

Six Comp

BY TEDDY FENTON

Time and again I was drawn back to the site of 644 California St. being razed by the new owner, Fred Ebeltoff, who wanted the lot as a site for a new house.

I fancied the board by board demolition as the destruction of a historical monument because of having drowned myself in the Zane Grey version of the building of Boulder Dam, and 644 California