

ART DECO IN AMERICA

—EVA WEBER—

First published in U.S.A. in
by Exeter Books
Distributed by Bookthrift
Exeter is a trademark of Bookthrift Marketing, Inc.
Bookthrift is a registered trademark of Bookthrift Marketing, Inc.
New York, New York

Copyright © 1985 Bison Books Corp.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

ISBN 0-671-80804-4

Printed in Hong Kong

Reprinted 1987

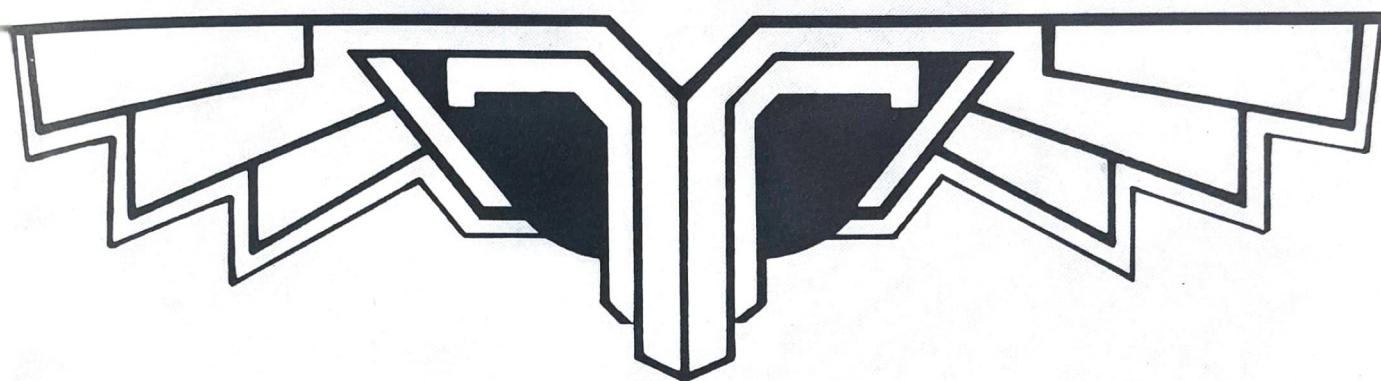

The author and publisher would like to thank the following people who helped in the preparation of this book: Barbara Paulding Thrasher, who edited it, Mary R Raho, who did the picture research, and Martin Bristow, who designed it.

Page 1: Waylande Gregory, Light Dispelling Darkness, 1937.
Page 2: Raymond Hood, McGraw-Hill Building, New York City, 1931.
This page: Gold Diggers of 1935 featured art deco style scenecraft.

—EVA WEBER—

ART DECO IN AMERICA

Ester Books

NEW YORK

 A Bison Book

CONTENTS

Chronology	6	6 Industrial Design	132
Introduction	10	7 New Deal Art Programs	146
1 Sources and Parallel Tendencies: Painting, Sculpture and Photography	24	8 Expositions	162
2 Architecture	46	9 Revival	178
3 Furniture and Interior Design	70	Selected Bibliography	188
4 Illustration and Graphic Art	90	Acknowledgments	189
5 Ceramics, Glass, Metalware, Plastics	106	Index	190

