

HARD WORK AND FAR FROM HOME

THE CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS AT LAKE MEAD, NEVADA

By
DENNIS McBRIDE

Hard Work and Far From Home:

The Civilian Conservation Corps at Lake Mead

by
Dennis McBride

Published by Boulder Images
1000 Nevada Highway
Boulder City, NV 89005
1995

For the men of Boulder City
CCC Companies 573 and 2536

1:1 [August 1995]
1000 copies

Cover photo: James Treece [left] posed outside the Boulder City barracks of CCC Company 573 shortly after the company transferred from Overton, NV, in January 1936. [Treece photo]

Title photo: Enrollee Dennis McBride digging ditches at Lake Mead, 1941 [McBride photo]

Back photo: Shoulder patch for CCC Company 2536, ca. 1939 [Boulder City Library photo]

Contents

1 . Background.....	1
2 . Joining Up.....	8
3 . Work and Education.....	18-50
Airport Improvement.....	19
Lake Mead.....	21
Natl. Park Service Headquarters.....	32
Archeological Excavations.....	34-44
Lost City and the Valley of Fire.....	34
Turquoise Mines and Willow Beach.....	39
Pierce's Ferry.....	41
Other Projects.....	44
Private Jobs.....	46
Education.....	47
4 . Camp Life.....	51-90
Barracks.....	53
Clothes.....	55
Food.....	57
Pay Day.....	61
Free Time.....	62
Las Vegas.....	68
Boulder Theatre.....	72
Captain Hall.....	76
Sports.....	80
Liquor.....	82
Community Relations.....	84
5 . War and the End of the CCC: 1939 - 1942.....	91-104

* * * *