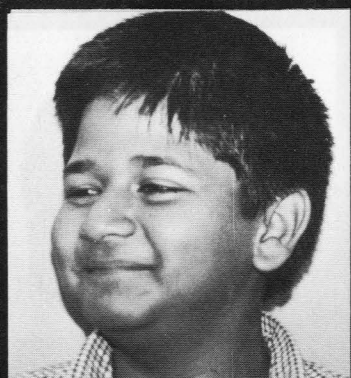

Exploration Amazonas
Thursday 26th March

I awoke to the birds singing and to the cool morning breeze. We had a meal of baked beans and milk. We then paddled on in our new ten metre canoes. The water was as motionless as a sheet of glass. Every stroke of our paddles sent up ripples. Then we came across some rapids. We paddled furiously and tried to row across it. We were thrashed about violently and the others were thrown out of the canoe. I reached out and pulled them in. No-one was hurt, but David had lost a paddle. Next we came to a waterfall. We couldn't row for shore because we were too close to the edge. Our only hope was to paddle furiously. We were about to go over when David, Ian and our guide grabbed onto some branches. They clung on tightly to them while our canoe went across and dropped three metres, which was high for a canoe. I gave a whoop of delight as my canoe landed. I rowed ashore where I met the others.

A pathetic figure came to us pleading for us to follow him. He took us to a village of people suffering from scurvy. David and Ian wanted to leave the villagers to suffer but I forced them to give them vitamin and orange tablets.

Han

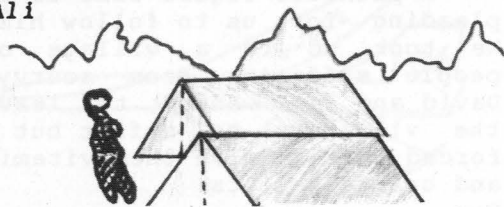

ALI FERUQI
AUSTRALIAN SAVANNAH

Himalayan Mystery

I was jogging in the Himalayan mountains when suddenly I found some footprints in the snow going towards the left. They looked like the footprints of an ape, but much bigger. They looked like the footprints of a Yeti. I followed them. When I came to the other side of the mountain half a mile away, there stood a Yeti. He turned and glared at me with his sharp teeth pointing out. Suddenly he started running after me. I was scared and I started running back. Just then he whistled and a huge crowd of Yetis came running after me. After a while the mountain began to shake. It was an earthquake. There was a huge crack in the mountains and at least ten Yetis fell in the huge gap. There was a small crack under my feet. It became bigger. I tried to run but I slipped. Then I had only one chance to save myself. I took out my hook and threw it as high as I could. It went up and got stuck at one edge of the mountain, that was the only chance.

Ali

Conquest of Everest

Friday 13th November 1963

We have reached the top of Everest!!! The whole of the land is spread out in front of us like a white sheet with bumps in it. This is such a wonderful moment in my life. I am only twenty eight years old and I am so glad that I can see all of this. I have taken enough pictures of wildlife, plants and this view, to fill at least ten photo albums. We are going to climb back down tomorrow morning so that we can be down before the storm comes.

Monday 16th November

We are half way down and already the blizzard that we hoped would not come, has struck. We are stuck inside our tents and it is getting colder and windier. There is nothing that we can do but wait and see if the storm will clear. Our food is running low. I don't know what I'm going to do to keep us all alive.

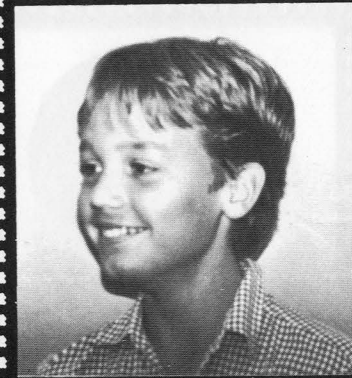

Tuesday 17th November

Weak. Blizzard continues. No food or drink left. Wish I was home. Don't want to die. Hungry and thirsty.

Vanessa

VANESSA WILLIAMS ARCTIC STUDY

PETER EVANS
ASCENT OF K2

Slopes of Everest '84

My Dear Beloved Stephanie,

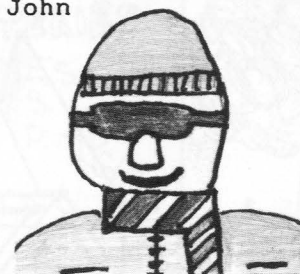

How are you? I'm fine. I'm nearly at the summit of Everest. It's very cold and the view is wonderful. I can see all the Himalayas. Jack has frostbite so we're getting held up. I'm sure you read the letter I sent to the children so you will know all about the Sherpas. I'm going to visit them again on the way back, if I do get back! - only a joke. I must tell you I've got a Sherpa necklace which will look lovely on you. It's made out of coloured beads. I've also got you an old teapot.

The snow is white and slushy, just like when we went to Japan skiing, which was so much fun. I've seen two Yettis which were quite amazing. They were ten times bigger than that ape on "Going Bananas", you know, the programme the kids watch on T.V. I've taken some pictures to show you.

I miss you more than anything.

All my love,
John

Peter

Swizzle Street starring Primary Six

Talent Ahoy!

At Last! At Last! A newsreader with a pleasant voice, perfect pronunciation, good diction - and charming, as well.

I refer, of course, to the young lady who read the newsflashes on tonight's Swizzle Street.

Who is she? And is she to be signed up by ATV? Or does TVB still have a chance to get her? She's better than anyone they have already.

(From letters to the Editor, T.V. Times)

Solutions

Reponses

Qui est-ce? a) Boris Becker
b) Michael J. Fox

1. Il y a: 4 chiens; 2 chats; 1 lapin; 1 oiseau; 2 poissons; 1 rat;
3 hamsters; 1 cochon d'Inde.

2. Qu'est-ce que c'est? La cuisinière, la casserole, le chat, le collier, le coussin, la chaise, le cahier, la cuisine.

3. Name the drinks: 1. Vin. 2. Eau minérale. 3. Chocolat. 4. Café. 5. Thé

4. Les chats du Café Royal a) Bon anniversaire, ma petite fille.
b) Bon anniversaire, maman.
c) Bon anniversaire, Tante Lola.

5. Quelle heure est-il? 1. à onze heures. 2. à huit heures.
3. à neuf heures. 4. à deux heures.

Acknowledgements

Publication Team	: Liz Bell Trish Evison Vivienne Sizer
Photography	: Val Clatworthy Joanna Dickson-Leach Linda Poulter
Typing	: Liisa Ahtiluoto Vicki Pollitt Jane Woods