

Richard Wentworth ^{NOV} 1951

Born in 1912 in Muskogee, Oklahoma. High school graduate, received degree in Commercial Science from Benjamin Franklin School of Accountancy in 1941.

From 1938 to 1945 occupied various civil service positions in the Department of Agriculture three years of which were spent as an auditor of Rural Electric Cooperatives.

Employed in the Finance office of the Boulder Canyon Project since 1945.

Owens his own home here in Boulder City, served one year as treasurer of the Boulder City Recreation Association, and is vice president of the local Red Cross Chapter.