

Editor of Press—

Due to the fact that I am a Macon county man and my interest still there, I would like to have a small space in our paper to explain to the readers of The Press just part of what we "Dam" fellows are doing out here in the state of Nevada. First, Boulder City is just another little wet town somewhat larger in size than Franklin. It is surrounded by high mountain peaks of many different colors of stone; also sandy bottom desert land, but minus of any of our
