Famed Bel Canto Group in Final Concert Tomorrow Eve

The Bel Canto singers will be presenting their last spring concert on Thursday, May 4 in the high school auditorium. Out of the original group, there are nine women still in the chorus.

Singing in the soprano section will be Greta Blair, Janet Carpenter, Gwenn Chubbs, Kathy Graves, Olive Isom, Hattie O'Hara, Charlene Seible, Gladys Sweet. Second Sopranos are Jane Ballard, Carol Bourne, Delpha Dodge, Ann Dutter, Marge Keeley, Helen Lyon, Lucile Mead, Della Ostergaard, Alice Shanahan. Altos are Frances Belknap, Ramona Carter, Mary Edwards, Alice Hamilton, Ardith Kutscher, Sylvia Legler, Mary Ann Merrill, Carol Neilsen, Patty Swartz, and Else Vetter. The accompanist is Alberta Curry.

The director, Madaline Garrett, will be the elementary music teacher in the Boulder City Schools starting in the fall and will be unable to continue working with the Singers. In order to make this an outstanding concert, they have brought back to Boulder City, Gloria Greene, pianist from southern California. She will play two groups of piano solos including numbers by Schubert, Schumann, Chopin and Debussy.
